DECLARATION AND AFFIRMATION

I, [REDACTED] Hues-El, in full life, in propria persona, sui juris, being competent to testify to the matters declared herein and having duly affirmed according to Divine Law, the Moorish Zodiac Constitution, the Constitution for the United States of North America, the Treaty of Peace and Friendship of 1836 between the United States of North America and the Moroccan Empire, the records incorporated herein, and the honor of my Foremothers and Forefathers, hereby declare and state as follows:

I. IDENTITY, NATIONALITY, AND ABORIGINAL HEREDITARY STATUS

1. I am an aboriginal Moorish-American by jus sanguinis and appear in my proper person and hereditary character, with all rights reserved.
2. I declare lineage and consanguinity to the aboriginal Moors of this land, anciently called Moabites, and to the Moorish people whose history and identity are reflected in the public records incorporated herein.
3. My nationality and hereditary character are not created by the present adverse claimants, their agents, or any lease, corporate instrument, administrative designation, or other private arrangement asserted against my inherited ancestral estate in reversion herein listed.
4. The Illinois House of Representatives, in House Resolution 0689 for Moorish-American week January 8-15, 2012, declared that Moorish Americans are descendants of the - ancient Moabites, Hamites, and Canaanites and described Moorish Americans as aboriginal to the territories of North, Central, and South America. See attachment.

5. The CITY OF CHICAGO proclamation dated December 22, 2011, contains corresponding recognition of Moorish-American ancestry and aboriginal presence throughout the continental Americas. See attachment.
 6. The engrossed Illinois House Bill 3486 recognizes the valuable contributions of Moorish Americans and provides for August being Moorish-American Awareness Month. It is incorporated according to the legislative status appearing on the face of the attached record. See attachment.
 7. House Document No. 326 of the Fifty-Ninth Congress, Second Session (1906), uses the designation "Moorish Empire," reports upon Moorish subjects and treaty relations, and states that residence in foreign parts did not affect the nationality of Moorish subjects. See attachment.

II. LOSS OF GENEALOGICAL RECORDS AND CONTINUITY OF DESCENT

8. The known generational records of my Moabite and Moorish ancestors, including records capable of showing each intervening name in the line of consanguinity, were destroyed, displaced, altered, or replaced during and following the Reconstruction Era of 1865 through 1877.
9. The destruction or replacement of those records did not extinguish the bloodline, aboriginal identity, hereditary character, or inheritable interest transmitted through that line.
10. Where conventional genealogical instruments no longer survive because of that historical destruction and replacement, I rely upon jus sanguinis, relatives and national identity, continuous hereditary character, public historical recognition, the treaty record, and all additional competent evidence later discovered or produced.
11. I expressly reserve the right to supplement this affidavit with historical records, testimony, consular authentications, and other evidence of descent without waiving the present claim.

III. ANCESTRAL ESTATE AND PARTICULAR PARCEL

12. This claim concerns the broader ancestral estate of the aboriginal Moors in North America and identifies the following particular parcel presently occupied, possessed, claimed, managed, or administered adversely to my asserted hereditary interest:

Street address: [REDACTED] Missouri; County: St. Louis County; Locator Number: [REDACTED].

Legal description supplied for the claim: SW PARCEL & [REDACTED]
ADDN PLAT 1 LOT [REDACTED].

Geographically located at: latitude [REDACTED] and longitude - [REDACTED] (GPS coordinates [REDACTED] North; and [REDACTED] West)

13. The street address, Parcel number, and supplied legal description are incorporated together for identification only. I reserve the right to substitute a corrected legal description without abandoning the ancestral claim.
14. The particular parcel is claimed as part and parcel of the broader ancestral estate and is not asserted to constitute the full geographic extent of that estate.
15. I identify Patrick W. Keefe, acting through [REDACTED] LLC, as the present foreign (nationality unknown) adverse claimant / purported feoffer / stranger, and Benzy Fishbane, acting through [REDACTED] LLC, as the management company or agent administering the premises under the present feudal arrangement challenged herein.

IV. TREATY FOUNDATION AND CONTINUING FORCE

16. The Treaty of Peace and Friendship of 1836 between the United States of North America and the Moroccan Empire is incorporated as the principal treaty instrument supporting this declaration and claim.
17. Under Article VI, Clause 2 of the Constitution for the United States of North America, treaties made under the authority of the United States constitute the supreme law of the land, binding judges notwithstanding contrary state constitutions or laws.
18. Article XXV (25) declares that the Treaty shall continue in force for fifty years and, after expiration of that term, shall continue to bind both parties unless one party gives the other twelve months' notice of an intention to abandon it, in which event its operation ceases at the end of the notice period.

19. I declare that the original fifty-year term matured in 1886 and that the Treaty thereafter continued in full force according to Article XXV (25) of the Treaty. I acknowledge no competent proof that either treaty party furnished the prescribed notice of abandonment.
20. The maturation of the original fifty-year term, together with the Treaty's continuing binding force, is asserted as the treaty event establishing and preserving the reversion, restoration, and delivery of the hereditary ancestral interest claimed herein.
21. Article XXII (22) of the Treaty provides, in material part, that when the heir to the deceased is present, the property shall be delivered to the heir without interruption, and that property subject to a will descends according to that will upon consular declaration of validity.
22. I invoke Article XXII (22) in my hereditary character and demand that the ancestral estate identified herein be delivered and recognized without interruption, subject to authentication and acknowledgment by the competent consular authority.

V. SUPREMACY AND STARE DECISIS

23. The Supreme Court of the United States declared in Kolovrat v. Oregon, 366 U.S. 187, 194, 81 S.Ct. 922 (1961), that state policies concerning the rights of aliens to inherit must yield to overriding federal treaties and conflicting federal arrangements. The Court further rejected a state's refusal to give foreign nationals their treaty rights based upon dissatisfaction with the operation of valid international agreements.
24. I invoke Kolovrat as stare decisis supporting the supremacy of treaty-secured inheritance rights and the displacement of any subordinate policy, practice, arrangement, or presumption asserted to obstruct such rights.

VI. REVERSION AND ADVERSE CLAIM OF TITLE

25. I declare that the Treaty of 1836 is the instrument governing the claimed reversion and that the completion of its original fifty-year term, while its obligations remained continuously binding, preserved the hereditary right of restoration and delivery asserted herein.

26. I hereby make an adverse claim of aboriginal and hereditary title to the broader ancestral estate and, particularly, to the parcel identified as [REDACTED], Missouri, Locator Number [REDACTED], together with all improvements, appurtenances, hereditaments, resources, rents, proceeds, benefits, and interests properly belonging thereto.
27. I deny that any escheat or color of title styled as a private feudal lease, fee-simple deed, mortgage (death-pledge), lien, hypothecation, security instrument, assignment, management agreement, tax instrument, administrative record, or corporate claim can extinguish the antecedent aboriginal inheritance and reversionary interest declared herein without competent proof of superior right and de jure authority.
28. Any alleged interest of [REDACTED] LLC, BROAD MANAGEMENT GROUP LLC, or persons acting through them within purview of the unconstitutional Fourteenth (14th) Amendment is disputed and made subject to this notice, demand for disclosure, and adverse claim.
29. No statement herein shall be construed as voluntary abandonment, surrender, novation, waiver, or conversion of my nationality, hereditary character, ancestral reversionary interest, or treaty-secured rights.

VII. PRIVATE ALLODIAL TRUST

30. The claimed hereditary and reversionary interest is declared for placement within the Allodial Private Trust of [REDACTED] Hues-El dated July 11, 2026.
31. A memorandum of that trust may be attached as a supporting exhibit. The complete private trust instrument need not be publicly disclosed except by the informed determination of the trustee or as otherwise lawfully authorized.
32. Reference to the trust does not waive the affiant's individual hereditary character or operate as an admission that an adverse claimant possesses superior title.

VIII. DEMAND FOR DISCLOSURE, GRACE PERIOD AND OPPORTUNITY TO REBUT

33. Each recipient claiming an interest adverse to this declaration is directed to produce evidence of allodial or aboriginal title and the chain upon which that asserted interest depends which affects the particular parcel herein listed.
34. Any rebuttal should be made by a competent natural person having firsthand knowledge, under oath or affirmation, and should specifically answer each material declaration rather than relying upon an unsigned computer record, conclusory denial, or statement by an unidentified agent.
35. The recipient should identify the original source of the interest asserted, the authority of every transferor absent of colonialism and feudalism, and the facts allegedly establishing priority over the aboriginal and treaty-secured hereditary interest declared herein.
36. The recipients have a grace period of five (5) days from receipt of this notice to answer. Failure to answer constitutes default and establishes consent by silence to all claims asserted herein.

IX. CONSULAR RECEIPT, AUTHENTICATION, AND ACKNOWLEDGMENT

37. This affidavit and its exhibits shall be presented to a Consul officer or agent of the Office of the Consul General of Morocco, Maghrib al-Aqsa, as the consular authority designated by the affiant to receive, examine, authenticate, and acknowledge the declaration of heirship.
38. The requested consular act includes verification of the identity and declared nationality of the affiant, receipt of the evidentiary record, acknowledgment of the invocation of Article XXII (22), and such further declaration concerning validity or inheritance as the Consul officer determines within the asserted consular authority.

X. PURPOSE AND RESERVATION

39. I execute this affidavit to place my declared aboriginal heirship, treaty right of inheritance, adverse claim of title, and claim to reversion of ancestral estate into a formal evidentiary record.
40. This notice shall be read together with every attached exhibit and any certified copy, consular certificate, trust record, or property record later incorporated by reference.

41. All inherent, hereditary, treaty-secured, consular, trust, property, and procedural rights are expressly reserved.

AFFIRMATION

I, [REDACTED] Hues-El, affirm by virtue of Divine Law; under the Moorish Zodiac Constitution; upon the Constitution for the United States of North America; and upon the honor of my Foremothers and Forefathers that the foregoing Affidavit of Fact: Declaration of Aboriginal Heirship, Adverse Claim of Title, and Reversion of Ancestral Estate is true and correct according to my knowledge and firmly held declaration.
