Re: Misrepresented Instruments – Bills of Attainder / Bills of Exchange / Case no. 2019 CA 000509 R (RP).

Stare Decisis Law

See Elliot v. Peirsol, 26 U.S. 328, 340 (1828) (“If a court acts without authority, its judgments and orders are regarded as nullities. They are not voidable, but simply void; and form no bar to a remedy sought in opposition to them, even prior to a reversal. They constitute no justification; and all persons concerned in executing such judgments, or sentences, are considered, in law, as trespassers.”); also, see United States v. Throckmorton, 98 U.S. 61 (“Fraud vitiates the most solemn contracts, documents and even judgments.”).

On December 20, 2019, you, Administrative officer Laura A. Cordero and Director Pamela Hunter of the SUPERIOR COURT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA (Inc.), received via hand delivery the Affidavit of Fact: Writ of Quo Warranto [Exhibit: A] with the attached Affidavit of Heirship [Exhibit: B]. On December 31, 2019, you, David Solan, received via United States Postmaster Certified Mail (Article # 7018 3090 0001 8875 7491) as attorney representing Chief Executive Officer David A. Spector of PENNYMAC LOAN SERVICES, LLC., a copy of the Affidavit of Fact: Writ of Quo Warranto [Exhibit: A] with the attached Affidavit of Heirship. A period of fourteen (14) days from your receipt of the said documents was given to answer and prove jurisdiction. Your deadline to answer or plead was at the latest January 15, 2020.

You have failed to answer or plead within the specified time period and have failed to prove jurisdiction which constitutes default. Therefore, the following is clear beyond a reasonable doubt by prima facie evidence:

1. The service of process initiated by attorney David Solan and the representatives/officers/agents/assigns of the SUPERIOR COURT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA (Inc.) were insufficient due to I, Ryan Delevan Cartwright-El, never being properly served with process throughout the duration of this proceeding. Because of which, this proceeding is void.

2. The action in this case initiated by the attorney David Solan on behalf of Chief Executive Officer David A. Spector of PENNYMAC LOAN SERVICES, LLC., is a collusive action ‘in rem’ taken under color of law against the fictitious corporate – stateless person, i.e., RYAN DELEVAN CARTWRIGHT (Race: Black). This collusive action is also without substance due to the fact that Chief Executive Officer David A. Spector is not the ‘Holder In Due Course’ of the original Deed of Trust dated August 26, 2013, and also, due to such instrument being lost or destroyed. The ‘Best Evidence Rule’ prohibits the introduction into evidence of secondary evidence unless it is shown that original document has been lost or destroyed or is beyond jurisdiction of court without fault of the offering party. Therefore, Chief Executive Officer David A. Spector and the PENNYMAC LOAN SERVICES, LLC., does not have a lawful claim due to lack of standing; also, this collusive action was taken under color of law and is, thus, unconstitutional, notwithstanding, null and void ab initio. See Allen v. Wright, 468 U.S. 737, 751 (1984) (“The requirement of standing, however, has a core component derived directly from the constitution. A plaintiff must allege personal injury fairly traceable to the defendant’s allegedly unlawful conduct and likely to be redressed by the requested relief.”).
3. I was never lent any money (i.e. gold and silver coins) from the Promissory Note dated August 26, 2013, in the amount of $239,083.00. Thus, I am entitled to recover the original ‘Promissory Note’ dated August 26, 2013, which bears my wet-ink signature, along with all the proceeds generated from such note which the PENNYMAC LOAN SERVICES, LLC., (et al.) unlawfully converted into a security backing the entire transaction by way of fraud in the inducement.
4. I possess allodial aboriginal title to the ancestral estate in reversion known as 709 Burns Street, South East, Washington, District of Columbia Republic (and more fully described in the Affidavit of Heirship), by inheritance as heir apparent, and such property shall be reverted without interruption by my treaty right under Article 22 of the Treaty of Peace and Friendship of 1836 between the United States of North America and the Empire of Morocco See Kolovrat v. Oregon, 366 U. S. 187, 194, 81 S.Ct. 922 (1961) (“A state cannot refuse to give foreign nationals their treaty rights because of fear that valid international agreements may possibly not work”).

completely to the satisfaction of state authorities. Under the supremacy clause of the United States Constitution Art. VI, clause 2, state policies as to the rights of aliens to inherit must give way to overriding federal treaties and conflicting arrangements.”)

5. The SUPERIOR COURT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA (Inc.) is not a Consular court and was not delegated ‘judicial powers’ from Congress under Article III section 1 of the United States Constitution to hear and decide any matter affecting my person or property which is a ‘diversity of citizenship’ and treaty issue arising under Article 20 and 23 of the Treaty of Peace and Friendship of 1836 between the United States of North America and the Empire of Morocco. Thus, the SUPERIOR COURT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA (Inc.) lacks jurisdiction. My reserved power and right to exercise consular jurisdiction in this case under Article 20 of the said treaty are secured under the 9th and 10th Amendments of the United States Constitution.
6. The Judgment dated December 4, 2019, and the Order dated December 4, 2019, issued in this case under color of law within purview of the 14th Amendment and in want of jurisdiction by Laura A. Cordero, (acting as) Administrative officer of the SUPERIOR COURT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA (Inc.), was an attempting to deprive me of my inherited property/estate absent of the prerequisites of my due process rights secured under the 5th Amendments of the United States Republic Constitution. Thus, the said Judgment and Order are unconstitutional, notwithstanding, null and void ab initio for lack of jurisdiction and fraud per the stare decisis in Elliot v. Peirsol, 26 U.S. 328, 340 (1828) and in United States v. Throckmorton, 98 U.S. 61 cited above.
7. I, Ryan Delevan Cartwright-El, the living, sentient man and rightful Heir, am not lost at sea; and I affirm and declare my right of ‘reversion of estate’ and therefore I make no claim with respect to the title and misrepresented (name / man-of-straw and nom de guerre; - being a title), i.e., RYAN DELEVAN CARTWRIGHT, and the spurious creations of the foreign, de facto United States Corporate operators, actors, and owners; and I hereby surrender and assign any and all ‘reversionary interest’ to the foreign United States and its subsidiaries for full ‘Acquittance Discharge Settlement’ and ‘Closure’ of my reliance per Title 12 USC 95a, part 2. I assume no liabilities or debts however contrived among its associates; and I do not consent to stand as 'surety' for the foreign, private, and for-profit, UNITED STATES INCORPORATED / U. S. Corporation Company entity owners, directors or their administrators; nor do I stand as 'surety' for its subsidiaries or its associates at any point, or moment in time.

WHEREFORE, this Notice of Default is entered against David A. Spector, (acting as) Chief Executive Officer of PENNYMAC LOAN SERVICES, LLC.; Laura A. Cordero, (acting as) Administrative officer of the SUPERIOR COURT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA (Inc.); and Pamela Hunter, (acting as) Director of the SUPERIOR COURT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA (Inc.), (jointly) for the following remedy as an opportunity to cure:

- i. The dismissal of this case with prejudice forthwith for lack of jurisdiction and fraud;
- ii. The return of the original 'Promissory Note' dated August 26, 2013, in the amount of $239,083.00, to be given to I, Ryan Delevan Cartwright-El, forthwith along with all the proceeds generated from the said note;
- iii. Extortion.....$9,696.45 (.999 fine gold coins)
- iv. Fraud in the inducement.....$9,898.45 (.999 fine gold coins)
- v. Fraudulent concealment.....$9,696.45 (.999 fine gold coins)
- vi. Threatening communications.....$8,989.45 (.999 fine gold coins)
- vii. Slander.....$6,666.00 (.999 fine gold coins)
- viii. Consular assistance.....$5,000.00 (.999 fine gold coins)

You are given five (5) calendar days from your receipt of this Notice of Default to execute the above remedy; or to rebut this Notice of Default in its entirety, point-by-point, on an affidavit being signed under penalty of perjury.

Failure will result in a Default Judgment entered against you for the above remedy. A lien may be placed against your property and assets in order to secure the above performance and payment, and to levy on your property and assets for the satisfaction of the above remedy if payment cannot be made. See the stare decisis law in the case Sniadach v. Family Finance Corp., 395 U.S. 337 349 (1968) where the Supreme Court of the United States stated the following:

“The ability to place a lien upon a man’s property, such as to temporarily deprive him of its beneficial use, without any judicial determination of probable cause dates back not only to medieval England but also to Roman times.”

Your property and assets are subject to levy ninety (90) days from the file date of this Notice of Default if settlement cannot be made.

I affirm by virtue of Divine Law; under the Zodiac Constitution; and upon the United States Republic Constitution; and upon the honor of my Foremothers and Forefathers that the foregoing Notice of Default and Affidavit is true and correct.
