Join us to pray the Rosary 30 minutes before each mass!

In Exodus 16, the Israelites grumble against Moses and Aaron (and God) for leading them out of the abundance of Egypt into the starvation of the desert. In response, God sends them a daily portion of manna, testing whether they will trust God to continue giving them what they need. When the Israelites hedge their bets and try to save a little for the next day, the manna spoils.

The Swedish word lagom means "enough" or "just the right amount." It is a word of abundance, not a word of scarcity. It indicates a way of living in the world without anxiety, trusting that one has what one needs and does not need to grasp for more. Today's Responsorial Psalm declares that God sent the Israelites food "in abundance" (Psalm 78:25): God's "enough" is true abundance. It is the same logic behind the prayer to give us "our daily bread." We ask God to give us what we need for today and trust that God will do the same tomorrow.

The Gospel tells us that what God ultimately gives us is God's own self: God's Son, sent into the world not to condemn it but to save it; God's body, broken on the cross and offered as true food to a hungry world; God's heart, broken for us, so that we might never hunger again (John 6:35).

It's a paradox that "enough" means "more than you will ever need." To grasp this requires one to be "renewed in the spirit" of the mind, as Paul writes to the Ephesians. The old self—who Christians were prior to Christ —was corrupted by "deceitful desires." It's human nature to desire more, and more, and more. To trust God's loving provision requires a new self, re-created in Christ's truth. God provides that re-creation, too.

To generate a mass intention, please stop by the back of the Pala Mission or contact the Parish Office at (760) 742-3317. All envelopes are accepted in mass baskets and in the Mission's donation boxes, located at the front of the Pala Mission. We ask for a $10 donation per intention.

Please give 2 weeks' notice.

Comuníquese con la oficina parroquial al 760-742-3317 para hacer arreglos para pasar o deja un sobre con su intención y donación en la canasta de misas o en las cajas de donaciones de la Misión. Pedimos una donación de $10 por intención.

Por favor avise con 2 semana de anticipación. Gracias.
