

The Two Laws

There are two laws set before us, God's law and Satan's law.
The question is simple: Whose law do we obey?

Profession of Christianity means nothing if our lives betray our words. We may say we worship God and follow Jesus, yet live in submission to the law of the enemy.

And what is the law of Satan?

It is to seek our own pleasure, to anchor our hopes in this fleeting world, to kill time in a thousand subtle ways, so that our days slip by untouched by eternity.

It is a life consumed with distraction, always busy but never devoted. A life that never bows low to Christ, never carves out time to sit at His feet, never breaks open the Word that leads to life.

Make no mistake: this is war. And the enemy will do whatever it takes to keep you from knowing the Holy Spirit, to keep you from living surrendered to Jesus.

This is a battle for your mind, your time, your heart. And we are standing on the front lines.

We must denounce the law of Satan and take up the armor of discipline and devotion, becoming focused fearless soldiers of Christ.

We live by another law now. Romans 8:2 says, "For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made me free from the law of sin and death."

So we press in. We stay strong in the Lord, and in the power of His might. We walk in fellowship with Him, bathing in the glorious love and victory He purchased for us with His own blood.

We owe Him everything!

Ephesians 6:10–11 "Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might. Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil."

Romans 6:8–13 "Now if we died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with Him... Likewise you also, reckon yourselves to be dead indeed to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus our Lord... Present yourselves to God as being alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God."
