London Science, History or V&A Museums or Shopping Day

National History Museum

The Natural History Museum is a world-class visitor attraction and leading science research centre. See hundreds of exciting, interactive exhibits in one of London's most beautiful landmark buildings, the Natural History Museum.

London Science Museum

The Science Museum in London is one of the most important scientific museums in the world, it is also the most-visited science and technology museum in Europe. It's filled with interactive games and experiments to try out but besides all the interesting-looking buttons to press, there are also over 15,000 fascinating items on display, from Stephenson's Rocket to the Apollo 10 command capsule. Spread out over 5 floors there is plenty to keep you busy for the day.

V&A Museum

The V&A is the world's leading museum of art and design, housing a permanent collection of over 2.3 million objects that span over 5,000 years of human creativity. The Museum holds many of the UK's national collections and houses some of the greatest resources for the study of architecture, furniture, fashion, textiles, photography, sculpture, painting, jewellery, glass, ceramics, book arts, Asian art and design, theatre and performance.

LONDON MUSEUMS ARE FREE TO ENTER BUT MUST BE PREBOOKED ONLINE PRIOR TO TRAVEL, IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO DO THIS.

Shopping

If Museums aren't for you the coach will be dropping off at Park Lane, just a few minutes' walk and you will be at Oxford Street, one of the most famous London shopping streets which is home to more than 300 shops, designer outlets, high-street chains and landmark stores. Carry on and you will come to Regent Street one of the most elegant shopping streets in London which offers a good range of mid-priced fashion stores alongside some of the city's oldest and most famous shops.
