Re: Misrepresented Instrument - Bill of Attainder / Foreign Bill of Exchange filed in case number 2025 CF2 000643 ; unanswered Affidavit of Fact:
Writ of Quo Warranto [Exhibit: A-t] received July 2, 2025

For the record §7-103 of the Uniform Commercial Code states that to the extent any treaty or statute of the United States, tariff or regulation is applicable, provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code are subject thereto.
Thus according to §7-103 of the Uniform Commercial Code applicable federal law supersedes the Uniform Commercial Code where the provisions are inconsistent. See U.C.C. §7-103 comment 1; 15A AM. JUR. 2d Commercial Code §43 (1974)

Stare Decisis

"Courts are constituted by authority and they cannot act beyond the power delegated to them. If a court acts without authority, its judgement and its orders are regarded as nullities. They are not voidable, but simply void; and form no bar to a remedy sought in opposition to them, even prior to a reversal.
They constitute no justification; and ALL persons concerned in executing such judgement, sentences are considered in law, as trespassers. See Elliot v.
Peirson 26 U.S. 328, 340 (1828)
