SOMETHING YOU SHOULD KNOW BEFORE STARTING TO LEARN VIETNAMESE

- Don't hurry: The faster you go, the less you'll know.
- Don't think that Chinese people find it easy to learn Vietnamese: 70% Chinese speakers or those who know Chinese struggle a lot in Vietnamese pronunciation.
- Don't think that if you have knack for language, it will be easy for you to learn Vietnamese.
- Vietnamese is not a CRAZY language, it has rules which contain some exceptions.
- Tones are the soul of Vietnamese language: instead of complaining about the tones, adjust yourself to tones because you cannot change the nature of the language. Don't get frustrated because your teacher fixes your tones, be happy about this because a good teacher will shape your tones at the first stage of learning. That is the fundamental stone in your learning progress.
- On-and-off schedule does not make effective. Make sure that you keep yourself on a regular schedule. Don't be off from lessons many times because it makes you forget Vietnamese and demotivated.
- Don't try to translate every thing from Vietnamese into English
