Members must prioritize the welfare and safety of clients. Those practicing as hypnotherapists must adhere to the principle of "Do No Harm," ensuring that their practices do not cause physical, emotional, or psychological damage.

Members must treat all individuals with respect, regardless of their race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, religion, or background.

They should provide an inclusive environment for all clients.

5. Integrity of Practice

Members must be truthful in their advertising, representations, and claims regarding their services. They should avoid any deceptive practices and ensure that clients have realistic expectations of hypnotherapy outcomes.
