Welcome to our very first Gnosall What's On Guide!

We're so excited you've picked up a copy and taken the time to have a look through. This little guide has been put together to celebrate everything that's happening right here in our lovely village — from local clubs and community groups to family events, fundraisers, and fun days out.

A huge thank you to all the fantastic businesses, groups, and non-profit organisations who sent in their events — your support and community spirit are what make Gnosall such a special place. And an extra big thank you to the local businesses who've sponsored us for the first years' editions — we truly couldn't have done it without you!

If you've got an event you'd like to include in our next guide, or if you're a business interested in sponsoring a future edition, we'd love to hear from you. Just drop us an email at lovegnosallevents@gmail.com.

We would also like to thank Shaun Jones for allowing us to use one of his wonderful winter pictures for our front cover!

Thank you again for reading and supporting our first-ever What's On Guide. We hope you enjoy flicking through it, discovering what's on, and maybe even finding something new to get involved with. Here's to many more editions to come!

We are asking for donations of non perishable food and drinks.
All food will be delivered to the House of Bread in Stafford after the event.

We will be running/jogging/walking around the village collecting your donations, carrying them on our backs to the drop off point. This is our 3 year of working with St Lawrence church to support families.

If you wish to donate and are in Gnosall we can run to you to collect on the night of our event (Other options Laura can collect at a time more convenient or items can be delivered to Laura)
