Pilot Synopsis

Shiv Singh, the school's troublemaker, makes a fool out of the football team using her psychic powers. After her mother receives a letter from the school explaining the incident, she forces Shiv to get an after school job as a punishment. Mr. Ecto, the factory manager, gives Shiv a difficult task on her first day to test her abilities. He asks Jack, the class president at Shiv's school, to help her with the task and guide her around the spirit realm. Jack and Shiv collect fairies to deliver to an important customer, Big Ghost Larry, to consume after an extended hibernation. Once they arrive at Larry's house in the spirit realm, the fairies escape. Jack collects the fairies while Shiv distracts the ravenous Big Ghost Larry. Using her powers, she makes a meal from his childhood which brings back fond memories. Larry honors Shiv with a rare token for her good deed. Mr. Ecto offers her the job after hearing about the success of the delivery. However, Shiv's next task is one most experienced psychics would be scared to do.

Series Synopsis

Episode 2: Shiv goes to the ministry and meets one of the series' main antagonists, Eldric Mortimer, who develops a hate for Shiv. He is a cabinet member at the spirit realm ministry. His goal is to become "secretary of earthly affairs" to get the warehouse shut down because he feels like the spirit realm should not coexist with the human realm and he feels like the warehouse is too close of an earthly connection to spirits. He especially hates Shiv because of her rebellious attitude. Here, we also meet more of the staff at the factory which reveals that there are more psychics that also attend Harvest Moon high.

Episode 3: Shiv makes such a bad impression at the ministry that Mr. Ecto demotes her to cleaning the warehouse until she can prove that she's ready for another mission. During her cleaning, she accidentally unleashes an extremely powerful ancient spirit that was trapped inside of a vase. She must fight the spirit with the help of the other staff. She cleverly defeats the spirit and Mr. Ecto's trust in her is restored.

Episode 4: Being able to work on less dangerous missions in the spirit realm, Shiv meets Flame Head, the factory's best psychic, who only works there on his school's college breaks. He rides a motorcycle through the spirit realm and has psychic powers with a specialty in manipulating fire. He takes Shiv under his wing to teach her more about the spirit realm.

Episode 5: Shiv's 16th birthday we learn more about Shiv's family as she must perform a Singh family ritual as a spiritual medium which is a symbolism of maturity.

Episode 6: Jane develops an inherited power on the female's side of her family which only develops in their teen years. Shiv helps her as she struggles to get used to her new powers. Shiv suggests that she work at the warehouse with her to learn how to control them.

The Characters

Shiv Singh

A 15 year old sophomore at Harvest Moon high school and a member of the yearbook club. She tends to get in trouble a lot because she likes to make a fool out of the men of the school. She is extremely free spirited and rebellious. She has newfound psychic powers, inherited from her mom. She has powers of object transfiguration where she can change objects into different objects of the similar chemical makeup.

Jack

A 16 year old sophomore at Harvest Moon high school. He is a well-rounded and intellectual student, and he is a diligent and hardworking class president. He is athletic and at the top of his class. He doesn't like troublemakers, especially Shiv. He sees Shiv as his equal and opposite. She is his main priority and biggest challenge as a class president.

Mr. Ecto

The factory manager. He has been working there since he was in high school, where he became friends with Shiv's mom and grew to have a crush on her. He is dedicated and picky about who he hires. He doesn't trust people easily with the information of the warehouse. He somewhat trusts Shiv, but he wants her to prove herself worthy of keeping the job and push her to strengthen her abilities.
