The Family On Mission for God

God has positioned each family to make an impact for the kingdom of God. As family members work together to serve others they grow in love for one another and the world Christ died to redeem.

Tamiko Jones is the executive director-treasurer of Woman's Missionary Union of Texas. Before she entered the ministry, Jones worked 15 years as an engineer and in a variety of management roles with Nokia Siemens Networks and Motorola. Jones earned an undergraduate degree in electrical engineering from North Carolina Agricultural & Technical State University in Greensboro, N.C., a Master of Business Administration degree from the University of Dallas and a Master of Arts in Christian Education degree from Dallas Baptist University. She is a doctoral candidate in DBU's Gary Cook School of Leadership.
