INSTRUCTIONS TO THE PAROLEE

Upon release you shall be deemed to remain in legal custody until the expiration of your full, undiminished term of confinement. Upon the alleged violation of any condition of parole you shall be remanded to the authority from which paroled, where a hearing shall be conducted by the Parole Commission. If your parole is revoked, the Commission shall determine the amount of time spent on parole, if any, which is to be credited to your term of confinement.

EXHIBIT: F

You are subject to the special conditions of parole as set forth below, the standard conditions of parole on page 2 of this order and to such further conditions as the Commission may impose at any time during the term of your parole.

Special Conditions:

- 1. Submit to, successfully complete, and pay any required costs for any and all evaluations, treatment programs, testing, and aftercare as directed by the Division of Parole and Probation, which may include substance abuse, mental health, anger management, parenting, domestic violence, and other issues. Take all medications prescribed by your treatment provider.
- 2. Permit agents of the Division of Parole and Probation to visit your home at any time.
- 3. Comply as directed by your parole/probation agent with the Division of Parole and Probation's sexual offender management program, which may include intensive reporting requirements, specialized sex offender treatment, electronic monitoring, medication, polygraph testing, and computer monitoring.
- 3.5. Comply with any curfew or site restrictions imposed by your parole/probation agent to limit your access to certain areas of the community and/or to require you to obtain permission to leave your residence during certain hours. Cooperate with any program which is established to monitor your compliance with these restrictions, which may include payment for costs associated with Global Positioning Systems (GPS) or other tracking technology.
- 3.6. Provide a DNA sample as required by law.
- 3.9. Appear in court when notified to do so.
- 4.0. Waive all extradition rights and processes, and agree to return to the State of Maryland when instructed.
- 4.1. Do not physically or verbally threaten or intimidate any employee of the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services.
