Demetre J. Christofilis serves as the Chief Operating Officer (COO) and Chief Compliance Officer at Archon Capital Management LLC, a Seattle-based hedge fund specializing in small- and mid-cap companies. Archon employs a long/short investment strategy, constructing a portfolio that includes both long and short positions to achieve risk-adjusted returns. The firm reports discretionary assets under management of approximately $363 million.

In his dual role as COO and Chief Compliance Officer, Demetre oversees the firm's operations—including technology, facilities, human resources, and administrative functions—and ensures that Archon adheres to regulatory standards and maintains best practices.

Before joining Archon in 2007, Demetre gained valuable legal and corporate experience as a paralegal at Loudeye Corp., where he assisted with corporate governance, contract drafting, and business transaction negotiations. He also served as a paralegal at InfoSpace, Inc., managing the stock options program and handling restricted stock and escrow-related matters.

Demetre earned his Bachelor of Arts from the University of Washington and his Juris Doctor from Gonzaga University School of Law. His legal background and operational expertise significantly contribute to Archon's success in the competitive investment advisory industry.

Demetre's extensive experience in both legal and operational roles ensures Archon's commitment to compliance and operational excellence while driving the firm's continued growth and success in the hedge fund sector.
