

The Alpha and the Omega

God is the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning of all things, the end of all things, and the very purpose for which all things exist.

“I AM the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End,” says the Lord, “who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty.” (Revelation 1:8)

He is not merely the start and finish of time; He is the reason behind it all. Every heartbeat, every breath, every star flung into space finds its meaning in Him.

But if we live as though we are the reason and motive behind everything we do, then we have crowned ourselves as alpha and omega. We become our own source and our own goal.

And that is the tragedy of modern life.

When we live only for ourselves, we shrink our purpose to the size of our own desires. Life becomes a closed circle, we live to serve ourselves, and in the end, we die serving ourselves. No greater cause. No eternal weight. Just dust returning to dust.

This is the lie of the enemy: “This is all there is. Make your own purpose. Create your own truth.”

It sounds liberating, but it’s a prison. A grand illusion. A beautiful trap. One that leads to separation from God... to emptiness... to death.

But Jesus breaks the circle.

“He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it.” (Matthew 10:39)

When we surrender to Him, the true Alpha and Omega, we are caught up into something far greater than ourselves. We no longer live to create our own meaning, we become part of His; and His meaning is eternal.

We were created for Him, to be “His own special people, to proclaim the praises of Him who called us out of darkness into His marvelous light” (1 Peter 2:9). We were made to reflect His glory, to shine His light, to walk in His purpose.

Through His Spirit, His life flows through us, touching, changing, and healing the world around us. We carry divine power in fragile frames.

“But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellence of the power may be of God and not of us.” (2 Corinthians 4:7)

We are not the source; we are the vessels.

“Therefore if anyone cleanses himself from the latter, he will be a vessel for honor, sanctified and useful for the Master, prepared for every good work.” (2 Timothy 2:21)

This is what it means to be part of the Alpha and the Omega. To belong to the Beginning and the End. To walk in His eternal story, and not our own fleeting script.

And that leads to life. To joy. To eternity.
