

PRESS RELEASE

McElhaney Three Key Endorsements

Orchard Park, NY — Braiden McElhaney, candidate for Orchard Park Town Council, today announced a new wave of major endorsements from the Patriot PAC (founded by Congressman Pat Ryan), Equality New York, and WNY Democrats for Progress. These endorsements reflect growing momentum behind McElhaney's message to invest in our future through strong, transparent, and accountable local government.

"I'm honored to have the support of Patriot PAC, Equality NY, and WNY Democrats for Progress," said Braiden McElhaney. "Our community deserves a Town Council that is transparent, listens to residents, and invests smartly in infrastructure, public safety, small businesses, and inclusive policies that strengthen opportunity for everyone. These endorsements affirm that our campaign is focused on building a stronger future—together."

McElhaney's platform centers on:

- Transparency & Accountability: Clear communication, open meetings, and responsible budgeting.
- Smart Investment: Infrastructure, public safety, and small business support to meet present needs while planning for tomorrow.
- Inclusive Community: Policies that respect and uplift all residents, ensuring everyone has a voice in Orchard Park's future.

"These organizations recognize that local leadership matters," McElhaney added. "We're running a campaign grounded in service, facts, and long-term investment—not shortcuts. Orchard Park can lead by example with practical solutions and open, honest government."
