Cited Authority: Kolovrat v. Oregon, 366 U. S. 187, 194, 81 S.Ct. 922 (1961) "A state cannot refuse to give foreign nationals their treaty rights because of fear that valid international agreements may possibly not work completely to the satisfaction of state authorities. Under the supremacy clause of the United States Constitution Art. VI, clause 2, state policies ... must give way to overriding federal treaties and conflicting arrangements."
