On this Second Sunday of Easter, the Liturgy of the Word begins with a most beautiful and idealistic text from Acts.

Of special significance is the description that the Jerusalem community "was of one heart and mind," with "everything in common." How many of us struggle daily to live for the common good!

The reading from the First Letter of John, like our responsorial psalm, invites us to reflect on the incomprehensible love of God. God's commandments are not intended to be a burden for us; rather, they have been given to us as guides for living faith-filled lives.

While locked behind closed doors, Jesus appears to the disciples and offers them peace. Upon recognizing Jesus, the disciples rejoice. Jesus extends peace to them a second time, then bestows the Holy Spirit on them. In yet another encounter behind locked doors, Jesus appears again. This time, after extending peace to the disciples, Jesus invites Thomas to touch him and to believe in him. This scene concludes with reference to other signs that Jesus performed so that we might have life in Jesus' name.

What is the overall message of St. Faustina's Diary? Page after page the overall message of St. Faustina is proclaiming God's merciful love.

Million Meals

This event is unlike any other project. Volunteers of all ages and from all corners of the region come together joyously for one purpose: pack 1 million meals for kids living in poverty. They work in teams, assembly-line style, all to the beat of fun music. In 2023, the volunteers wanted to keep going even as rain poured. This extraordinary event returns in 2024 on June 8 and 9 at Cathedral Catholic High School.

The organizers, the deacons of the San Diego Diocese, will once more need at least 3,000 volunteers and $250,000 in donations to buy the meal ingredients. Parishes, schools, clubs and families are encouraged to organize their members to participate as a group, and to raise funds for the event. Every $1 that is donated pays for four nutritious meals, in collaboration with the organization Kids Around the World.

Volunteer at: Sdcatholic.org/event/million-meals/

We need 4,000 volunteers to pack 1.5 million meals for children facing extreme poverty.

Each volunteer must register individually, including children ages 12 and greater. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult.

Venue: Cathedral Catholic High School
5555 Del Mar Heights Rd
San Diego, Ca 92130

Date: Saturday, June 8th & Sunday, June 9th
