

KAWSON SECKA

A Global Ambassador of Senegambian Culture & Music

Kawson Secka is a UK-based Senegambian artist working at the intersection of traditional West African music and contemporary global sounds. His work focuses on rhythm, cultural storytelling and live performance, bridging heritage and modern expression.

KAWSON SECKA

Born into a respected musical family in Njawara, rooted in Mandinka and Fulani traditions, his music combines powerful percussion with Afro-jazz and modern world music influences.

Based in the UK, Kawson is the founder of Kawson Band and has collaborated with projects such as Africa Express and Fofoulah, touring extensively across Europe and performing at WOMEX 2018.

Fans often describe the live experience as follows:

“The music creates a strong atmosphere and energy, bringing people from different cultures together through rhythm and shared live experience.”
