

Welcome to the International Broadway Meetup!

Through the generosity of artists and leaders in the Broadway industry, we are able to provide master classes with Top Broadway Artists at no cost to participants. Join as a performer or observer in masterclasses and Q&A sessions with each artist. We hope to open a new chapter of education for students and performers who are destitute through Pandemic through this class that connects Korea and the United States and opens and runs in Europe.

What about International Broadway Meetup

Recently that the greatest risk of survival for all humanity has ceased due to the epidemic. The performance and music education industry is also in a period of crisis and the transformation of the industry. In this situation, we offer online hopes and goals to musicians and students by conducting online workshops to continue their passion and interest in performing arts and arts education.

This workshop provides advanced online video education with the participation of world performers and professors.

In this workshop, if all classes and master classes are taught online, classes using ZOOM will be opened on October, the schedule for workshop lectures will be announced and the class will be limited to 100 students per class.
