

Ruby Gold Standard (RGS) Program For entrepreneurs

for launching new startups successfully generating income and expanding globally in record time and helping entrepreneurs avoid anxiety, depression, or failure.

By: David Hamade

Independent consultant to some of the UK's largest corporations.

The Problem

Despite the hard work, digital marketing, business programs, and financial support, 90% of startups fail.

Additionally, 85% of entrepreneurs struggle with various challenges, including anxiety and depression, throughout this journey when adopting the wrong strategies.

The RGS Solution:

These programs are designed to provide:

1. Clear, step-by-step action plan.
2. Unique strategies for achieving rapid global growth.
3. Reveal key insights to prevent major causes of mental stress.
4. Identify and clarify blind spots & misinformation that are hindering startups.
