Re: Misrepresented instrument – bill of attainder / foreign bill of exchange titled case number C-16-CV-23-002644; and my inherited ancestral estate in reversion known as [REDACTED] Maryland.

Stare Decisis Law

"A court cannot confer jurisdiction where none existed and cannot make a void proceeding valid. It is clear and well-established law that a void order can be challenged in any court." See Old Wayne Mut. L Assoc. v. McDonough, 204 U.S. 8, 27 S.Ct. 236 (1907).

For the record, I am Charis Antoinette Wilkinson-Bey, a natural person, in full life, in propria persona, sui juris. My nationality / citizenship is Moorish American, being an aboriginal and indigenous sovereign national and heir of the Moroccan Empire at North-West Amexem / North America, and a foreign national inhabitant near corporate [REDACTED], Maryland. I come now making special appearance as authorized representative, ex rel. CHARIS ANTOINETTE WILKINSON, and I challenge your jurisdiction on the grounds of lack of jurisdiction and fraud.

Jurisdiction and Venue

I hereby invoke my secured treaty rights to consular jurisdiction in this dispute under Articles 20 and 21 of the Treaty of Peace and Friendship of 1836 between the United States of North America and the Moroccan Empire, which aver the following:

Article 20. If a citizen of the United States, or any persons under their protection, shall have any disputes with each other, the Consul shall decide between the parties; and whenever the Consul shall require any aid or assistance from our Government, to enforce his decisions, it shall be immediately granted to him.

Article 21. If a citizen of the United States should kill or wound a Moor, or, on the contrary, if a Moor shall kill or wound a citizen of the United States, the law of the country shall take place, and equal justice shall be rendered, the consul assisting at the trial; and if any delinquent shall make his escape, the consul shall not be answerable for him in any manner whatever.

In support of my secured treaty rights, see the case Kolovrat v. Oregon, 366 U.S. 187, 194, 81 S.Ct. 922 (1961), where the Supreme Court of the United States rendered the following stare decisis:

"A state cannot refuse to give foreign nationals their treaty rights because of fear that valid international agreements may possibly not work completely to the satisfaction of state authorities."
"Under the supremacy clause of the United States Constitution Art. VI, clause 2, state policies, as to the rights of aliens to inherit, must give way to overriding federal treaties and conflicting arrangements."

Quo Warranto

YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED to produce the following for the record as conclusive proof and evidence of your lawful jurisdiction and judicial authorization:

1. Produce the certified copy of the Delegation of Authority order from Congress per Article III section 1 and 2 of the Constitution for the United States of North America as evidence of the private foreign de facto entity CIRCUIT COURT FOR PRINCE GEORGES COUNTY (Inc.) and the representatives thereof having been lawfully conferred judicial authorization and jurisdiction to hear and decide actual cases affecting the property / estates of Moorish American nationals in disputes with citizens of the United States.
