

"2" Signs Have Come -

Democracy Upon All the Waters!

AT-10

In the book of Matthew, chapter 24, Jesus was asked by His disciples, and they said unto Him, "Tell us, Lord, what will be the sign of Your coming, and of the end of this age?", of the age. And, the age that they were talking about was the age they had just entered into, was the age of Mercy. For the age to follow Mercy is the age of truth. "And Jesus answered and said unto His disciples, 'Take heed that no one deceives you.'" The He went on down to give you many things. He said there will be "wars and rumors of war, and there would be all the things, but the end is not yet." "Nation will rise against nation." In other words, there will be civil war within nations. The nations, the people, will fight against their governments. They will fight against their leadership. They will fight against their own people, and there will be civil wars, and there will be national wars, and there will be wars inside their own country. They will fight political wars. They will fight religious wars. They will fight between each other each other on religion in their own country, and we've seen this happen now for some hundreds of years. And, particularly in the last hundred years. But He said, "...the end is not yet."

He said there will be "pestilence and famines, earthquakes in various places," and we have seen earthquakes like we've never seen in the last few years. And He said, "These things...", though, "...are the beginning of the sorrows." They are the beginning of the sorrows to come. "Then you'll be delivered up to tribulation and people will kill you, and you will be hated by all the nations for My name sakes." Who will be hated? The Jews of the Lord, the people of God. And many of the people who said they were believers, in Jesus, those who said that they followed Him, and Jesus said, "Many of you then will be offended." You will betray one another and will hate one another. You will be offended in My name, because people speak wrongly and ugly towards you, you will be offended instead of holding up My name, instead of standing steadfast, and speaking back, and giving them the true word, you will be offended instead. In other words, you won't say anything, you will be ashamed, and you'll hide your head in shame in a way that will not be seen, but you will know you are hiding it in shame, and you will go off somewhere and say, "Well, Lord, I didn't want to say anything because they might have been upset at me, and they might not have liked me, and so I'll be ashamed and offended by the word that someone is saying to me that would come against the true word of the Living God," maybe by religious people, maybe by atheist and by the offenders.

"And many false prophets will rise up and deceive many." These false prophets will be the ones in the pulpit. They'll be those who preach, "Well, the time is not yet. Well, goodness, we've got many more years. We know that this might not be a real thing. It just might be a spiritual thinking and a happening." "And there will be false prophets who will say," "Boy, the things are changing. The world is now going to get better. Everything is going to look better. "And these false prophets will rise up," and will begin to say, "Look at what's happening. We have now begun to have democracy and freedom all around the world. This is what God wants, freedom, democracy, for all the people, so everyone will have a right to life, and they will have a chance to make good decisions and make money, and have a home, and raise a family, do all these good things."

But I say to you, that's the sign that has come. The sign of the end is the democracy of the world, the great whore upon the many waters. And this great whore was perpetrated and brought forth by the United States of America, a nation that was once founded as a federation of states to have freedom of religion to worship God, and instead of having freedom of religion to worship God, they began to have freedom of religion of all types: freedom of Buddhists, freedom of Hindu, freedom of Catholicism, and freedom of all of all types of religions. The freedom that they began to have became a thing of great sorrow, of great blaspheme unto the Lord. For instead of worshipping Him, they began to turn unto worshipping themselves.

It became a freedom of religion for the freedom of people, the right to elect their own government: the right to make their own ways, the right to do their own thing, the right to be free - free to sin, free to be immoral, free to do what they want to do without restriction or restraint. And, the same freedom that they felt that they had toward the government and toward the nation was the same freedom that they thought they had toward God.

Where did it all began? It began with the first religion brought on of the devil, that great tempter, Satan himself, the great serpent in the Garden of Eden, when he tempted Adam and Eve, and he brought forth in his temptation to them a freedom of religion. He said to them, "Now, God wants you to really know what is right and wrong. He wants you to be free. He doesn't want you restricted. He wants you to be free so that you'll be like Him, be like a god. A god has freedom. A god has the right to do what He wants to do," but it wasn't so. For in the beginning God created Adam, and He gave unto Adam the desire to follow Him, to obey Him. You don't see the creation of God otherwise. You don't see trees, you don't see the waters, you don't see the clouds, you don't see the cattle, you don't see the world, the creation of God, the flowers, and the grass, and the life that you see created in animals and fish change their ways. They don't become free, because they hold strait-fast and steadfast to the word that God created them with, to His creation within them.

But man, now took upon the Garden of Eden a freedom in himself. And, after he had taken that freedom, God said, "Man has now become like us. He was speaking to the Father, and to the Word, and to the Spirit, Who were together, They, those Three, which is the Godhead, being One. They were One, yet They were three separate parts. Man, then, began to have freedom to do what they wanted to do. He had set himself free by his violation and disobedience to the Word and Law, and the Will of God. He broke that bondage between Him and His God of creation. And, he said, I am going to walk in my own ways.

Who was the first one who broke into that freedom? It was Satan, Lucifer himself, in whom God had created in the greatest of all creation, the greatest of all of his creatures, He had created Lucifer, and he took that on himself to be free, because he began to think in his heart, "Well, maybe I wasn't created. Maybe I am like God. Maybe I have that freedom to do what I want to do," so he set himself free to take the angels and to rebel against God.

It's no different than today in most of the countries of the world. They call themselves democrats, democracy, but in reality what they are is rebellious people. It isn't that democracy and democrats, a democratic country is..., and I don't care if you're a democrat or a republican, or a federation, or an independent, or what, if you live in a democratic country, it's all the same. That's not the sin. That's not the problem. It is the freedom that man has gained and given himself through the ages that have now come, to the time that has now come, to set himself free from kingship and lordship and rulership of God, to where he is now an independent animal. I didn't say human being, I said an independent animal. For animals are the ones that act like men do today.

Immorality. Never been such upon the face of the earth. They transport it, export it, import it. They roll it around in every direction. Lies, deceit, murder, crime, drugs, decrepitude, all types of sickness through human beings, and the importer and exporter of this is the land of democracy, the land of the democrat, the country in whom God gave His Spirit to be, and Who brought forth this country to serve Him, has now turned to serve and worship themselves.

There have been many signs that have come, but the sign that has just come and has just past, is the sign that was given of Communism. It was the worst thing that has come upon the earth, because in its seventy rough years, about seventy years upon this earth, they have killed approximately one-third of the world's population. They have killed and destroyed about one third of the number of the people that lived upon the earth during that time. Some of the countries, like Russia, probably had two hundred, three hundred million deaths. Million deaths! In China, an untold number, maybe three-hundred, four-hundred million people. There is not a country that has turned to Communism that hasn't had in the hundreds of thousands and the hundreds of millions in some cases. For seventy years now, just roughly seventy years Communism, Socialism has been upon the earth. In its reality, it wasn't what was wrong. It wasn't the sin of Communism, it was the sin of man who used Communism as a tool of suppression, a tool of murder, but while that was going on, then look at America who had the right to be a land of the free.

Did they serve God out of the love of their heart? Did they worship Him because He was holy, and righteous, and just God, or did they just go to church and pay homage to Him and have their fun, and their concerts, and their singing concerts, all their great parties and feasts?

In Revelation, chapter 9, it states in there that "...out of their mouths came fire, smoke, and brimstone, and by these three plagues a third of mankind was killed, by the fire, and the smoke, and the brimstone which came out of their mouths." Now these are demons, demonic, ungodly, unsaved people. It could easily have referred to Communists, and the Communists rulers throughout the world, because that's what came out of their mouths: fire, smoke, and brimstone, and death. And, they killed about a third of mankind. Now it says, "...but the rest of mankind who were not killed by these plagues, they did not repent of the works of their hands." "...they did not repent of the works of their hands that they should not worship demons,...." And, it goes on to explain, "...and demons and idols, of gold, silver, brass, stone, wood, which can neither see, nor hear, nor walk." And, they did not repent of their murders or their sorceries, or their sexual immorality, or their thefts. In other words, the rest of the world who was not under this strain, the rest of the world who was not under this judgment, they did not repent either. They did not repent, because they were set free.

Now, idols are demons, and idols are ideological things, and idols are a way of government, a way of life that we establish for ourself. These idols come into our heart and they become a way of life, and we begin to think of them as what we have need of. We begin to think of them as the gift of life that God has given us, but not so, because they're idols. They are idols that are here that we worship, and we believe in, and we trust in.

Now, in the book of I John, chapter 5, the last verse, John, the prophet, the apostle, he wrote: "Little children, keep yourself from idols, Amen." "...keep yourself from idols, Amen." Now, an idol is a false idea in our heart. An idol is a worthless doctrine in our mind. An idol is a demon, evil spirit, evil idea within our hearts, in our lives. An idol is harboring of hate and bitterness, or other sin.

An idol is a worldly lust, a worldly lust, a desire. A lust is a great desire. A lust is an extremely strong urge and desire to do something, to have something, to see something, to find something, to pleasure yourself with something. That's lust, and worldly lust could be anything that pleasurizes the flesh. It pleasurizes yourself that you might want in your daily life, and you just feel, "I got to have these new clothes. I just got to have a new pair of shoes. I've just got to have a vacation this year. I just got to have this new car. I just got to have this or that, and all these things fit under worldly lusts.

Well you say, "Well, is it wrong to have a new car?" Oh, I didn't say that at all. I didn't say that. I said, the unusual, the strong, the type of urging that says, "I just got to have it. So-and-so has got one, and ours have got to have." And, it's such a type of lust that when I get through, I'm going to get it one way or another. But, if I were to pray for something that I have need of, and I say, "Lord, if I have need of this here, would You furnish it for me, would You bring it forth?" And, in the course of the day, and in the course of my living it all of a sudden it becomes very clear that God has put it before me, He's provided a way for me to get it, and I don't have that lust, that yearning that says, "I got to have it." Instead it comes about, and I'm very thankful for it, and I use it, and I'm very thankful to God that I have it.

I can look back, and I can use the book of Job as a great example. Job had all kinds of furnishings in this world. He was a very rich man. In fact, he was a prince in all the land. He was one of all the richest of all the princes that owned land, cattle, sheep, and goods. He was known throughout all the country as the great wealthy man he was. And when the enemy of Satan took away from him, what belonged to Satan, which was his family, his cattle, his donkeys, his goats, all of his goods, and he destroyed him, just literally destroyed him, and then he took his health away. When he did all that, Job clung on to the fact that he would still wait upon God, and finally one day, he saw God. He understood Him. He finally came to his understanding Who God really was, and he no longer needed that lust, because he had his fulfillment in the fact that he knew God. He said, "I abhor myself now, and I repent in dust and ashes, because I've been a very wrong man. I thought I knew, but I knew not God. I knew of Him." He said, "I now am sorry, and I weep," and he wept and he sorely repented, and he sorely prayed before God, and he no longer lusted for the things of this world and the riches that he once knew, and all the power that he once had, but instead, he then sought after the ways of the Lord, and God then blessed him. He gave him a new family, a new wife, new children, so that he had an equal number of children that he had previously. He gave him from his family and from others who gave to him, to make him humble, and to keep him humble, he gave him goods, gold, silver, cattle, and he began again. In the end, he lived twice as long. He had twice as much goods, and he was a very humble, broken-down man.

Another picture of that same thing was Jacob, a man of pride at one time, a great man of pride, and a man who was a real man of the world. He was really at it, and then God broke him. He wrestled with the Angel of the Lord, and he ended up dislocating his hip. He let him go down to a country where he was not supposed to be, and he worshiped God in his own way, instead of the country where you worship God, where God was God. In the end, his daughter was raped, his sons killed the people of the city. He was an outcast man throughout all the land where he dwelt, and so into that he fled to safety.

Some years later he lost his only son that he really prided himself in, was Joseph. And, Joseph was sold a slave and ended up going through a great hardship, and in that Jacob was broken, from Joseph's incident, to where he was a broken, humble man. He grew old, and he grew wiser. He grew broken, and he grew humble. So when the years came that he went down to see his son Joseph once again in the land of Egypt, which stands for the world and the wickedness of the world, Jacob went down with his family to a place to where there was food, where his son Joseph was located, that he might live his last days with him, and he no longer had power, he no longer had great bigness, he was a humble man. But, he was still the father of those sons whom he loved, and for that he was thankful, and God blessed him greatly. Jacob died in the land of sin, in the land of the world, the sin of the world, which was symbolized by Egypt throughout the scripture, but he had a totally different nature. But, he repented.

The Lord said here, that after these signs come, after the things that happen, that men will not repent. They will not repent of their fornications. They will not repent of their evil deeds. They will not repent for their desire for gaining gold and silver, and goods of themselves. They will not repent of their false ideas. They will not repent of their worthless doctrines. They will not repent of the harboring of hate and bitterness, and the religion of the world that they have.

What is the great religion that is upon all waters today? Democracy. How did it get there? America exported it. America, the land of the free, and the home of the brave, was also the land of the renegades, the land of the rebellious, the land of the individual thinkers, the land of single minded-people, the land of those who sought after goods, glory, and power, and might for themselves.

Democracy was good. Freedom of the people was good, but the problem was that people are not broken. The people were not give over to God, and therefore, they could not live a Godly, moral life, without laws, laws, more laws. We added more laws onto laws. We got more laws, and yet, still, sin is rampant. Crime is everywhere, because the laws do not stop people from doing wrong. The more laws you make the more that they will find a way around it, the more they will find something else to sin with. That's what's happening these days.

The nation has become a land of immorality, a total land of renegade. They go to church. They have churches on every street corner, but in none of them, practically none of them, can you find the word of God with power and might, bringing about conviction, weeping, and sorrow, to where they are broken. They are always worried about the other country in the world whose wrong, not them. Religious man says, "Well, I'm preaching the word to these people over here, but it's not for me. No, it's not for me. I don't have any demons. I don't have any problems. I don't have any sin. God's got all mine taken away. I'm just a lily-white, lily- white man, but I'm preaching, and I'm going to teach to all these others over here who have got the sin, who has got the problem. I'm going to beat the Bible over their head," and they can't even see their own problems. That's the land of democracy. That's the land of religion.

Now, the scripture says some different things which I'll give you, and you can look it up. You can see it on your own. There's some areas here I'll give that will be found in the Word, that are written, the prophecies of the things to come. The word that came to me in the last few days was that "The second sign has come, behold the third comes quickly." Now I don't know whether to translate that into saying the Lord was trying to say the second woe has come, and the third comes quickly, or whether He was saying two signs have come, and the third is coming quickly.

I know what the two signs are that He gave to me. One of those signs was the Middle East crisis that rose up, to show you that it rose, and that God put His hand upon it because it was ahead of its time, and yet it is there to be seen as a sign. Because, it is not the real thing, it is the sign. And the second sign that He gave, was the collapse of Communism, which is been upon the world for seventy years, but not that so much as the fact is that Democracy is now upon all the waters.

Democracy, that great religion, that great harlot, has now proceeded to go upon all the waters of all the world. What will be the outcome? Anarchy. The next thing that comes will be anarchy. That will be people living without a ruler. That will be chaos. They will be doing their own thing. They don't want anyone to rule them. Nobody can rule them. Nobody can reign. Nobody can give them guidance. They will be immoral in every way. They will be living in anarchy. And, some countries have already, now approached that area. Following anarchy will come total collapse, will come total warfare, and out of that shall come again a dictatorship, or a one man rule, or a tremendous change of everything. I will tell you what that change could be. I do not know. The Lord has not revealed that to me, but I will say, that out of that man will turn back to his God, because he will come to the place where he will be nearly annihilated. The mankind of this earth will be nearly annihilated. At the end of this age, which has now come, the age of Mercy, as we approach the age of truth, there will be great warfare like never before. There are all these countries turning to Democracy, but there are nuclear weapon throughout the world, and they are without control. They're without reason, unto a nation that is now in an uprising like never seen before. Chaos is about ready to break out. How soon? One month? One year? I don't know, but I believe it is going to be very soon. There is no controls. This is the whore that sits upon many waters now, and throughout the earth, everything has fallen.

The Lord gave me back in 1979, He gave me very clearly, and He spoke to me, and He brought forth to me, and I had to find it in the Scripture; and it's found in Habakkuk 1:5. He gave that to me, and I did not know, because many times He gave me scriptures at that time that I did not yet know. I had to look them up, because as I heard Him speak them to me, I then later on found these things located. Habakkuk 1:5 I'll read to you. Habakkuk 1:5 says, "God said to me, 'Look among the nations and watch what's going to happen. Be utterly astounded, for in your day I will work a work in your days, which you would not believe though it were told you, for indeed, I'm raising up the Chaldeans, a bitter and hasty nation, which marches through the breadth of the earth to possess dwelling places that are not theirs. They are terrible and dreadful. Their judgment and their dignity proceeds from them. Their horses are swifter than leopards, and more fierce than any wolves. Their chargers charge ahead. Their calvary comes from afar. They fly as the eagles that hasten to eat.'" Now, that's airplanes, or warfare, or whatever. I always felt that might have been communists. I always thought that might have been the land of rebellion, but that wasn't. That was the downfall of the nations into democracy. That was the downfall into democracy. We as a nation and other nations hastened to bring about democracy throughout the earth, as fast and as rapid as possible. In it's reality, in its face democracy looks good, and for that reason the Lord had written in the scripture, many will be deceived in that day. They will not understand the beast, nor will they understand the dragon that gives power to that beast, who would give power to democracy. There must be, obviously, something setting over democracy, and it is a world dominating power of darkness. It is the largest power of darkness that is known today upon the earth other than Lucifer, who is an individual, not omnipresent as God is. That demon is the demon of democracy. He is the ruler of darkness, great principalities in places of darkness is that ruler.

Now there are four different types of demons and powers of darkness, and one of them is a ruler in high places. And this ruler of democracy would be, probably, one of the strongest of the henchmen, side-kicks of Lucifer, whose army is organized, and whose powers of darkness are organized. He is ruling and reigning and riding herd upon the earth, bringing it forth that nations may go into immorality and rebellion.

A nation under seige and under persecution will turn to God, but a nation under democracy will turn to religion, fun and games, concerts at their church, and little parties, and everybody has a fun day, and nobody has to answer to anything, and nobody has to make a commitment, and nobody has to put out his life unto his death, because it's not required of them, because they have freedom. Therefore, they take each other to court. They go to court in judgment against each other. Everybody wants his money. Everybody wants to be rich. Everybody wants gold and silver and all the things, the works of his hands, and that's a religion of democracy. It's the greatest religion, the pleasure of man, and of immorality that I know of. There is no other religion - and I'm not talking about a goodness, in betterness, and like; I'm talking about there is no greater in size, no greater in religion that has every been upon the face of the earth, than democracy.

Am I advocating the down-throw of democracy? Not at all! I'm telling you the sin of democracy. I'm telling you the sin of man who lives in a democracy, a democrat in a democracy. He lives for himself, by himself, to do his own will. He is rebellious against his leaders. He's rebellious against God. He is rebellious against anything, because his philosophy that he grew up with as a child, through all his life, is that "It is mine. I have a right to it. I can get what I want when I want it, how I want it, and I can rebel. I can bitch. I can moan. I can hate, and I can kill. I have the right to do anything I want to do, because I'm a democrat in a democracy." Or, "I'm a republican in a democracy." It doesn't make any difference.

But, it's the charter of our nation. What does our charter say? It says that a democracy is founded upon this principle: that all people were created equal to do what they want without being told, as long as they stay within the laws of the country. And, if you note, most of the laws of the country are so immoral that a man living in a democracy can live in total sin and hatredness of God. He can violate every charter of God and live in a democracy and be a good citizen. Don't tell me that this religion of democracy isn't sinful.

There is no laws in this country today that support the Lord. There is no feeling in man to do that which is right in God's sight, but instead to do that which is evil. There's never been a more evil time, and the thing about it is, that is it is exactly like it was in the days of Noah. It's identical to the days of Noah, in that all men know God, they know of Him. And, His Spirit is upon the earth working with all men, but none will hear.

Many will come and have a democratic religion. Many will come and go to a democratic church to where they go on a Sunday dressed up in their Sunday Easter clothes, and they go down and listen to that preacher on Sunday, and they'll say to him, "Wow! Good sermon, Preacher. We're glad you're not talking about us. We're glad you're talking about all those sinners and those gentiles over there." And they themselves, need a mirror.

We've imported from the countries around, we've imported religions, of all types. We've imported Hinduism, Buddhism, and every abominable religion that is against God, that supports the devil, that worships the devil. And in our own religion that we had, when we had religion to start with, we had the worship of God and the strictness of it, man has to adhere to it. Man has to set himself to do the laws of God willingly, desirously, in his heart. A man who lives in a free country has to set his heart to obey the laws of God, because he loves God; and, he doesn't allow that freedom to be a sin against God. Then, it will work! When man begins to live and walk for God, because he loves God, and he honors God, and he knows God, and he loves Jesus, ...but when our country comes to that place, it will be a totally new country, not like today at all. For today, we have gone astray, far astray. We're like the days of Noah.

And we send around the world to other countries to say, "Give up your way. Give up your way, and become a democrat. Become a democracy. Give the freedom to the people so that they can revolt, rebel, so that they can do every lustful, sinful thing, that the world's ever seen." And, that's exactly what they head out to do. That's exactly where they go.

And, a child grows up beginning to believe that he has a right to everything that he wants, and so they begin at the earliest of age to do every wrong and sinful thing against God, and the laws of the country allow it. So they're living under the context of the law, and considered good citizens, they're considered good people, as long as they don't violate the laws of the country. Sin? Yes. Second sign? Yes. The second sign is the fall of communism, or the rise of democracy. It is the overflow of all the nations from within that democracy took over. I've never seen such a thing. I would have never believed such a thing, even if God had told me that that was going to happen. So Habakkuk 1:5 has come to pass in my life, in the time of my life, as God gave to me some time ago, "It has come to pass."

I told you this years ago, that it would come to pass. I told you that there would be these things that would happen that you wouldn't even believe if you saw it. I told you several years ago. I began four years ago to tell you that the sin and the whore upon many waters was democracy, the religion of democracy, and it's the religion of Babylon.

So we go back into Revelation, chapter 18 and 19, particularly 18: "After all these things, I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority, and the earth was illuminated with his glory, and he cried mightily with a loud voice saying, 'Babylon the great has fallen, is fallen, and is become a habitation of demons, a prison of every fowl spirit and a cage for every unclean and hatred bird.'" Now, Babylon was a city, at that time, of great religion. Babylon was a city filled with religion of the world. It was also one the richest, most powerful. It was a place where people went to to have fun and frolicking. It was like New Orleans of this nation. It was like San Francisco. It was like New York all combined. And Babylon was a great place of that time, Mystery of Babylon the Great, the Mother of Harlots and of the abominations of the earth. Can you think of any religion that has a mother more so than democracy in America. For the United States was the birth place, the motherhood of democracy. It was the motherhood of democracy when man began to rule himself without authority. And, when man grows up without that authority, he inherently takes away the authority of God. He does not understand how to give authority to God. He doesn't understand how to subject his life to the rulership of God. He does not understand what it means to be subjected to any kind of laws, rules, or anything else that would hinder his pleasure and his progress of his own life. He doesn't want anybody to tell him what to do and how to do it. He doesn't want any restriction in his life. And, that's a democrat! A democracy! The great religion, the Whore, the Mother of Harlots.

From democracy has come, emulated, every type of sin that you can think of. I can't think of any sin that hasn't come from democracy: our World Court, our Justice of the Peace, our Supreme Court, and our law makers has always leaned toward whatever the people want. Well, more than the majority, 50%, want this then we're going to have this law. The law says we can kill babies now. Well, that's one of the laws. There are many others. The law says also you can't have religion, you can't worship God, you can't worship Jesus, because it might offend the Jew. It might offend the Buddha or the Hindu. So, Jesus, we'll cut Him, out because of that. But if you were sitting here out on the street worshipping Buddha or Hinduism they wouldn't say anything to you because it wouldn't offend the judges.

I didn't say, "Go out in the street and worship." I didn't say, "Go make a spectacle of things," because the worship of Jesus should be in your heart and should be in your lives, should be in your way of life, but until this country turns back to Jesus, to God the Father through Jesus, because there's no way to get to God the Father, there's no way to get to the Creator, God, except through Jesus. There is no other way except through Jesus, the Living Word of God and the Christ Who came. And so, until it does the nation will continue to fall.

So, God gave to me in the last few days, "Two Signs have come, and behold, the third comes quickly." The two signs were the sign of the Middle East, which I told you ahead of time was one of the signs, and the second sign was the democracy that is now overtaking the earth and putting everything in place. Everything is in place for that great revolution. Everything is in place for that great anarchy to begin.

After the days of Joshua, as the ruler of the people, when they went into the land and took the land through fighting, because they had to fight to get those demons out of the land. They had to fight them. It's the same as a man has to do in his life today to get the demons out. After they did, they said, "We're tired now. We want a rest time. We want to sit down and raise our family, and plow the land, and we want to just have peace. We don't want anybody to bother us." So many years, hundreds of years, they had no king, they had no ruler, they did not have God, they did not have any ruler, because they went into a time of anarchy. They had no rulers. So every so many years, every two generations, roughly, they would go into sin, and God would take His hand off of them, and they would go into exile. They would be captured by the Assyrians, or by the Babylonians, or by the Egyptians, or whoever was around them, and they would stay. God would leave them there for fifteen, twenty, thirty, forty years, until they finally fell on their face and they began to weep and cry, and He saw them and He felt sorry for them because they were yet a young nation. So He felt sorry for them and He hurt for them, so He would send a deliverer, a judge over the nation. And, that judge would come in and judge the nation, and rule it, and judge, for a period of time, then would rise up and deliver the nation from their captivity. They would turn back once again to God, and they would stay there for a few days, or a few years, until a generation had past, and sure enough, without rulership, without the Lordship of God, in Whom they wouldn't want, they didn't want His Lordship. They didn't want Him to rule and reign over them. It was too direct. It required them to give up themselves and their pleasures, and they knew those pleasures, because they lived down in Egypt all their life. That's the same as a man today. I'm giving you a direct reference to America today. America has been Egypt all their life, and now man can't come out of it. He can't go back and serve God, because he's too accustomed to serving himself. He's too accustomed to having all the pleasures of the world, where all the sins are in it. He's too accustomed to having the laws that allow him to do all the sinful things that he can, to enjoy the pleasures of the flesh, the works of the hands, the great thoughts of the mind. In mind, he rules himself. So mankind today has come away from God the same as it has in the days of old, even more so. even in the days of Noah.

In the days of the first Israelites, after Joshua, God would send a ruler, a judge, who would judge over His people. You'll find it in the book of Judges, and in the book of Judges, it explains all this. It tells who all the judges were, and how they went to deliver the people, and how God felt sorry for them and sent people, sent those to deliver them. Samson was one of them, and Gideon was one.

Gideon was a great deliver, and God had Him to do mighty things through Gideon, and Gideon had many sons, and one of them killed all the rest of them so that he would get rulership. I don't know whether he killed seventy or eighty of them, and then Samson, and many years later, and he had one woman, who He gave in there. She rose up, and He allowed a woman to deliver them, which was greatly needed because that really humbled them. Abimelech... But Gideon really got in and destroyed it. Deborah was what I was looking at. Deborah was the deliverer. She came and delivered the people, and she did it in such a way that God used her mightily. She didn't do it out of the power and might of herself. She did it out of a way that God knew that He would destroy the enemy and set His people free.

Today, when anarchy occurs, there won't be any rulership. There will be man fending himself. There will be man living for himself, where in reality that is exactly what we have today in America. In America today, man in an anarchy. He just hasn't made it a nation of anarchy yet. He's only become an individual of anarchy, and man will become under a rulership of anarchy. They have no rulers in their own mind. They curse our leaders. They fight against everything in the country. They violate all the laws. They end up doing every sinful evil thing they can do, and they live like morons, demons, and they are out for one thing - the works of their hands. They want to have idols of gold, silver, brass, wood, things that can neither see, nor hear, nor walk, but they put them in their pocket, they hide them in their bank, they put them on their lot, they live in them each day, and that becomes their great idols. That becomes their life-span, that becomes their great joy and delight and gladness. And God said this is what they will do, "When they begin to see the signs, they will not worship Me. They will not be broken and humbled and repent before Me, but instead they will continue more so to seek their idols of gold and silver and the works of their hands." This is what we are seeing today. "Behold, two signs have come, the third cometh quickly."

Behold, the thing that God said, that if I told you would occur, you couldn't believe me. He said, "You wouldn't understand Me. You'd be astonished." And He said, "That thing has come to pass." That internally, at it's own power, under it's own weight, communism is collapsing, and the religion that is upon many waters, is now going up on all the world. He said there would come a day when this great beast would be upon all the earth, and it would be such that they would say, "Who can talk against it? Who can speak against this mighty beast? Who can say bad things against this mighty beast? This one who has a great mouth, speaking pompous words, and speaking for it's own glory. Who could ever do that?"

Don't be worried about Saddam Haussan being a world leader. Nobody is going to follow him, just a few, and it has very little affect. Don't worry about some man like that, because the scripture says that when this beast comes. When this dangerous one comes, he will have a voice that will speak pompous words, and people will say, "Who is like unto this man? Who is like unto this beast? Who could come against Him? Who could put him down?" Well, George Bush would be the closet thing to fitting that today. Wouldn't he? Who could speak against him, because he's become the spokesman of the world. He has shown the world that he is a great leader. He has shown the world that democracy is the way to do it. I didn't say he was at all. I'm just giving you an example how you can see, because it's not going to be a system or religion that would offend others, but it will be something that doesn't offend anybody who loves the pleasures of the world. It will be a religion and a leadership of somebody who doesn't offend anybody, but instead gives them what they want, pleases their day, satisfies their immoral lusts, and causes them to want, desire every evil thing that you can have - freedom to do your own will, freedom away from God, freedom to violate God's laws, freedom to run abreast of the laws of God. Immorality will prevail, and it will be someone who have a great charismatic attitude, and voice, who stands tall in the ways of the love of men, someone who can give those great loves and pleasures unto men.

The beast that it will give pleasure to, will be the preachers, because they will say, "God wants us to be free." They will be in there preaching for democracy. They will be in their pulpits preaching everywhere, "The great thing that we have today, God loves us so much that He's given us democracy!" And in that, man will be sucked in, and everyone except the very elect will when they forsee it, when God allows them to see it, anyone besides those elect shall fall under the great sway of the democracy that is upon the earth. They will believe that it is a gift of God. They will believe its coming straight from Jesus. They will believe that the Great Creator and the Master and Savior has brought democracy for us.

But I tell you, that in the days of Jesus, He says, don't try to become free from the Romans. Don't worry about the Romans, but instead, seek God, and He will make you free. Do the Word of God, and you shall be free no matter under what conditions you live. Trust in the Lord, and freedom shall come to you, not because you're a democrat in a freed society. For if you're made free by a democrat in a democracy, you have no freedom, but you have immorality chains all over you. For, it is the religion of the Harlot and of the Great Whore. It is the Mystery of Babylon. It is upon all the waters, and today, practically no man would ever tell you that that is the great beast, and that is the great danger. No one would tell you such a thing, because they that there's nothing greater. They believe that that is the most wonderful thing that's happened. Democracy. The freedom of people to be free.

Well, if that's true then, God was wrong against Lucifer, because He had him to worship the Lord instead of worshipping his own self and doing his own will. Well, that would be wrong then with Adam, because He put Adam in the garden to rule over the earth under God's supervision and direct leadership; therefore, he broke away, because he violated just one law of God, and that's all he needed, and he then became a sinful renegade from his wife Eve.

So today, we have upon all the earth, there's no fear. There no fear going to come. Now take away all the fear, and we don't need to worry about anything, because we're going to have freedom, and every nation will honor each other, and we'll all live in joint unity together as a democrat, and we'll ship goods to each country, and we'll all make money, and we'll all be rich, and we'll all have a good car, and a good home, and we'll be able to travel around the world in freedom, and we'll have all these good and wonderful and rich and mighty and powerful things, the works of the hands of gold, silver, and stone - all idols, created in democracy.

I didn't say that communism was good by any means. It's evil. I didn't say that a kingship was good, because they all have wrong in it, but this is the Harlot, the thing, the leadership, the government, the type of government that will deceive the people, even those who are religious. It will deceive them mightily, because they believe that this is God's great gift. They believe that this is what God has given to men, this freedom, and taken away this communism, taken away these governments of anarchy, of kingship and all: "Put down your ruler. Kill them." What has it done in some of the cases where democracy has taken over a country from communism? Well, the first thing they did was kill their leaders. So what difference is that then communism itself?

It's like the Lord said one time when I prayed that He would take a man out of one church and put him in another, but his wife that that was the best place to do. She wanted him to go out of one church and go into another one with her, because she didn't want to go to that one. She wanted to go to the another. So I being young, and naive, and not withstanding, I prayed. As I prayed with her, these words were spoke to me by the Lord, "Why would I take him out of one snake pit and put him in another?" No, He said, "Why would you ask Me to take him out of one snake pit and put him in another?" Those are the exact words, and I spoke them to her, instantly, when I received them, and she received them very thoroughly with great impact, and she never asked such a question again. In other words, while the snakes are in one pit, why should I take him and pray that the Lord deliver him out of one snake and put him in the pit with another snake? It didn't have to be that way, but it was.

So why today, why would the churches of the world, and the churches of this nation - they all preach on the great attributes and the great love for democracy, because they're free. No body bothers them. They get good tithes. They get good money, and they live high on the hog, and they have a big building. Everybody comes down to a big church and are able to take a lot of vacations together. They take a lot of travel together. They have a lot of picnics together. They have entertainment committees. They have many ministers on their staff. They get paid good money. All that's not wrong. All that is the lust that they have for those things. The fact is that they grew up believing that that was an inherent right of all mankind to have that.

Look at the days of Paul, and John, and Peter, and the great apostles of the Lord when they established the church. What conditions did they have? A democracy? Or did they face death? Did they face ridicule? Did they face tribulations, and trials? Did they face rejection by the people, so that they might love the Lord, and trust in Him as their source of strength. Did they make Him their Lord and rulership, or did they trust in the democracy of their country to deliver them and set they free?

The Lord said, "The second sign has occurred. Behold, the second sign has come, and the third cometh quickly." Whether that's really a sign that the beginning of the first woe will come, or whether that's the second woe, and the third woe cometh quickly, will not be known until the Lord reveals it in due time. But He said He would not to do things until He had revealed His secret, His mystery unto His prophets, unto His servants, the prophets, and they will give it to the people.

But, "In the days of the sounding of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, the mystery of God would be finished, as He declared to His servants, the prophets," and they too, would give it to the people. And this is today what has come, and we know that upon the earth there are great signs, earthquakes occurring, great catastrophes, and great calamities, and there are many murders, and the wickedness of the earth has become overpowering. It is unsafe to walk in the streets, it is unsafe to be found out at night, it is unsafe to be at unusual place, or the wrong place at the wrong time. Just to be outside your door, sometimes, is dangerous, to be shot from the streets. People riding along shooting a gun, killing people in their houses, firing through the walls. Yes, it's sick. But this is the land of democracy, a land of freedom.

I tell you, not so. It is a land of anarchy. It is a land of murder. It is a land of corruption. It is a land of sin, and democracy is the tool how it got here. Total democracy, and it's ready to fall. The age has come, and now is going.

But the age of Mercy was upon us, and the Lord said at the end of this age, this would come to pass, and the age of Truth will begin. The age of Mercy was where man lived in sins, said, "I believe in Jesus, and I know He'll save me, because He takes all my sin, and I don't have to change. I can live in that sin, and I know that I'm O.K.. And so, he flaunts it, and so he makes a mockery of it with God. Same as he does with his life. He says, " I'm a democrat. I'm a democracy. I can live free. I can do what I want to. I can vote for my own government. I will tell you who to elect. I'll tell you who to put out of government. We have a right. We're a government of the people, by the people, and FOR the people - not for God, not by God.

God has no place in our society today, no place. I didn't say that the Lord should be worshipped, or that we should have church as being the head of the government, but one day they will be. But that should be the head of every house, and every man in government should believe in the Lord, and trust in Him, and false religion should be cast out. If man wants false religions, let him go to a country. Let him go to a country where false religion is worshipped, or see the way of the Lord. For God is not to be mocked, and God is not to be shunned.

Democracy is the tool of which all of this has occurred. Democrats, a justice of the supreme courts, a legislative body, who rules by the majority of people, because they wouldn't get elected; therefore, their entire way of life is based upon "What do my people want that will elect me? How will I get back in government? How can I continue to be the power that I am? I must have these people to elect me; therefore, I better do what they want me to do."

Communism is no better. Kingship is not necessarily any better, but the kings that God put in were better, because He had a kingship to rule over them, and the king was David, and he was a mighty king, and powerful, and he ruled with the righteousness of God, and he intended for men to live of that righteousness of God, and God blessed him because of it.

But democracy is the last step prior to anarchy and total collapse, and we are already in the state of anarchy and don't know it. Democracy in this country is dead, because there is now no freedom. I'm not free to go out on the streets. I'm not free to be in the dark of the night. I'm not free to go out here and to do that which is right to God. I'm not free to go out here to do those things that God would have me to do, because I'm restricted in many cases by angry mobs, by crazy people, by killers of all types, by demonic people. Anarchy is ruling, the spirit of anarchy is ruling over this nation over democracy. Over the spirit and the rulership of high place of democracy is the ruling spirit of anarchy. Behold it comes on top of it quickly and over takes it. And when there is anarchy, there is every immoral, corruption that can occur.

When this nation was first founded, it was founded on the principals of the Lord and of God, and yet they didn't restrict somebody to say you have to worship a certain way, but then they allowed everything else to come in and allowed there to be every type of corruption and ill, ir-religious group you could think of in this nation. The nation that God had given, now became a nation as Israel once became, and became so corrupt that God disbanded them and they are dispersed throughout the earth.

This nation will soon have its day. It's already in the last throws of it, and the Lord said, "Behold, the second sign has come, the third cometh quickly."

So watch the other wing. Prepare yourself for it. Have your heart ready. Have repentance completed. Know Who the Lord is. Give your life to Him. Make Him the Lordship. Make Him the King of your life. Make Him the ruler of your life. You can still live within a democracy in a democratic country without violating their laws, and live for the Lord. You don't have to go down on the street and shake placard at different people. You don't have to go out here and beat up the prostitutes, or beat up the queers and the lesbians. You don't have to go out here and curse the sick and the evil, because there's plenty of it in the religious today that you can find.

And, is you look in the mirror, you'll find all you need to satisfy the days of your life. But perhaps you can be a witness to someone else of how sick you were, and how ir-religious you were, and how unGodly you were, and how God has revealed it to you, and how you never thought you had it in your life, but you found it was there, and in doing so, when you declared it, you found that God would set you free from it, when you desired and set forth to live a new life.

You don't have to be ruled by anarchy. You don't have to be ruled by a democracy. You don't have to be ruled by anything besides the Rulership and the Lordship of God. You can live anywhere and be under His rulership, and still stay within the laws of this nation so that you're not in conflict, but it takes repentance, it takes a change of heart, it takes a love for God, and it takes a brokenness like Job knew. Nothing less will get you there. Nothing less will find the face of the Lord. You can't think about it. You can't talk about it. You can't read the word enough to get there. It requires full dedication of your life. Full dedication of your way, and full knowing that God is the Lord of all, and letting Him be that Lord, and not trying to override that little spirit, that little thought down inside, that guides you in your daily way of life. Live within it.

Seek nothing of this earth. But if you have what is given on this earth to live by, be sure you share it with others in whom God would have you, in whom are in the family, the family of God. Share it with them. Don't be proud of what you think you have, and don't be boasted and puffed up because you think that you have something bigger, prettier, than someone else, but be humble, and know that the signs that you see, and the things that are going to come on this earth are going to become increasingly more fearful in the days soon ahead until the end of this age comes. And, it will cause great loss. It will cause great hardship. Many will die, and many will perish, and many will be seen no more forever.
