HEREFORD & THE HOP POCKET

07903 146516

Memorable Daytrips & Holidays
From Your Local Area.

TUESDAY 16TH
JUNE 2026

Hereford refers to a historic cathedral city in England, known for its cider, cattle breed, and the famous Hereford Mappa Mundi, a medieval world map located in its cathedral, alongside its chained library. It's a market town on the River Wye, boasting medieval architecture, a strong café culture, and proximity to the Welsh border, blending ancient heritage with modern life, and is the home of the UK's Special Air Service (SAS). Hereford is definitely worth visiting.

The Hop Pocket Shopping Village is unique. It is a collection of independent shops offering an alternative to both the high street and characterless out of town shopping. We are spread over a number of old agricultural buildings, one of which is some large hop kilns on two levels connected by three staircases and a lift. Something for everyone! And there is a café with Cake! What more could you ask for?
