

CHARTER RIGHTS

Government of Canada

Gouvernement
du Canada

CHARTER

FUNDAMENTAL FREEDOMS:

The Charter protects the freedom of conscience, religion, thought, belief, opinion, expression, peaceful assembly, and association.

VOTE #1 – ASSEMBLY AND EXPRESSION

I believe in our Charter rights of Freedom of Peaceful Assembly and Expression.

Result – Very Strong in Favor