BOOK UPDATE

I just completed edit number two. After ensuring all corrections are complete from this edit, we will start with page design, which will include font decisions and formatting of my book. We are getting closer! I posted it on social media and my website but here is my front cover design. I am very happy!

SPEAKING OPPORTUNITY

My heart's desire is to share my story of perseverance and faith through the written words of my book and through speaking opportunities. If my experiences could encourage and equip others, then that is my goal in sharing. On my website, under speaking, you will find my one sheet and speaking topics. If you have a group, large or small, that I could speak to in person or virtually, please reach out to me. I would love to share!

NEW ADVENT DEVOTIONAL

One of my new author friends, Christine Trimpe, has a new devotional coming out on Luke. It will start on December 1st. I decided to use her book as a study and connection opportunity among my Bible study ladies. I currently have the opportunity to lead two different groups during the week. I will be leading a Zoom discussion on Christine's devotional on Tuesday morning and Wednesday evening starting December 7th. Please reach out to me if you would like to join in!

FIRST INTERVIEW with PJNET.tv

I had my first interview to tell my story and share my new book on Wednesday, October 20th, on PJNET.tv. I was so excited and thankful for this first opportunity to share my story! Here is the link. I am currently researching book signing events, podcast interviews, or any other marketing opportunities to go along with the publication of my book in February or March. The link is:

WRITER'S BOOTCAMP

This boot camp is through Redemption Press Publishing and was originally scheduled for July. I saw it advertised on an author's Facebook page and thought it would be a good connection opportunity. The boot camp was then postponed until October, but I was given access to the "She Writes for Him" writers tribe that meets every Tuesday night virtual. This group has been a great blessing and I have made a lot of new writer friends! I just finished this 21-day boot camp, learned a lot, and am walking away with even more wonderful connections and friends! I am well on my way now to finishing the first draft of my 31-day devotional and so excited about all I learned. I highly recommend this opportunity to new writers.
