COMPANY OVERVIEW

Tony Hawkins Art specializes in transforming military dining and operational spaces through custom mixed media art installations. With over 20 years of experience in professional art and a focused track record on Naval installations, our firm delivers immersive aesthetic renovations that honor military culture, enhance morale, and contribute to award-winning facility outcomes.

We combine fine art techniques with architectural elements—such as floating walls, embedded lighting, and high-resolution photography—to create visually striking and culturally resonant environments. From conceptual design to final installation, we provide turnkey services tailored to the specific needs of Navy bases and government dining facilities.

PAST PERFORMANCE

Tony Hawkins Art led the complete interior and exterior aesthetic renovation of the Mercer Hall Galley at Naval Base San Diego, incorporating digitally printed murals, exterior window graphics, floating accent panels, and thematic lighting. The transformation contributed directly to the galley receiving the 2025 NEY Award for Food Service Excellence.

(The Captain Edward F. Ney Memorial Award is the U.S. Navy's highest accolade for food service excellence, presented annually to both afloat and ashore galleys that achieve top-tier (five-star) evaluations.)
