Terms & Conditions

Van Isle Comic Pressing, their employees, sub-contractors, assigns, or business partners/ associates (hereinatter referred to as "VIP") will determine whether or not your comic book(s) will benefit from dry cleaning and/or pressing. VIP will take many precautions to ensure that no damage is caused to your book(s) and that your book(s) are not lost while in the care and control of VIP. However, notwithstanding the foregoing, there is always some risk that book(s) may suffer damage or loss, either during handling, treatment or otherwise. The client unilaterally accepts and assumes all such risk when submitting the book(s) to VIP.

VIP will not be held responsible or liable for any damage suffered by your book(s), or loss of such book(s), during transport, handling, treatment or otherwise. Any attempt(s) by VIP to repair any such damage or to recognize such loss is made without accepting responsibility for such damage or loss, and is not an acknowledgement of fault for such damage or loss. Furthermore, by signing in the specified area on the front of this invoice, you, the client, acknowledges that they have read and understand all of the enumerated terms and conditions, authorizes VIP to proceed with the work order and assumes any and all risks as outlined or otherwise, and indemnifies VIP from any damage or liability that may result as a product of this engagement.
