Capability Statement

Founded in 2002, Green3, LLC is an environmental planning and design firm located in historic Fountain Square, Indianapolis, IN. We have creative landscape architects and planners on staff as well as an expert team of ecologists, historians, and archaeologists that are proficient in compiling required federal and state environmental documentation in-house, so you only have to coordinate with one firm instead of multiple sub-consultants. Green3 can satisfy your contract goals and more with our wide variety of services. Green3's motto is fun, innovative, and smart, that's who we are, how we work, and how we approach our projects to get the job done.
