In the Gospel, Judas is one of the disciples whom the Father gave to Jesus and whom Jesus guarded, but he is also "lost." How could the Good Shepherd lose one of his sheep? Judas is literally called the "son of destruction" (translated "the one destined to be lost"), a phrase used in 2 Thessalonians 2:3, in parallel to "the lawless one," whose coming reveals the working of Satan (2 Thes 2:9). Satan had infiltrated the heart of Judas (In 6:70; 13:2, 27). He was not merely lost—he was snatched away. Jesus' plea to the Father to "keep them [his disciples] from the evil one" thus takes on more urgency. Because Christ prayed for all his future disciples (John 17:20), we know that we too are included in his prayer and likewise receive the gift of the Spirit as described in the second reading. This brings us back to the Acts of the Apostles. Choosing an apostle by lot might make it seem that the disciples were leaving it to chance. In the first-century Church, however, using lots indicated utter reliance on God's power and the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Prayer for Moms on

Mother's Day

Lord, I just want to lift up my mom to you. Please give her Your wisdom and guide her along her path as a wife, mother, sister and friend. I ask that You'd help her by providing strength, encouraging her and guiding her as she finds balance in her life. God, I truly value her and I pray that You'd help her be the mother and woman You'd like her to be. In Jesus' name I pray, amen.

Also God, please bless all moms today. Grant them strength, health, joy, grace, laughter, freedom from guilt, and hope for the future. Give them a hunger to know Your love, to love You more, and to follow You every day. Amen.
