

SPEAKER TESTIMONIALS

Lori did a very nice job sharing her story and I am so glad you invited her to be our speaker. She came across as humble, sincere, and grateful in spite of the many challenges she has faced and continues to endure. I think we were all challenged to consider how we view our own struggles. I like that Lori wants to encourage others with her story and that she offers to be a resource for others. Lori is the poster child for the proverbial phrase, “When life gives you lemons, make lemonade!” with her optimism and positive can-do attitude in the face of adversity. Very inspiring!
