Artistic Style

I am delighted to be sharing my artwork with you and I want you to be completely happy with my work. Do peruse examples of my art to ensure my style is exactly what you have in mind.

Handwritten Calligraphy

Please remember that calligraphy is written by a human and not generated by a computer. The natural variations in form are what make calligraphy a beautiful art.

Text Submission

The provided text will be written exactly as submitted. Name and address lists must be submitted as a Word document or an Excel spreadsheet. Do understand that if you are behind time in your submission of information to me, I may have to delay the deadline.

Quantity Changes

If the quantity of envelope work changes after the deposit is paid, the original terms of the contract will remain in effect.

Additional Blanks

Please understand that a 10% surplus of envelopes will be necessary with your order.

Licensing

I retain the ownership of all artistic rights. Private commissions are for personal use only. Commercial licensing agreements are available upon request.

Photography

You are encouraged to take pictures and share them among friends, family, and on social media. Do credit me with “Calligraphy by Kerrie Kate Design” and tag me @kerriekatedesign.
