

Marriage to Christ

We must become one with the One from whom we came. Only in Him, the very reason for our existence, do we discover the purpose for which we were created.

We were made for God.

And in Christ, we are called to be one with God.

In Hebrew, the word bridegroom carries the meaning of “the one who joins himself to.” This is more than a title; it is a mission, a covenant, a divine pursuit.

If we are to be joined to Jesus, then our hearts must be set on becoming one with Him; not merely in word, outward devotion, or religious form, but in spirit, in love, and in life.

This is the mystery of love:

1 + 1 = 1.

This is the mystery of marriage:

Two become one.

Flesh and spirit. Heaven and earth. Creator and creation, united in holy covenant.

To belong to Christ is to forsake all others. It is to yield, surrender, cleave, and become one with Him.

Genesis 2:24 “Therefore a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and they shall become one flesh.”

1 Corinthians 6:17 “But he who is joined to the Lord is one spirit with Him.”

Ephesians 5:31–32 “For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh. This is a great mystery, but I speak concerning Christ and the church.”

This is the invitation.

This is the mystery.

This is the marriage.

Christ and His bride, forever one.
