MEET ALICIA – THE FOUNDER

Alicia Himes is the lead transporter of New England Animal Transport. Animals have been at the center of Alicia's life for more than 20 years. Growing up riding and competing with horses, she developed a deep respect for the trust it takes to care for animals. After years of relying on others for transport, she set out to create a better experience—one built on safe handling, clear communication, and genuine care. That vision led her to found New England Animal Transport in 2025.
