New Director of Events

Welcome Jen Burns, the new director of events and community relations. Jen is a native of Simsbury, Connecticut and moved to North Carolina in 2017 to work with a family member in Greensboro. Jen holds a degree in marketing from Central Connecticut State University and has volunteered as a guide runner for blind athletes, a respite caregiver, a side walker for therapeutic horseback riding, and with a sports league for athletes with disabilities.

After years of volunteering with organizations that serve people with special needs, Jen realized that she wanted to work in that field full time. She believes her sales background is a great fit for the fundraising aspect of her new job.

In her spare time, Jen enjoys reading, working out, hiking, visiting botanical gardens, skiing with her brother and 2 nephews, and the beach.

Jen has been visiting family in Moore County since she was a teenager and, as she puts it, Moore county feels like home.

The mission of Sandhills Children's Center is to provide services of the highest quality for children with and without special developmental needs, ages birth through five.

Community Partners

Roast Farm to Table Sandwich Market has delicious lunch and dinner options for every size appetite. Open Monday through Saturday 11am - 8pm. Visit them in the Tyler's Ridge Shopping Center by Ace Hardware near the airport. You can choose to add $1 to your bill to be donated to Sandhills Children's Center. We thank Roast for their support! Order online: <https://www.roastnc.com/>

If you've been cleaning out closets and cupboards this spring you can bring unwanted items to The Bee's Knees Antiques & Thrift, 125 NC-73, at the intersection of 15/501 and NC-73. The Bee's Knees donates a portion of proceeds to area non-profit organizations, including Sandhills Children's Center.

Through November, join them the second Saturday of each month for a community yard sale from 9am to 2pm. Lots of treasures to discover!
