

OFFICE
FADE IN:

PC sits in the main entrance of their office. Terry sits behind his desk, and wheels over to the PC when he sees them. Terry is the PC's secretary, and tends to glitch

TERRY

Hello and welcome. You're the new meatbag-meatbag president aren't you? I am your Secre-Terry-Terry and It's my job to show you around the office. Ready to follow me?

[CHOICES: FOLLOW TERRY]

Yes

TERRY

Great answer, off we go

No

TERRY

Wow, what a terrible answer. Not really your choice is it?

PC is prompted to follow Terry down a hallway. They end up in the PC's office.

TERRY

This is your office. This is where you'll spend most of your day. doing things that will no doubt endanger the lives of thousands of innocent civilians. Alas, thus is the burden of leadership among more primitive species. I almost feel sorry for you.

Terry points out the legislation area on the desk.

TERRY

This is where you can sign any potential legislation with your fancy presidential pen. Any moronic meat bag could do it. Then again, you're the President of the loser, so you know-know-know what that means?

[CHOICES: NOD YES]

^Yes

TERRY

Of course you do. You th-th-th-think you're one of the s-s-s-special ones. That will change.

^No

TERRY

It means, you're not any brainless ape. You're "THE" brainless ape-ape-ape. Good l-l-l-l-luck.

Terry then points out the newspaper dispenser, and electric bulletin board bulletin board.

TERRY

This is where you can learn about how good of a job you're doings well as the juiciest celebrity gossip. You can read can't you? If not just look at your approval rating bar. Don't worry if its not always on g-gr-green. There is no way that they'll like you that much.

Terry then points out the hammock. It has the country's crest on it, which is a large yellow bird that looks suspiciously like a banana.

TERRY

And this is where you'll sleep, which will end the day. You can lay with your eyelids closed, wasting approximately a third of the Ear-Ear-Earth's rotation, seeing sheep or whatever it is meatbags do.

Terry then takes the PC across the hall, to the conference room.

MEETING ROOM

TERRY

This is the conference room, where you can meet with your cabinet. Four of them are in here now, I told them you'd be here soon. Looks like they already have some laws they want to push through.

The Minister of Defense is sitting in a chair that appears from the ground. He wears a General's uniform, with flower pins covering it.

DEFENSE

Listen up maggot, you took too long getting here.

The Minister pulls his ankle to his head, exposing an overly-fashionable watch fastened to his ankle. His leg snaps back to the ground, almost in salute.

DEFENSE

I'm glad you came to me first. Defense will always be the backbone of any nation. These other boot lickers are just foot soldiers, at our mercy and disposal. Something to remember in the future.

He holds out a piece of paper, and suddenly the confident demeanor fades away. An unease grasps his body.

DEFENSE

Can I trust you, maggot?

[CHOICES: NOD YES OR NO]

^Yes

☐ His eyes narrow. His hand extends a piece of legislation.

DEFENSE

I hope you know how important trust is. Discretion on this matter is a requirement.

^No

He takes a step closer.

DEFENSE

Lucky for you, my wife would kill me, if I don't show you this. Keep that in mind.

Defense hands the PC a piece of paper with the words "Allocate funds for development of tactical attire" and a picture of a cute young man in a pink sailor suit.

DEFENSE

It's my wife's idea, she said the military needs more pizazz? So I have a bill that will require the military to wear outfits designed by her, the premier fashionista of this great nation. So please, sign it for the troops.

Defense leaves. Minister of Education and Happiness appears.

EDUCATION

I am your Minister of Education and Happiness. I will not burden a "busy" individual with words on trivial matters. I prefer a much more direct approach.

She holds out her left and right hand.

EDUCATION

Pick one.

[CHOICES: LEFT OR RIGHT]

^Left

Her hand opens, revealing a gold coin. Swiftly, her right hand comes crashing into your cheek.

EDUCATION

This is the premise of all dealings with the public. Everything given is given painfully. The more they ask for, the more pain is received. This ensures that excessive demands are squashed at the root. However, without information, the right hand may miss the mark.

^Right

Her right hand connects with your cheek, hard.

EDUCATION

Poor decisions often have immediate and painful consequences, even more so when dealing with a large population.

She slaps you again.

EDUCATION

10,000...20,000 of these, and a government can be rendered helpless. But, you know what serves as an excellent deterrent?

She appears as if she is going to slap you again, but pulls out a piece of paper.

EDUCATION

As their leaders, we have an obligation to supply them with this happiness, ensuring their hands stay over their eyes and not on your rosy cheeks.

Education hands you the piece of paper. On it are plans to place more cameras all over the country.

TERRY

Sheesh! She always creeps me-

Sparks fly from Terry

TERRY

I LOVE EDUCATION! Up n-n-n-n-next is the minister of health. She makes sure your p-p-p-p-people are just healthy enough to be productive members of society-y-y-y-y.

Minister of Health pops out of the ground.

HEALTH

That would be me. Unlike the others, I won't waste your time with unequivocally stupid suggestions. Our workers need paid maternity leave. This is not so much a request, as it is a denial of basic human rights on the side of your government. A simple list of potential advantages should suffice:. 1: Increase child-parent bonding. 2: allow both parents to raise the child, 3: increases worker productivity in the long run. 4 -

TERRY

I think that's enough.

Health quickly pops through the floor and screams on the way down. A piece of paper comes flying out of the shoot and it reads "Paid Maternity leave" with a stock photo of a smiling pregnant lady.

TERRY

Last is work and Commerce. She is the backbone of our economy.

WORK

Ok hi hi hi hi hi hi hi. Look ok, our economy is in the shitter right? So how do we fix it? Simple answer: we get a bunch of kids, like young kids, to join this camp right. Call it president whats-ur-face's fun camp and all that. And this camp right, they actually do, you know, labor and stuff. And get this, we don't even have to pay them. They'll actually pay us! Crazy right?

[CHOICES: NOD HEAD YES OR NO]

^Yes

Work nods their head violently

WORK

I know? I know... HERE.

They thrusts their hand out, a wrinkled piece of legislation
☐ clutched between their fingers.

^No

☐ Work seems to grind to a halt, the only movement coming from the corners of his eyes, as he stares at you, unblinking. His hand thrusts towards you violently, a piece of wrinkled legislation in tow.

WORK

Just do me this favor. Just this one favor. Sign it, and you'll see. Just a quick sign-y sign. Go on.

^Neither

Work's face gets closer and closer and closer and closer and...

Legislation. Inches from your face.

WORK

Sign it.

They slide a paper your way that says "Presidential Economic Stimulus kids camp" with the picture of an adult smiling over a filthy child laborer. The other 3 all pop back from under ground.

TERRY

Now it's time to pass one of these Brilliant brilliant plans. Choose wisely. We'll only have time to pass one law today.

[CHOICES: FIRST LAW]

^Defense

DEFENSE

Good job maggot, you made the right call. The military will now? have more? er, tactical tanks and guns and planes. Sigh Thank you soldier.

Defense presses a button and their chair goes back down.

HEALTH

Wow, can't believe that you also aren't able to see reason.

EDUCATION

Excellent choice.
