

The great Evil - A Democratic Society

XXX-65

6-29-90

There is one area that I want to talk about, and discuss, and give an insight and understanding to, and that area is democracy, what is called upon the earth today, democracy. Is democracy, if you were to put it in its absolute form, would it be good? Yes. If all men upon the earth were God-fearing, well-broken, men of a humble heart, and a humble spirit, or a contrite spirit, then democracy would work, because it could be as it was in the garden. The first case we had in noted history of man, were Adam and Eve, was when God created Adam, singular. He created Adam as a man and woman, male and a female in the same body. As God was, so did He create Adam, as male and a female in the same body, and then God saw that Adam lacked companionship that he had need of, and so upon the earth he said, "I will make for him a companion." So He took from him the female portion of the man, and he made out of him, a woman. So we had a male and a female, and what they come to be known as a man and a woman, but truly it was man and man, for all men are male and female.

So the first type of government we see upon the earth in the very beginning was a theocracy. God was the ultimate ruler. He was the ultimate leader, and He had His law so that if they obeyed what He said, that all things would work to their good, and they would remain in the garden, and they had all the blessings that God could bestow upon them: food and all their daily needs were taken care of. They did not suffer from cold or lack of anything that they would have need of, but there came a time after, after they were created that they decided, or Eve decided, then Adam followed her, they decided that they were going to usurp the authority and the laws of God, the direction of God, and they were going to establish a democracy.

Now God had given man in the very beginning a mind and a will that he could make his own decision, that man could rule his own life if he desired. Man was given a will and a mind that he could or could not, desire not, to follow God. It was his privilege, whichever way; and God then bestowed upon that man the understanding so that he would desire that God would be his King and his Lord. He gave it so that man would desire to worship God as his ultimate Lord, ultimate Commander, his ultimate Chief and authority; and if man desired, sought otherwise, then God would seek to bring him to Him, and if he failed to do so, because the man's heart was made up that he was going to walk in his own way, doing his own thing, with his own freedom, which is a democracy in his own self, then God would cut him off from the face of the earth and from His Kingdom forevermore.

And so we see, in the very beginning there was a theocracy, of a type of theocracy government. God was the ultimate Lord, Ruler, King, and He gave unto man to follow Him, to abide in Him, and to do all the things that God had told him, which was one: live and enjoy, have all this garden has to offer, all that I can give you, "Fellowship with Me," God said, "each day, in the cool of the garden, but you must not eat of this tree of knowledge of good and evil." In other words, this tree represented a book of knowledge. This tree, once it was eaten, opened up the mind of understanding to then see their flesh, to see with eyes of man. No longer did they see spiritual things, they saw physical things. No longer did they have spirituality, but they had physicalness; and the lust for the physical body came upon them from that point on, and that was the beginning of democracy. They chose to be free to eat what they wanted, to do what they wanted, and to usurp the authority and the law of God.

What is democracy today? The democracy today is approximately that same thing. What is called democracy in this world is a right for any man to do what he wants to do within all realms, and the laws are made according to the majority who will rule against what is right or wrong: the people rule. Democracy is people who rule. They no longer want a theocracy. They no longer want a Lordship. They no longer want a Kingship. They no longer want a Leader. They want themselves to tell what and put in power who they want.

Democracy is a people "of the people, by the people, and for the people." It is man taking and ruling himself. He decides what he thinks is good, what he thinks is bad, what he thinks he should do and what he shouldn't, and then he proceeds to do so. If he wants to riot against the government, he does it. If he wants to create disturbances, or if he wants to create problems, he does it. Anything he wants to do, he can do it against the government, and probably get away with most of it, because a democracy is where people rule themselves - mob rule takes over. It's where a man that is elected to be in power, to rule, is elected by those who are doing what they want to do, and so they cast him in and cast him out of power. So then the men that are elected into power, in politics, must slant their views, become very distorted, and sell their souls to the highest bidder, which is the majority of people in their district, in order to get their vote. It's a case where man sells his soul for the vote that he's going to get, and it truly comes down to that in most cases.

Democracy is a place where rulership is no longer in God's hands. They talk about God. They say, "God's our ruler." God's not the Master of this country. This country is importing democracy around the world, democracy in the form of pornography, in the form of drugs, in the form of big money and big business, big thievery, big lies, big witchcraft, big hatred, bitterness, big armies, big power, big might, big control. It is where this country is importing those things around the world to say to the little countries, "You got to have democracy. You can't have a ruling people because they're tyrants, they're bloodthirsty, they're mean, they're ruthless. You can't have these people in power. You've got to have a democracy that are elected by the people, for the people, of the people," and so these little countries think that this is good. Well, they thought the same thing about communists just some sixty to eighty years ago.

Communism, socialism, was the best thing that came along at that period of time.

The ruling class of people were going to take over. The ruling class of people were going to be the lordship of the countries and get rid of these ruling kings and ruling leaders, and all these intellectuals, and all these people that had suppressed them for so many years, these families of rulership, these families that had been in power. It gave them the opportunity to slaughter them, just slaughtered them. Slaughtered the intellectuals, slaughtered the kings, slaughtered the leaders, of all these countries that were taken over by communism, socialism, actually socialism, and today the same countries are now diverting to democracy, to a democrat, a democrat (dem-o-crat), which has "good" thoughts, "good" ideas, and the first thing they did was to throw down the ruling government, slaughter their leaders or put them in jail. They are no better than the communists before them. It's just as ruthless, and in the end it will turn out to be more ruthless than the communists were.

As you begin to watch the unfolding of events to come now, the great whore, the democrat of the world. For upon many waters sat that democrat, and riding on her coattails is many religions. Those that would believe that this humanistic government is the greatest thing that ever happened, and democrat is nothing more than a humanistic government. When I say democrat, I don't care what the party is. I really don't care what the ruling party, or the party in power, the party going on is. A democrat, I'm talking about a form of government where the people rule, but they don't rule by God or by the ways or the laws of God, but instead they rule - God has no authority whatsoever. It's ruled by sheer willpower, sheer power of the people, sheer force and sheer numbers of who is the majority. It is really, a democrat is, a majority rules. It's all that it comes down to, majority rules.

If the majority of this country becomes pornographers and lustful filthy lucre, whatever it may be, then that's what will rule. If homosexuals have the numbers, then the homosexuals will become the ruling parties, and they will be heard, and the first thing you know, they will be in power. Next thing you know is that they will twist the government around. Next thing you know you're going to have chaos. Same thing with the blacks. It doesn't make any difference who it is. Whenever a minority gets in power and they do it through pushing, and they want to put across their way in a democratic government, the next thing you know the government goes down.

Now throughout the scriptures when you begin to read, note how it fits in to that country that's on the seashore that imports, exports, and how it is that she will capture, when she comes, when she begins to take over, she, the democrat, she will capture the faithful. She will capture those that are his, like the sands of the sea. Why? Because they will believe that it is the religion of God. They will believe that this is a God-ordained religion because it allows man to be free to do his own will, free to just do whatever he wants to do, free to go his own way, free to bitch, moan, gripe, whine, curse, murder, steal, lie, everything. And as you begin to watch this democracy go down hill rapidly now, you'll begin to see that they will do things that are as bad as communism. They will begin to, the first thing they have to do, as communism and socialism did, the first thing that this democratic, hippie society that is in power now must do, (and the hippies in power are the hippies of the days of old, they are the flower children of twenty years ago, they are the ones that are snorting the cocaine, they're the ones that are using the drugs, puffing on the marijuana, they're the ones that are the computer whiz kids, they are the ones that believe that the earth owes them a living, they are the ones that believe that everyone should be a millionaire, they are the ones in power now that believe that "Boy, support that democrat and make more money." "They are the ones that believe that we've got the greatest democratic society you've ever known. They are in power. And the first thing that they will have to do, is they will have to begin to knock out the white collar workers. They will have to begin to put in jail as many as they can of big business people, those that were capitalists, those that were independent, those that had money and were wealthy. They will have to destroy them as quickly, as many as they possibly can to put so much fear in those that remain, that they literally will destroy them or drive them out of the country, and it will be done by the little bitty man who was a flower child of the days of old, the hippie boy, the one who is power for himself, he is now a little city councilman, he is now a little district attorney, or assistant district attorney, he is now a little county judge, he is now a little state politician, and in the process of it, he is probably the biggest thief and the biggest liar you'll ever find. He is probably in all cases on drugs, but they are out to destroy anyone else as if they don't see in the mirror clearly, and this is as the turn will take place, the democrat will begin to rule. The people will rule the people, and there will become suppression and oppression that will come right out of your government that will put so much fear in people that the KGB in Russia and what the German people were so scared of, Himmler's forces in Germany, will look like a pussy cat compared to the IRS, the police dogs of this country, the little politicians that believe that they have so much power that they can destroy you, and all those, the judges and the lawyers, because it has to come the day of the judges and lawyers once again to rule. Because you remember there were the lawyers, the scribes, (scribes being the intellectuals, those that knew all about the books, those that could quote you all the ways of the law, those that knew everything and wouldn't live it themselves. Those are the ones who know everything in their opinion. They can run all the computers. They can write all the books. They can tell you what should be done. They knew all the ways of architecture. They know all the good things. They are school teachers of all kinds, but they have not the changed heart of God). They and the lawyers and the Pharisees will run the country. They will begin to move into mass power.

Why? Because God told you in Daniel that He would give these people power for one week, two weeks. In other words, in a very short period of time, He will take his hand off, and He will cause these people to come into power and rule and raze the land, r-a-z-e, just eat it alive, until there is nothing left fit to live in, because you'll be scared to go in the streets. You won't have safety anywhere you go because the democrat will be there looking over your shoulder. They will be as bad as the Gestapo. They will come into your house and your life and all the places around you to search you out. Whether it is right or wrong, you can look at it yourself and see. Whether it is good or bad, that's up to whatever you want to look at it. I'm showing you what is coming as it is to unfold, and the rulership of the democrat is the most anti-God society that ever has been construed. There's never been a more anti-God society than the democratic society today, and it appears so good that it will deceive so many people, they can't see it. And the churches that are of the world will fall right in line with them. Humanism is their trait. Humanism, "man ruling man," "man doing good things for men," "men doing what men think is good," to appear to be good on the outside, but on the inside they are full of dead men's bones and the blood of the prophets are shed by them.

The lawyers, the scribes, and the Pharisees, the lawyers are the IRS, Supreme Court tax collectors - all the power beings that have rulership power. There is no stronger form of government today. There is no stronger arm of our government. There is a no more devastating power as the final word without recourse than the American court system. It rules "yes" on one case, "no" on another, both being of almost equal magnitude having equal results. It's not ruled on by what's good for man, or what's good in God's sight. It's ruled on by legality, the legalities of man, and what five people out of nine consider to be their form of justice. I'm not saying they are wrong. I'm not telling you that. I'm showing you the form of government. I'm showing you where its situation today is dangerous and explosive and ready to occur.

What Daniel wrote of by his dreams is now in place. Daniel's dreams are about to unfold. Read them carefully so after it happens you will see what took place, as it begins to unfold. The nation is corrupt. It is also bankrupt. It is also sick, so sick there has nothing been like it. But when they commit the final atrocity, when they have committed that, so then there will be no hope. It will then come to pass in fullness, and that's "the abomination that makes desolate the temple of God," which is the abomination of desolation spoken of in the scripture.

But this nation is the importer into other countries of evil, sin, vileness, corruptness, sickness, every lewd thing that I could describe is imported, exported, sent forth, brought forth by this nation for the sake of power and money. Politicians who make decisions and laws are the most corrupt that this nation has probably ever seen or you will ever find anywhere. They answer to a majority. They answer to themselves. It is really sick, and as you watch it, see what is taking place, because have you ever seen anything like it? As Habakkuk said, in Habakkuk 1:5, God says, "Watch and be astounded. I'm going to do something among the nations that if I told you, you still couldn't believe it, and wouldn't understand it." And I told you that six or eight years ago. I said, "Watch," and Habakkuk 1:5 would come to pass, and then I told you that it would all happen in '89, and in the fall of '89 it would take place. When you look back you will see, it took place. Nation after nation crumbled and fell overnight. You go back to my tapes, you know where it's at. You heard me many times of when I'd told you that in '89 it would come to pass, and '89 it did. They did send forth democracy around the world, and the hand was taken off, and God said, "This time I'll do it." And to men they believe that that's the greatest thing that ever happened, but I'm telling you that it is the worst thing that ever happened.

Never in the history of mankind has such a thing ever happened so vile, so dangerous as today, the bringing forth of democracy, because in a democracy religion takes over and Christianity is cast aside out of the churches, out into the fields, and into the backyards, into the homes, where man doesn't come out to see the worldly church, who loves the Lord. Because, there is no correction. There is no policing of it. There is no persecution. There is no fire. There is no afflictions, because in democracy religion comes up with the government and rules along with it as one of the arms of it: the lawyers, the scribes, and the Pharisees. The legalists, the booklearners, the college educated, highly college educated, anti-God type, those that are skeptical, doubters, those that are the agnostics, and those that are the disbelievers, they will come. That's them, the scribes. And the Pharisees, the religious people who are the muck-muck of the world, those that are riding high on the horses, believing that they have the right way, white-washed on the outside, full of dead men's bones on the inside. Hasn't changed from the day of Jesus. As it was, so shall it be. As it was, it is. Same three. Same types. Just in a little bit different form. And today this nation is headed for chaos. Democracy has brought it forth.

Was democracy the...? No. Democracy was just the instrument and the tool of which wicked man used to gain total control of over his life and over the life of anyone he could to live in what they call the land of the free, not free from the devil, not free from demons, not free from evil, - free from God's leadership, - free to do his own will. You can't see it now. The world won't see it either until after it happens, but for the sake of my generations and my children and your children, I hope that they hear it, that they will understand what happened and why, because democracy is a God-hating, God-put down, God is submitted under man's own desire to do his own will. The laws of God don't come first, they come after man's desire to do his own will. He learns that, he grows up to believe that, and it's permeated inside of him to the place where he is no longer correctable. It is permeated in him like it was in the Canaanites when God said, "Their iniquity has matured. There is no hope for them. They will not change. They will never be converted," and He said, "That's it. Go in and destroy them all."

And upon the earth once before that in the days of Noah, God said, "I've looked upon man and I see wickedness in the intent of the hearts of all men. Their intent is to serve themselves. The intent of what they think, of what they act upon, what they do, is to do evil because their heart has an evil intent in it." He said, "It grieves Me that I have let these people be upon the earth. I have created them. I will destroy them. Every man, woman, and child, I will destroy them from the face of the earth." But He found one man, Noah, "who was just in his generations," and just in his righteousness, and God said, "But I will save this one man," and with him he took a family so that man would continue to grow upon the earth, and He began all over again, from the billions that were on the earth, He began again with a new man, and a new family for a new creation.

It wasn't long until they turned evil right again, because there was still enough in them that it didn't solve it; and God knew that, but He gave them another opportunity. Then He came along in the days after that with Jesus, and He said, "I will then have salvation only for those who believe in My Son, Jesus, My Word, My Living Word, My Son, Who will be the Savior of all those who believe in Him, confess Him, and hold on to Him as the salvation of their life," and through Him He gave that salvation and He destroyed all the rest. As they died, He destroyed them. They went to a place that they did not know God.

So then, man again has increased. There are churches. There is religious training. There is religious doing, with the freedom of himself to do his own free will living in a country that he calls a democratic country, freedom of will, freedom of doing, for the people, of the people, by the people, to the people, for us to do, for us, for us - revolt, rebel, reject, riot, kill, murder, steal, lie, cheat, fornicate. I mean you name it. There is nothing that you can't name of wickedness that is not exported out of America or imported into here for the sake of money. They could find anywhere in the world they could import it in, they would sell it to make money, or use it for their own selfish, filthy, degradation. Or outside, they export it to the world for the profit to be made on it.

And we wonder why drugs are in this nation. Why not? God's got His hand off of it. Why would He protect a nation who was so vile? But anyone who wants to turn from drugs and turn to Jesus can do so, be saved, and can give it up. He can fight the cause with the Lord, and he can give it up.

Anyone who wants to turn from sin can do so. God is still God, and His ways are still here. His love never ceases, nor does He pull it away. And even though this nation as a world nation might go down in smoke very shortly, and the world itself will be in chaos and ruins, God is still God, and His love still goes out to those who will seek His face and desire to serve Him, desire to know Him. So that's a comforting thing we have to know. The cities of this nation are in ruins, bankruptcy in most cases. Banks are failing all over the nation and haven't even started yet. Saving and loans are bankrupt all over the nation and haven't even begun yet.

AIDS, which is one of the plagues that I told you about even before it began, even back in the year of '82, that that was the plague, plague number three, I believe it was, that it would come upon man. It would be fatal and there wouldn't be a cure for it as such, and it would be the plague that God spoke of, and you can see it today. It's a curse, and even though there aren't too many that have died yet, from it around the world there's a fear of it like you have never known a fear, and yet the people that are caught up in that, in that filth, in that living, kind of conditions, using drugs intravenously, homosexuals. They are still plowing ahead believing that they are going to out race it, out do it, out live it, or out-fox it someday. But it will get them, one by one, big and small, rich and poor, unless they turn to God and turn their ways.

What are we going to see ahead? Well, the scripture has many prophecies. I can't tell you, because they are not unfolded. I do not have the understanding of what exactly will happen. I'm only giving you what God has shown me and revealed that I feel that I could give you, but if you'll read the book of Daniel, you'll see it, and then if you read the book of Revelation, chapter 17, 18, even 19, you'll begin to see more of it, and in many other places. In the book of Zechariah, you need to read that. That deals with this period of time and before and right now and after this. Then also read Revelation, chapter 11. There are many places that we are dealing with now, and the coastline, the land of the coastlines are exporting upon many waters is exactly this country, surrounded by water, exporting out into the world, their form of democracy and corruption, sickness that is going around everywhere. And when you begin to read, you'll read the scriptures you'll find that it says "that it captured them like the sands of the sea," "and even the elect would be deceived if possible." Why? Because the elect will believe that democracy is so great, and the countries that have been under tyranny and suppression and oppression and communism, they feel that the greatest thing that could ever happen is to have democracy. I don't know that it will help a one of them with God, because it will not cause them to turn their hearts to God, but instead it will cause them to turn their hearts to man and to their own flesh, to their own desires, to fulfill their own wants, and they will just go berserk very shortly. They'll just go wild in these countries to bring up what their desire is for the majority to have it's rulership. Same thing happened with the communism, same thing happened with socialism, now same thing with democracy.

Where's the end? Perhaps kingship, perhaps anarchy, perhaps theocracy, that I don't know, but the sickness is upon this nation, and the sickness is brought on by democracy. Don't ever believe that there is any good that can come out of it. Good comes out of the rulership of God. Good comes out of turning to God. Good comes out of loving Jesus Christ. Good comes from knowing His ways and being in His light, and living in His light, and God told His people in the days of old, "Go down and serve that king. Go down and live in that rulership. Go down and be a servant to be a subject in that land, and live right, and I will be with you and uphold you and lift you up." It didn't make any difference who ruled, but when a man rebels, he allowed his own people, the Jews to be slaughtered, to be taken and whipped because they were rebellious. They disobeyed God. They turned from their God. They turned from their Lord. They turned from their King in heaven. They turned from Him and went their own ways, and when he did, He took His hand off and He said, "Let the country come in and take them over."

That today is the same thing as when man does it wrong, doesn't want to follow God. He removes His hand and all that comes is demons and all these evil doers, evil spirits that come into man, infects him, drives him wild, talks to him, leads him, counsels him with lying spirits, gives him all the wrong direction to go to where man then no longer can decide by his thinking what is right or wrong. He believes what's good and he calls it bad. He believes what's bad and he calls it good, and he doesn't understand the rights and wrongs of God, because he's been infected by the incoming evil doers, the hordes of them. That's what I was talking to you in Psalms chapter 37, about the evil doers. That's nothing more than demon spirits. That's nothing more than the evil nature of the old man or woman that you were. That has to do with the evil way coming back upon you because you went astray, or because you forsook God and didn't hear His laws and walk in His spiritual ways, walk in His commandments. I'm not talking about the ten commandments. I'm talking about commandments of the Spirit of God within you leading you by the Word that He's speaking, telling you very gently inside, "No, don't go that way. Yes, do this. No, don't do that." Yet He does it in a way that you should understand it. It is the feeling inside that you are doing wrong, knowing that it doesn't bring peace and goodness to where you are going. This nation needs that!

This nation needs many things: repentance, repentance, repentance, to the very core of it. But I can't make a nation repent, and you can't make a nation repent, but I can repent for myself, and you can repent for yourself, and I can beg God, or I can search for Him. I can seek His face that the nation will be broken to where the rest of the people that survive it will repent and turn once again to God. So can you.

But it doesn't do any good to pray, "Oh God, save this nation and all of it's sickness. Save this nation in all it's corruptness. No, my prayer and my request from the God Almighty and from my Lord is this: "Lord, bring this nation to their knees to where the man upon this nation will see his sickness, know his evil, and abhor himself in his own face, in his own mirror, to where he will repent with sorrow and tears from the heart within. Burn this place that he resides in. Burn his church. Burn all that is taught to him that's a lie, and so he will turn to You, O God, and serve You as his Lord, Master, and God, and be a living example for every man, woman, and child, that he encounters in his lifetime as a testimony to the Living God." That's my prayer, that this nation will be a people without a name but called a nation unto God, without any other name, called a coastal nation unto God, a land that used to be but no longer exists. For it talks about the scriptures, one of the most fierce nations ever known that was cut down to it's knees and it never again rose up. That's this nation. Never been a nation as fierce in history, never been one that had so much in history, never has there been a nation blessed like this nation, and never has there been a nation that is as corrupt against God as this nation is. It's full with the stink of the pits of hell, and everyday it is becoming more stinky. Everyday it becomes more like Canaanland where the corruption and iniquity had matured beyond any hope of recovery.

Oh yes, there's people that love God in this nation. Yes, there's people that have known Jesus and love Him. Yes, there's people in households, in the cities, on the farms, in certain churches, in the place of this nation. Yes, there's people, but they haven't yet had persecution and brokenness that really searches them out and separates the believer from the unbeliever, neither has this nation known what it means to have religious Christian persecution for your faithfulness, your righteousness, but Russia has, China has, and in those nations are strong Christians, strong believers, faithful men and women who have risked their lives to stand steadfast. For America wanted to go out and export into these nations their teaching within, but if you do your repentance, and you turn back and don't allow yourself to be caught up in the humanism of democracy and the way that this government is going, but instead stand afar off, watch the smoke of it, know that God has His hand upon you if you love Him, know that He will bring down the evil doers, know that He's going to cripple this nation if that's what it takes, not because He hates it, but because He loves it. He sent His only Son not to destroy the world but that He might save the world if they would turn to Him, trust in Him, believe in Him, love Him, and follow His ways.

So simple, isn't it? Not to follow the ways of man, not to follow the ways of democracy, not to follow the ways of the heathen, nor the lawyers, or the scribes, or the Pharisees, but to follow the ways of Jesus in the Spirit, by the Word, by the Spirit, as He leads you and directs your ways, knowing that little still voice down inside. Stay away from the evil. Shun it, but don't curse the evil doers. Shun the evil. Pray for them, and don't pray amiss when you pray for the nation or whatever, but pray instead in Spirit. Pray in your spirit, in your Spirit language if you know not how you should pray, but if you know how you should pray, then pray with knowledge and understanding, but repent for yourself and for the nation. Repent for the evil that this nation has fallen upon, the wickedness that's come upon it, that God's grace and glory shall turn it back one day in my generation? Your generation? Our children's generation? My grandchildren's generation? My great grandchildren's generation? Whenever God's hand turns it around. Should it remain as a nation, it will have a new name, maybe. Perhaps there won't be any nations as you know it today, the rulership of God will prevail and Jesus will be the ruler in the hearts of all men upon the earth.

This is what I have to tell you of the prophecies of Daniel. I didn't specifically tell you about it. I told you that this is the day of Daniel's prophecies, unfolding. It is the day that the evil one has been given the hordes to move with him to come against the people of God that they might be tried and tested, afflictions upon all sides that they may know that God is their only source, their only hope, their only strength, their only way, and Jesus is their Leader, their Lord, their Forward Guard, their Rearward Guard, their Strength, and their Faith, and that they will know Him intimately, not as a Man, but as the Power of God, the Word of God, the Spirit of God, and as their Savior, the Man, in Whom Christ dwelt, Jesus, the Name above all names.

Come to know that, and you don't need to fear of what's coming. For once you had fear, but God has brought you through that over the last eight or nine years to bring you through that fear that you might today not fear, but have strength in Him - not fear the things that are coming that are astounding, not fear the things that you're going to see that would cause men's hearts to fail them, not fear the bad things that will happen to evil doers, but instead to have the faith that Jesus will deliver you. His hand will be upon you, and even though you may stand in the fire it will not singe one hair on your head, if you live in Him, for Him, and you're washed (baptised) in the tears of sorrow...
