PODCASTS

I am so thankful for all the opportunities I have had during my book launch to share my story! Below are the links to various podcasts and interviews I have been blessed with the opportunity to participate in. I am excited to have two more podcasts coming up here in April, and I continue to look for opportunities to share my story in May for Stroke Awareness Month!

ANOTHER MEDICAL CHALLENGE

I will be having a hysterectomy this Wednesday, April 6th to remove a cyst found in February. We are all anxious to get through this surgery and onto recovery. Thank you for your thoughts and prayers!

SPEAKING OPPORTUNITY

My heart's desire is to share my story of perseverance and faith through the written words of my book and through speaking opportunities. If my experiences could encourage and equip others, then that is my goal in sharing. On my website, under speaking, you will find my one sheet and speaking topics. If you have a group, large or small, that I could speak to in person or virtually, please reach out to me. I would love to share! I am so excited to get started now that my book is here!

NEXT BOOK SIGNING EVENTS

I am really looking forward to more book signing events and opportunities to share my story in May during Stroke Awareness Month. I am currently set to do book signings at EOS Fitness, Esporta Fitness, and am talking to the local YMCA. I will also be doing book signing events at two Barnes and Nobles at the end of April on Saturday, April 30th. As the events draw closer, I will post more details on their location on social media. If you are local and have not yet purchased my book, this would be a great opportunity for you to purchase a signed copy! I also hope to share my story in May with news channels and other media outlets.

PODCASTS, ZOOMS, AND BLOGS

As another way to share my story, I am reaching out to podcasters, bloggers, and those who host a zoom call. I have had the opportunity to appear on 11 podcasts, interviews, or blogs in the past few months but if you fall in this category or would be able to help me, I would love to talk to you. I would be happy to email you my Media PDF! Thank you for helping me share my story and encourage others.
