GIVING BACK

TO THOSE WHO SERVE

TO SERVE IS TO HONOR AND RESPECT
A LIFE LONG IMPACT

Windermere

EDMONDS

Those who serve, whether in the military, fire service, EMS, law enforcement, or other roles of public duty...give of themselves with courage, discipline, and unwavering commitment. You protect, defend, respond, and stand ready in moments when others cannot. You help uphold the safety, stability, and well-being of our communities, often at great personal sacrifice. You shape the character of our neighborhoods and strengthen the fabric of our country, sometimes quietly behind the scenes, sometimes leading from the front. Thank you for all you've done and all you continue to do. Your service matters more than words can express.

Steve Alseth is more than a real estate advisor and broker—he is deeply rooted in the values of service, community, and commitment. Many of Steve’s closest family members and friends have served our country and communities in the military and as first responders. Their examples, sacrifices, and the lessons they’ve shared have had a lasting impact on how Steve shows up in the world. Because of these influences, and as part of a team that shares strong connections to first responders, and military service members, Steve is driven to support and honor the people who give so much of themselves for others. For him, extending additional care and resources to families in these professions is only natural.

If you are a current or retired service member and are considering buying or selling a home, we would like to give back to you and your family.

GIVING BACK TO THOSE WHO SERVE

STEVEN W. ALSETH, REAL ESTATE BROKER

Phone: 206.372.6908 | Email: Alseth@windermere.com

I started my journey in real estate, like many of you looking for a house, navigating financing, then making that house it into a home. Then remodeling houses, managing properties and built a home. Taking that passion to help others in the journey waking up everyday on the hunt for that exciting property.

I joined Windermere Edmonds with a clear goal: to deliver exceptional service while helping clients navigate a wide range of real estate transactions.

In addition to being an Edmonds local, I bring deep community knowledge and a trusted network that give my clients a true advantage. With an honest, approachable style and relentless commitment to my client success make me the right choice for your next buying or selling transaction.

Because of our team's strong commitment to the community, I am very excited to share the Giving Back to Those Who Serve program. This program not only saves military, firefighters, police but other public service employees money when buying or selling a home, it also donates back to charitable organizations for those serving our communities. Our dedication to giving back is a core part of my mission as I continue to serve the communities of Edmonds, Shoreline, Terrace, Mukilteo, Snohomish & King Counties.

TO HELP ANOTHER IS AN ACT OF COMPASSION TO INSPIRE ANOTHER IS GIFT

Steve really does understand the nuances of the PNW, he's provided great advice and responsiveness as we've started our home buying process. - Jessica M.

"If there is someone that bleeds "it's an Edmonds Kind of Day" it's Steve. I jokingly call him the unofficial Mayor of Edmonds. If you have a question or need, he'll find out for you with deep roots and broad array of connections." - Aaron H.
