Re: Misrepresented Instrument – Bill of Attainder / Bill of Exchange titled Order – Ratification Report of Sale filed on April 11, 2024, by Gladys M. Weatherspoon.

Stare Decisis Law

Melo v. United States, 505 F. 2d. 1026 ("Once jurisdiction is challenged, the court cannot proceed when it clearly appears that the court lacks jurisdiction, the court has no authority to reach merits, but, rather, should dismiss the action.").

I am in receipt of your misrepresented instrument offer titled Order - Ratification Report of Sale dated April 11, 2024, which you addressed to the fictitious corporate person – nom de guerre CHARIS A. WILKINSON (Race: black) under color of law in want of jurisdiction within purview of the plausible 14th Amendment. Your Order - Ratification Report of Sale instrument is unconstitutional, notwithstanding, null and void ab initio for lack of jurisdiction and fraud for the following reasons:

- 1. I am not the fictitious corporate person nom de guerre CHARIS A. WILKINSON (race: black); nor do I except any liability for CHARIS A. WILKINSON (race: black); nor do I consent to stand as surety for CHARIS A. WILKINSON (race: black) at any point, at any moment, or at any time. By you attempting to conceal my identity and misrepresent me under such false identity in your Order Ratification Report of Sale instrument constitutes fraud! Fraud in its elementary common law sense of deceit includes the deliberate concealment of material information in a setting of fiduciary obligation. A public official is a fiduciary toward the public, and if he / she deliberately conceals material information from them he / she is guilty of fraud. See McNalley v. United State, 483 U.S. 350, 371-378, quoting United States v. Holzer, 861 F.2d. 304, 307.
- 2. The Affidavit of Fact: Writ of Error [Exhibit: D] which you received on or about January 23, 2024, was not a "motion" or a "reconsideration" made to the CIRCUIT COURT FOR PRINCE GEORGE COUNTY (Inc.) as you have erroneously indicated in your Order Ratification Report of Sale instrument. It was an exercise of my retained rights and reserved powers which are guaranteed to be secured under the 9th and 10th Amendments of the Constitution for the United States of North America. An exercise of right / power does not require a "motion" or "reconsideration" and you know that to be stare decisis

- law! Where rights secured by the Constitution are involved, there can be no rule-making or legislation, which would abrogate them. See Miranda v. Arizona 384 US 436, 125.
- 3. To give the proceedings in this case any validity, there must be a tribunal competent by its constitution - that is, by the law of its creation - to pass upon the subject-matter of the suit. See Pennoyer v. Neff, 95 U.S. 733, 24 L.Ed. 565. It has been clearly shown in the records of this case by prima facie evidence and conclusive proof, i.e., the Affidavit of Fact: Default Judgment [Exhibit: C] filed January 23, 2024, that the CIRCUIT COURT FOR PRINCE GEORGE COUNTY (Inc.) is not an Article III - constitutional court of competent jurisdiction, and lack's jurisdiction. Also, it is entirely separate from the republican government which is guaranteed to every state in the union per Article IV, section 4 of the Constitution for the United States of North America. The CIRCUIT COURT FOR PRINCE GEORGE COUNTY (Inc.) is a private foreign corporate entity operating de facto within purview of the plausible 14th Amendment U.S. corporate citizenship clause. Therefore, the CIRCUIT COURT FOR PRINCE GEORGE COUNTY (Inc.) and its corporation rules, as well as the proceedings in this case, are ineffective, invalid, null, void and unconstitutional! See attachment Exhibit: E1 - copy of authenticated Congressional Record Proceedings and Debates of the 90th Congress. 1st Session, Volume 113 - Part 12, June 12, 1967, to June 20, 1967, Page 15641 (highlighted parts).

ORDER

Wherefore, it is hereby ORDERED that you, Gladys M. Weatherspoon, are in ERROR; It is further ORDERED that the misrepresented instrument – bill of attainder / bill of exchange titled as Order - Ratification Report of Sale filed on April 11, 2024, by Gladys M. Weatherspoon is INEFFECTIVE, INVALID, NULL, VOID, and UNCONSTITUTIONAL, and is DENIED for lack of jurisdiction and fraud;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this case and all attachments associated thereto shall be forthwith DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE and CLOSED for lack of jurisdiction and fraud.

SO ORDERED, SUI JURIS.

groups from other nations. This bipartisan organization is doing something more than just talking about international understanding-it is doing something about it.

If mankind is ever to abolish war from the face of the earth, we first must break down the barriers of mistrust and suspicion among the peoples of the world. There is no better way to accomplish this than through just such programs as this one conducted by the American Council of Young Political Leaders.

These young people will be the leaders of the world in years to come. They will be better leaders, more understanding and tolerant leaders, if they are able to expand their knowledge of other nations, other peoples, and other political systems.

This is why, Mr. Speaker, I am so pleased with the work being done by the American Council of Young Political Leaders. They have my wholehearted support in their program to further world understanding.

THE 14TH AMENDMENT-EQUAL PROTECTION LAW OR TOOL OF USURPATION

PRYOR Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the gentleman from Louisiana (Mr. Ranick) may extend his remarks at this point in the Recond and include extraneous matter.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Arkansas?

There was no objection.

Mr. RARICK, Mr. Speaker, arrogantly ignoring clearcut expressions in the Constitution of the United States, the declared intent of its drafters notwithstanding, our unelected Federal judges read out prohibitions of the Constitution of the United States by adopting the fuzzy baze of the 14th amendment to legislate their personal ideas, prejudices, theories, guit complexes, aims, and whims.

Through the cooperation of intellectual educators, we have subjected ourselves to accept destructive use and meaning of words and phrases. We blindly accept new meanings and changed values to alter our traditional

We have tolerantly permitted the habitual misuse of words to serve as a vehicle to abandon our foundations and goels. Thus, the present use and expansion of the 14th amendment is a shamserving as a crutch and hoodwink to precipitate a quasi-legal approach for overthrow of the tender balances and protections of limitation found in the Constitution.

But, interestingly enough, the 14th amendment-whether ratified or notwas but the expression of emotional outpouring of public sentiment following the War Botween the States.

Its obvious purpose and intent was but to free human beings from ownership as a chattel by other humans. Its aim was no more than to free the slaves.

path of chaotic departure from the peoples' government by substituting their personal law rationalized under the 14th amendment, their actions and verbiage brand them and their team as secessionists-rebels, with pens instead of guns-seeking to divide our Union.

They must be stopped. Public opinion must be aroused. The Union must and shall be preserved.

Mr. Speaker, I ask to include in the RECORD, following my remarks, House Concurrent Resolution 208 of the Louisiand Legislature urging this Congress to declare the 14th amendment illegal. Also, I include in the Record an informative and well-annotated treatise on the IIlegality of the 14th amendment—the play toy of our secessionist judges which has been prepared by Judge Leander H. Perez, of Louisiana.

The material referred to follows: E. CON. RES. 203

A concurrent resolution to expose the unconstitutionality of the 14th admendment to the Constitution of the United States; to interpose the sovereignty of the State of Louisians against the execution of said amendment in this State; to memorialize the Congress of the United States to re peal its joint resolution of July 28, 1888. declaring that said amendment had been ratified; and to provide for the distribu-

Whereas the purported 14th Amendment to the United States Constitution was never lawfully adopted in accordance with the requirements of the United States Constitution because eleven states of the Union were deprived of their equal suffrage to the Senate in violation of Article V, when eleven southern states, including Louisiann, were excluded from deliberation and decision in the adoption of the Joint Recolution pro-posing said 14th Amendment; said Resolution was not presented to the President of the United States in order that the same should rake effect, as required by Article 1, Section 7; the proposed imendment was not inti-fied by three-fourths of the states, but to the contrary fifteen states of the them thirty-seven states of the Union rejected the proposed 14th Amendment between the dates of its submission to the states by the Secretary of State on June 16, 1865 and March 24, 1868, thereby nullifying said Resolution and making it impossible for mitfleation by the constitutionally required three-fourths of such states; said southern states which were denied their equal suffrage in the Sepate had been recognized by proclamations of the President of the United States to have duly constituted governments with all the powers which belong to free states of the Union, and the Legislatures of seven of said southern states had ratified the 13th Amendment which would have falled of ratification but for the ratification of said seven southern statem and

Whereas the Reconstruction Acts of Con-gress unlawfully overthies their existing governments, removed their lawfully constiguted, helislatures by military force and ire placed them with rump (egisletures which chiraled out military orders and presended to milly the 14th amendment; and

Whereas in spite of the fact that the Secretary of State in his first proclamatich.
on July 20, 1898, expressed doubt as to whether three-fourths of the required states had rotified the 14th Amendment, Congress nevertheless adopted a resolution on July 28, 1868, unlawfully declaring that three-fourths of the states had ratified the 14th Amendment and directed the Secretary of State to so proclaim, said Joint Resolution of Conjudiciary proceeds down their chosen grees and the resulting proclamation of the Secretary of State included the purported ratifications of the military enforced rump legislatures of ten southern states whose lawful legislatures had previously rejected said 14th Amonthment, and also included purported midications by the legislatures of the States of Ohio and New Jersey although they had withdrawn their legislative rati-Scattons several months previously, all of which proves absolutely that said 14th Amendment was not adopted in accordance with the mandatory constitutional requirements set forth in Article V of the Constitution and therefore the Constitution Itself strikes with nullity the purported 14th Amendment.

Now therefore be it resolved by the translature of Louisland, the House of Representatives and the Senate concurring:

(1). That the Legislature go on record as exposing the anconstitutionality of the 14th Amendment, and interposes the sovereignty of the Sinte of Louisiana against the execution of said 14th Amendment against the State of Louisiana and its people; (2) That the Legislature of Louisiana op-poses the use of the invalid 14th Amendment by the Federal courts to impose further uniawful ediots and hardships on its people;

(3) That the Congress of the United States he memorialized by this Legislature to repeal its unlawful Joint Resolution of July 28, 1858, declaring that three-fourths of the states had ratified the 14th Amendment to the United States Constitution:

(4) That the Legislatures of the other states of the Union be memorialized to give serious study and consideration to take almilar action against the validity of the 14th Amendment and to uphold and support the Constitution of the United States which strikes said 14th Amendment with nullity;

(6) That copies of this Resolution, duly certified, together with a copy of the treatise on "The Unconstitutionality of the 14th Amendment" by Judge L. H. Perez, be forwarded to the Governors and Secretaries of State of each state in the Union, and to the Secretaries of the Volted States Sonate and House of Congress, and to the Louisiana Con-grassional delegation, a copy hereof to be published in the Congressional Record.
