March Break

Madness!

Monday - Tuesday

Amanda with her crazy hair, looking good!

During March Break, we played a variety of games! On Monday, we had crazy hair day. We played floor hockey, murder ball and pickle ball. Everyone had a lot of fun learning some new games.

Beverly and Abi facing off in floor hockey.

Hunter, very excited about pickle ball.

On Tuesday, we had backwards day where everyone wore their clothes or hats backwards. For games that day, we played volleyball with balloons and a t-shirt relay race.

Wednesday - Thursday

Jenny stealing Andrew's last clothes pin. Way to go Jenny!

A fun colour matching puzzle, where the clients had to recreate the pattern shown with paper cups.

Andrew, Claudette, Hunter, Chelsea and Lisa posing during balloon stick, where they had to match the numbered balloons to the numbers on the tape.

On Wednesday, we had pajama day. Everyone was super cozy! For games, we had clothes pin tag, basketball, and a puzzle race. Clothes pin tag got a little crazy with competition!

Thursday was our crazy hat day, where we played balloon stick and a fishing tournament and ended the day off with karaoke.

Amanda, being decorated in balloons.

Friday

Charlene was dancing it up!

Andrew, giving a big smile in his awesome tie dye t-shirt.

Steven was showing off his best dance moves.

On Friday, we had tie dye day and a 60s themed dance party. It was a great way to end the week and celebrate March Break! We all had a great time, and enjoyed music from the 60s-90s all morning long.

Group shot of everyone dancing the morning away!

March programs

During March we also had our usual programs, which include art, around the world, boxing, fitness etc. Included here are some photos of art program, where we made Easter egg window art. The clients chose colours, and cut out strips to roll into different shapes to fill in the egg. They had a lot of fun being able to customize their eggs.

Tamekah, Alicia, Amanda, Chelsea and Jenny with their beautiful creation.

Saleena, Tania, Brydon, Lisa, Mishal and Daniel showing off their artwork.
