Albany County Dems Announce County Assessor Search Process

Laramie—The Albany County Democratic Party has announced a search for candidates to replace Albany County Assessor Grant Showacre, who is resigning at the end of the month. The Albany County Assessor is a public office held by an elected official with a 4-year term.

Interested individuals may email their resume and cover letter to albanycountydems.chair@gmail.com by 10pm on Saturday, October 30 for consideration. Applicants are required to be a registered Democratic voter, and as per state statute, must own real property (also called real estate) in Albany County.
