

How to Prepare Your Child for SECONDARY SCHOOL

Bianca Sapara-Grant

INSTIL PREPAREDNESS AND CONFIDENCE IN YOUR CHILD.

FREE CHECKLISTS INCLUDED!

Starting secondary school is exciting and daunting. You can make a big difference to how quickly your child adapts and thrives. Your support at this point in their life will have strong and long-lasting impact. You have the chance to be the greatest influence on how smooth and successful this transition goes.

You can prepare your child by being prepared yourself. This book will guide you on the practical things you need to organise and talk through with your child.

”

"This book is amazing, it's come at the right time in preparation for my son who will be going to secondary school!"

- Nane, Mum of a Year 6 child

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Bianca is a family specialist with over 20 years of experience working with parents, young people, children and communities. She created her own education services company, Parent Power Education, which delivers projects, workshops and services for parents and children in the UK.

www.parentpower-ed.co.uk

Twitter | Facebook | Instagram

Contents

Introduction	1
Preparing for secondary school	4
School uniform.....	8
Turbulent feelings	10
Changing friendships	12
Travelling from home and school independently	15
Children with additional needs	18
Managing periods	21
Plan for good health and nutrition	24
Mental health and well-being	26
Managing the first term	28
Homework	29
Implement new routines	32
Talking about school	34
Sleep	36
Managing screen time	38
Developing independence	40
Parent-school relationships	42
Parent-teacher review	45
Bullying	47
Self-advocacy skills	50
A note of appreciation.....	51
Annex A: 3x3 card	52
Annex B: Further help and resources	53
Annex C: The complete checklist	54
More books by the author	60