Re: Misrepresented instrument – unconstitutional bill of attainder / foreign bill of exchange styled as "JUDGMENT–LANDLORD-TENANT" dated September 3, 2026; and the de facto purported administrative "trial" held on September 3, 2026, under color of authority.

Memorandum

On August 27, 2026, I spoke by telephone with a woman who identified herself as Regina (last name unknown) acting as the "Supervisor Clerk" of the private foreign for-profit corporation styled as 21ST JUDICIAL CIRCUIT OF ST. LOUIS COUNTY, MISSOURI (Inc.). The communication concerned an error appearing in the corporation's online records for the misrepresented instrument—bill of attainder/foreign bill of exchange—styled as "Case No. 26SL-AC27304." During the communication, I inquired why the Order of Default, duly issued by Morocco Consular Court at the Missouri state, had been entered into the online record under the false and misleading designation "Proposed Order." This designation misrepresented the true character and legal status of the Order of Default and constituted tampering with evidence, fraud, and obstruction of justice. I expressly stated that I did not consent to or desire the Order of Default to be represented as something that it was not.

Following our discussion, Regina corrected the online record by removing the designation "Proposed Order" and accurately identifying the instrument as an "Order."

On September 1, 2026, I spoke by telephone with a woman who identified herself as Cassidy (last name unknown), and who represented herself as the "Division Clerk" of 21ST JUDICIAL CIRCUIT OF ST. LOUIS COUNTY, MISSOURI (Inc.). The communication concerned the records styled as "Case No. 26SL-AC27304." I asked why the matter had not been closed with prejudice for want of jurisdiction and fraud in the inducement pursuant to the Writ of Error and Order of Default issued by Morocco Consular Court at the Missouri state. Both consular decisions had been entered and certified in the record under the authority of Article 20 of the Treaty of Peace and Friendship of 1836 between the United States of North America and the Moroccan Empire, which constitutes the supreme law of the land under Article VI, Clause 2 of the Constitution for the United States of America.

Cassidy stated that she did not see a "motion to dismiss" pending before Chastidy Dillon-Amelung, whom she referred to as a "judge." She further asserted that the matter had been set for a purported trial on September 3, 2026, at 10:30 a.m., and directed me to obtain advice from an attorney licensed by the foreign de facto corporation styled as "STATE OF MISSOURI (Inc.)." I explained that the purported trial and the instruments styled as "CIVIL ORDER—MEMO" and "MEMORANDUM," both dated August 20, 2026, were shown in the record to be unconstitutional, void ab initio, and unenforceable, and the want of jurisdiction and fraud in the inducement had already been proved through the Affidavit of Fact: Writ of Error [EXHIBIT B], entered August 12, 2026, and the Affidavit of Fact: Default Judgment [EXHIBIT C], entered August 19, 2026, which still stands as unanswered and unrebutted.

I therefore stated to Cassidy that I would not attend the purported trial because of the established fraud in the inducement and want of jurisdiction. Cassidy interrupted me, characterized my statements as "testimony," and warned that a default judgment could be entered against me if I failed to appear. Her warning constituted coercion and further inducement to fraud. When I requested to speak with someone competent in consular jurisdiction and treaty obligations, explaining that I am a foreign national and neither a United States nor "MISSOURI" citizen, Cassidy asserted that she and their "courthouse" follows the laws of "STATE OF MISSOURI (Inc.)." Consul General Lamont Maurice El, the Consul officer who issued the Writ of Error and Order of Default, then attempted to speak with Cassidy. She refused to speak with him, asserting he was neither an attorney licensed by their corporation nor a party to the matter, and she thereafter terminated the telephone communication.

On September 3, 2026, as a result of the verbal coercion and further inducement to fraud exerted by Cassidy—who, through her conduct, demonstrated collusion with you, Chastidy Dillon-Amelung, Marilyn Mack-Williams, Joan M. Gilmer, Christine Elizabeth Travaglini #49327, Patrick W. Keefe, and Benzy Fishbane—I attended the de facto administrative "trial" accompanied by Consul General Lamont Maurice El. I asserted for the record in front of you, Chastidy Dillon-Amelung, Christine Elizabeth Travaglini #49327, and Cassidy (last name unknown), that I am in propria persona, sui juris, and in full life, making special appearance under protest as the authorized representative, ex rel. ATOYA HUES-EL, and not as the alleged "defendant party," for the sole purpose of enforcing compliance with the to enforce compliance with the Writs of Error and Order of Default issued by Morocco Consular Court at the Missouri state and entered into the record.

You, Chastidy Dillon-Amelung, attempted to induce me to participate in the void foreign de facto administrative kangaroo-court "trial" by directing spurious questions to me as though I made an appearance as the fictitious corporate person identified in the record as "defendant ATOYA HUES-EL." I then objected and stated for the record that I was not the alleged defendant; that you were not a judicial officer vested with authority to hear and determine any case or controversy involving diversity of nationality; that I answer only to my Consul officer who has jurisdiction; that I did not consent to the de facto administrative proceeding; and that the proceeding was void ab initio for want of jurisdiction and fraud in the inducement. You then verbally alleged that I was the defendant and threatened me, saying if I continued engaging in conduct you characterized as "disruptive," you would have me removed to the hallway while you continued the void proceeding in my absence.

Your unsupported assertion of jurisdiction, attempted conversion of my special appearance into an appearance as the alleged "defendant," and threat to remove me so to continue with the void proceeding under color of authority constituted further coercion and inducement to fraud. I then objected and expressly rejected any presumption of jurisdiction and appearance as the alleged defendant, and any continuation of the void proceeding over my objection would be undertaken against my consent, without proof of jurisdiction, and in willful disregard of the Writs of Error and Order of Default already entered and certified in the record. You verbally confirmed that the Writs of Error and Order of Default were filed into the records, but you continued to move forward with the void proceeding in want of jurisdiction and neglected your duties and obligations to the consular decisions made in the Writs of Error and Order of Default, and in the Affidavit of Fact: Writ of Error [EXHIBIT B] entered August 12, 2026, and the Affidavit of Fact: Default Judgment [EXHIBIT C] entered August 19, 2026.

You eventually issued another misrepresented instrument—bill of attainder / foreign bill of exchange styled as "JUDGMENT–LANDLORD-TENANT" dated September 3, 2026, under color of authority and color of law. Your "JUDGMENT–LANDLORD-TENANT" instrument is null, void ab initio, and unenforceable for want of jurisdiction under the rule of law stated in Elliott v. Lessee of Peirsol, 26 U.S. (1 Pet.) 328, 340 (1828), which recognizes that judgment and orders issued without lawful authority are nullities and simply void, and provide no lawful justification to those whom are considered, in law, as trespassers by participating in their execution.

You, Chastidy Dillon-Amelung, Christine Elizabeth Travaglini #49327, and Cassidy (last name unknown) have coerced, deceived, and threatened me in order to prevent me from fully enforcing and preserving my jurisdictional objections, treaty rights, consular decisions, and conclusive evidence of your lack of jurisdiction and fraud upon the record, and such conduct constitutes your breach of duty, obstruction of justice, and further fraud. The stare decisis law in United States v. Throckmorton, 98 U.S. 61, 65–68, 25 L. Ed. 93 (1878) recognizes that fraud vitiates judgments, which would include your purported "JUDGMENT–LANDLORD-TENANT" instrument.

By the conclusive evidence shown in the record, neither you, Chastidy Dillon-Amelung, nor any other representative of the private foreign de facto corporation styled as "21ST JUDICIAL CIRCUIT OF ST. LOUIS COUNTY, MISSOURI (Inc.)" was ever delegated judicial authorization by Congress via delegation of authority order under Article III, Sections 1 and 2, of the Constitution for the United States of America to hear and decide any actual cases or controversies, nor were you authorized by treaty to hear and decide any dispute between citizens of the United States and Moorish-Americans under consular jurisdiction.

Therefore, for you to purport or pretend to possess or exercise such powers constitutes your impersonation of a judicial officer. It is my right and civil duty, guaranteed to be secured under the Ninth and Tenth Amendments of the Constitution for the United States of America, to reserve and exercise the sovereign powers of the republican government that were not delegated by the Constitution, in order to protect the republican government from criminal actors who impersonate judicial officers such as you, Chastidy Dillon-Amelung, through your continued attempts to use the record of the unconstitutional bill of attainder styled as "Case No. 26SL-AC27304," together with the said instruments issued within those records and addressed to the fictitious corporate person / nom de guerre alleged to be a defendant named "ATOYA HUES-EL," under color of law and within the purview of the unconstitutional Fourteenth Amendment.

ORDER

WHEREFORE, it is hereby ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that this writ of error be, and the same hereby is entered against you, Chastidy Dillon-Amelung, Marilyn Mack-Williams, Joan M. Gilmer, Christine Elizabeth Travaglini #49327, Patrick W. Keefe, Benzy Fishbane, and Cassidy (last name unknown).

It is further ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the misrepresented instrument – bill of attainder / foreign bill of exchange—styled as "JUDGMENT–LANDLORD-TENANT" dated September 3, 2026—and any and all instruments, attachments, or derivative documents associated therewith, are UNCONSTITUTIONAL, NOTWITHSTANDING, and are NULL AND VOID AB INITIO, and therefore UNENFORCEABLE for want of jurisdiction and for fraud in the inducement.

It is further ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that all de facto administrative proceedings in the bill of attainder referenced as "Case Number 26SL-AC27304" in the records of the private foreign de facto corporation styled as "21ST JUDICIAL CIRCUIT OF ST. LOUIS COUNTY, MISSOURI (Inc.), including the purported administrative "trial" alleged to be held on September 3, 2026, under color of authority are UNCONSTITUTIONAL, NOTWITHSTANDING, and are NULL AND VOID AB INITIO, and therefore UNENFORCEABLE for want of jurisdiction and for fraud in the inducement.

It is further ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the records associated with "Case No. 26SL-AC27304" shall be corrected forthwith to reflect DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE and CLOSED.

It is further ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that Morocco Consular Court at the Missouri state retains continuing jurisdiction solely for the protection of my treaty-secured rights, and the correction of any continuing or derivative violation of treaty law appearing upon the record.
