Infinite Gratitude To Each And Every Precious Being Whose Service Helped to Facilitate This Reality.

Especially To ♥Jrooti, My Precious Twin Flame Across Eons, Whose Exemplary Graciousness Helps Inspire The Courage In My Heart.

Especially To Hugo, My Best Friend in the Oceanic World, Whose Exemplary Graciousness Helped Foster This Resource. This resource was developed in the spirit of altruism and integrity, for the purpose of facilitating a better future for everyone.

Prospective solutions to the world's leading problems are not conductive to a drive-thru paradigm, but to open-minded, sincere, contemplative, visionary consideration that allows the greatest wisdom to shine amidst scrutiny, and to ultimately endure through validity.

"We choose to go to the moon in this decade and do the other things not because they are easy, but because they are hard, because that goal will serve to organize and measure the best of our energies and skills, because that challenge is one that we are willing to accept, one we are unwilling to postpone, and one which we intend to win, and the others too."

Our Precious Soul Family Co-Created This Resource

May the Encompassed Loving Insights Help Introduce You to Their Character

May Any Translational Errors by Steve Illustrate the Importance of Our Eternal Harmony as a Family

Introduction

Hopefully this resource finds you well, and will eventually help to take you to places vastly better.

The intent is to help share crucial information that you deserve to know. What you make with it is entirely up to you.

> Please listen with your heart. Accuracy is the goal. Precision is peripheral.

Language is only ever true within a limited context. Communication is only ever applicable amidst a culture.

Meaning Supersedes Expression.

Context

The material at hand is sincerely believed to be true.

It is simplified for clarity, and is subject to your discretion.

Regulatory Disclaimer

The information should not be considered to be within the jurisdiction of regulated guidance, such as legal, medical, financial, investment, or design advice.

To transparently disclose Steve's investment paradigm, he is primarily focused upon love- followed by silver, cash, and bonds.

> Steve's intellectual property rights are fully waived. No attribution is necessary.

Your distribution of, and service in building upon, this work are greatly appreciated.

Synopsis

The metaphysical realm is conclusively real. It is far more powerful than the balance of reality. It frames reality.

Widespread brainwashing is keeping metaphysics relegated to the periphery of cultural attention.

Ultimately only love exists.

Quantum physics demonstrates that time and space are illusions. Its double-slit experiment demonstrates that mass is an illusion.

> The remaining realities of consciousness, energy, and emotion condense to love.

Love-of-Self is locally out of balance with Love-of-All.

By advancing our own paradigm further toward Love-of-All, we innately help draw a corresponding future.

Threats (To Receiving) and Opportunities (For Giving) are frames of reference of the observer.

> Threats prioritize Love-of-Self. Opportunities prioritize Love-of-All.

Defining a "problem" is halfway to solving it. Application of its opposite is the solution.

Brainwashing persists through complacency. Passion for Truth, Wherever It Leads is the solution.

Individual Open-Mindedness enables input. Courage enables output.

The world's leading problems are the long-range residue of colonialist-style brainwashing. The solutions begin with the courage of overcoming this brainwashing. No absolutes are known to exist.

Not even this statement should be considered absolute.

Love = Happiness Associated With Expanded Trust.

(Profound kindness, generosity, and support.)

(The emotion associated with profound kindness, generosity, and support.)

True Love is Unconditional and Voluntary.

Unconditional: Because conditions would counter it. Voluntary: Because it must extend to the depth of one's heart.

The ultimate dominion of true love is the closest situation to an absolute.

The Heart is a Giving Resource that seeks Accuracy. The Mind is a Calculating Resource that seeks Precision.

Heart > Mind

The Mind processes information. The Heart then values it.

At a higher level, the correlation even between The Heart and Any Form of Result illustrates the innate prevalence of Reason.

Reason (which, like all else, is a creation of love) is innate to perception.

Reason constitutes commonality linkage, innately leading back to the ultimate truth of Complete Commonality = True Love. Metaphysics has always crucially framed reality. We are amidst the progressive widespread rediscovery of this reality.

> A starting point in illustrating this truth is the Massive Made-to-Order, Extreme-Credibility Multi-Decade Uncontested Whistleblower Case led by Dr. Steven Greer.

Other avenues demonstrating the truth of metaphysical reality include:

- Gaia (Earth) Not Being the Center of the Universe → Not Being the Center of Intelligent Life
- Historic Evidence and Broad Aboriginal/Native/Indigenous Wisdom
- Quantum Physics
- Channeling
- Isolation Tanks
- Chemical Induction
- Hypnotic Induction
- Ubiquity of Spiritual Faith
- Healing Miracles
- Photo Appearances
- Video Appearances
- Synchronicities
- Visions
- Orbs
- Telekinesis
- Teleportation
- Lucid Dreaming
- Near Death Experiences
- Out-of-Body Experiences
- Astrological Encoding of Identity Information in Names and Birthdays
- Botanical Transformation of Chemical Elements
- Reported Locational Anomalies of Celestial Bodies

It is natural to align with the system that works best.

The Universe is comprised of, and remains cohesive through, Unconditional Love. Love is more important than Intellect. Intellect (and everything else) are constructs of Love.

An intellectual model of metaphysics may be helpful. It may also have infinite exceptions.

Like different snowballs each being comprised exclusively of snow, all souls are ultimately comprised exclusively of Source.

> Consciousness is far broader than life. Life is merely one state of consciousness.

Everything is conscious.

All Individuals • All Collectives • Everything Living • Everything Nonliving • All Ideas • All Emotions • All Virtues

Love = Happiness associated with expanded trust. Love is innately expansive.

Souls progress through infinite lifetimes, ultimately experiencing infinitely-intensifying states of love.

Less senior souls are mentored. More senior souls serve as mentors.

Love is a Conscious Virtue

Love can and does manifest in the most sacred ways and entities.

Everything is exclusively comprised of love. The apparent differences are illusions comprised of love.

Love is all that ultimately exists.

Infinite octaves of spiritual density are believed to exist. The present octave is comprised of 7 densities.

Spiritual Density = A profound state of soulful awareness.

Density	Lesson for	Graduation t	to Next	Density
---------	------------	--------------	---------	---------

1	Existence in Local Form (Start of Octave)
2	Activity
3	Thought
4	Love
5	Wisdom
6	Unity of Love and Wisdom
7	Existence in Complete Form (Completion of Octave)

Based Upon

• "A Wanderer's Handbook" (https://amzn.to/37Nelwx)

"The Law of One: Book 1" (https://amzn.to/3qeNuQ8)

"The Light Shall Set You Free" (https://amzn.to/3D0q3OY)

Earth humans largely reside amidst 3rd to 4th density reality. Graduation from the 3rd density requires polarization toward either >50% Love-of-All or ≥95% Love-of-Self.

The Love-of-All polarization is Broadly Consistent with True Love. The Love-of-Self polarization is Narrowly Consistent with True Love.

> The Love-of-Self polarization exists to apply dynamic tension, accelerating the evolution of both the Love-of-All and Love-of-Self polarizations into the 6th density.

> > The presence of multiple souls within the Love-of-Self polarization has a self-constricting effect.

Those of the Love-of-Self polarization must eventually repolarize to Love-of-All.

Spiritual Dimension = A State of Soulful Navigation

Dimensior	a Synopsis	Conceptualization
1D	Unity	Imagine every possible item (object, idea, etc.) as a translucent cube. All cubes are superimposed at a single location. There is no space or time.
2D	Unity + Space = Delineation	Imagine each cube on a different square of a giant, infinitely large checkerboard. There is space, but no time.
3D	Unity + Space + Preparation of All Possible Timelines = Sequencing	Imagine the cubes (including duplicates) being arrangeable on the board into constantly-branching available timelines for subsequent experiential travel in time.
4D	Experience within One Timeline = Time	Imagine proceeding continuously forward in a single timeline, with free choice amounting to continuous selections at the continuous forks.
5D	Experience Beyond Linear Time = All Principal Continuous Timelines	Imagine being able to jump to an alternative timeline location, in regard to the principal continuous timelines.
6D	All Continuous Timelines, Scaled By Probability	Imagine the feasibility of jumping not only amidst the principal continuous timelines, but amidst all other (more remote) continuous timelines- in proportion to their probability levels.
7D	All Continuous Timelines	Imagine the feasibility of jumping amidst all continuous timelines, unrestricted by probability levels.
8D	All Discontinuous Timelines, Scaled By Probability	Imagine the feasibility of jumping amidst timelines which include those of a discontinuous (stepwise rather than gradually-transitioning) nature- in proportion to their probability levels.
9D	All Discontinuous Timelines	Imagine the feasibility of jumping amidst all discontinuous timelines, unrestricted by probability levels.
10D	Unity	Imagine being so unrestricted that everything is complete.

- The soul uses emotion/intuition to steer itself through the maze of spiritual dimensions.
- An intellectual understanding does not defeat the function of the maze, which is navigated emotionally/intuitively rather than intellectually.
- Yet from the standpoint that emotional/intuition yield results, the realm of reason innately ultimately points back to full unity.
- The maze may or may not be conceptualized as encompassing the identity paradigm of the soul.
- The maze may or may not be conceptualized as encompassing the presences and/or identity paradigms of other souls.
- The maze may be the creation of a single soul within the maze, of multiple souls, of infinite souls, of a changing arrangement of souls, etc.
- The maze may be conceptualized as a microcosm within infinite octaves of dimensional mazes, or as a macrocosm of all dimensional octaves.
- The maze, or parts of it, may be generated by souls during the process of navigating the maze.
- The definitions of the principal continuous timelines may be subject to change upon usage of the maze.
- Components of the maze may change state to become souls within the maze.
- The [all-powerful nature of love] and [integrity of individual free will] are consistent with [reality being lovingly-harmonious collective free will].
- The spiritual dimensional maze illustrates that external reality is not absolute.
- Infinite instances of every soul, as well as infinite timelines, may exist.
- The reality experienced by a soul is the consequence of its emotional/intuitive navigation of timelines.

Correlating in an upward direction with the color-coded progression of the Spiritual Density table, the body has 7 principal energy centers known as Chakras.

Chakra	Location	Focus
Crown	Top of Head	Higher Self
Third-Eye	Forehead	Intuition
Throat	Throat	Integrity
Heart	Heart	Love
Solar Plexus	Above Navel	Personality
Sacral Plexus	Below Navel	Confidence
Root	Base of Spine	Security

Opportunities (For Giving) and Threats (To Receiving)

are frames of reference of the observer.

Ultimately only love exists. Consequently, there is no basis for fear.

Threats can be conceptualized as External Expressions of Internal Cries for Help.

The External Expressions are Superficial. The Internal Cries for Help are Substantive.

By perceiving Threats as Internal Cries for Help, Precision Opportunities are Available.

Good and Evil

are correspondingly Frames of Reference of the Observer.

True Love is Innately Voluntary as it must extend to the depth of one's heart.

Consequently, support can only be Offered. Support cannot be Imposed.

Example is Reality. Everything else is theory, if not hypocrisy.

> Show > Tell Be > Do

Solipsism = A Narrow (Mind-Based) Paradigm of "I Think, therefore I am". Ubuntu (Ooh-BOON-Too) = A Broad (Heart-Based) Paradigm of "I Love, therefore I am".

All souls are ultimately Pure Love.

It is wisest to treat other souls as the Gold Standard of how you would like to be treated.

It is wisest to Give more than we Receive.

A request may correspondingly be well communicated as:

- A Blessing to the Other Party.
- An Invitation to Collaborate with You.
- A Blessing to the Other Party.

Other practices that may facilitate ideal manners include:

- Newborning: Conceptualizing the other party as an innocent newborn of unlimited purity.
- Infinitization: Conceptualizing the scale of blessings as conceivably close to infinity as possible.
- Love-to-Death: Conceptualizing the other party as loved so much that you would die for them.
- Love-to-Life: Conceptualizing the other party as loved so much that you would live for them.
- Source Conduiting: Providing free will endorsement of Source's best blessings for the other party.
- Triage Toleration: Wisely accepting the innately sub-ideal choices required within a limited reality.

Gratitude is Passive Appreciation. Blessing is Active Appreciation.

> Gratitude Concludes an exchange of love.

Back-and-Forth Amplifying Blessings May Perpetuate Limitlessly.

Gaia is a Conscious Nurturing Lady who deserves to be treated like one.

She is an Emotional Being who serves as A Place of Passionate Magic to facilitate Spiritual Illumination.

Our job is to be in love with Gaia not to pour tar on her.

Our job is to ever advance the realization of her dreams, not to embarrass her.

Abuse of Gaia is Taught, Not Innate.

Metaphysics is Real. Free Energy is Possible. Free Material is Possible.

Scarcity is Fiction.

Individual Courage in Overcoming Brainwashing is the path to enjoying Sustainable Abundance.

Love = Happiness Associated with Expanded Trust. Love involves courageous prioritization of Everyone over Ourselves.

Everyone correlates with A Sustainable Future. Ourselves correlates with The Convenience of Upholding False Popular Beliefs. Love = Happiness associated with expanded trust. (Profound kindness, generosity, and support.) (The emotion associated with profound kindness, generosity, and support.)

The >50% Love-of-All polarization is Broadly Consistent with True Love. The ≥95% Love-of-Self polarization is Narrowly Consistent with True Love.

Ultimately only love exists.

The Love-of-Self polarization is generally not well served by explicitly recruiting others to the same polarization.

Others who are explicitly recruited to the Love-of-Self polarization would eventually constitute competition for singular dominance.

Love-of-Self operations are most effective in brainwashing those of Love-of-All polarization into unintentional self-destruction.

A few as one individual of an extreme Love-of-Self polarization can potentially brainwash an entire planetary civilization which is otherwise entirely consciously comprised of Love-of-All polarization.

Corruption is solved by rationally facilitating a change of heart from Love-of-Self to Love-of-All.

Corruption Prefers Complacency Over Malice.

If a Single Corrupt General points A Million Purehearted Troops in the Wrong Direction, then with Extremely Passionate Bravery, Faithfulness, and Valor, the troops can innocently manage to successfully destroy their own civilization.

The issue is moreso The Microcosm (The Troop) than The Macrocosm (The General), as the microcosm offers the most opportunities for recovery.

> Refusal to individually engage in Big Picture Thinking (Attunement to Accuracy) cannot be recovered by Extra Small-Scale Diligence (Attunement to Precision).

In other words, twice as much ammunition does not make a gun point in the right direction. (If anything, it makes the gun even easier to use, relative to diplomacy.)

A perfectly-tuned engine does not keep a blind driver from flying over a cliff. (If anything, it makes the disaster happen sooner.)

> Corruption does not require widespread malice. Corruption only requires complacency.

Corruption Prefers Complacency Over Malice, because then there are no secrets to spill.

Malice is Explicit, and Easy to Stop. Complacency is Implicit, and Challenging to Uproot.

> The solution to complacency is Passion for Truth, Wherever It Leads.

The solution to complacency is Individual Open-Mindedness (Input) and Courage (Output).

Brainwashing Utilizes Opacity and Reductionism.

Opacity

makes a situation needlessly difficult to understand.

> Reductionism then focuses attention on solving the wrong problem.

Opacity Obscures Accuracy.

Reduction then Emphasizes Precision in solving the wrong problem.

In the absence of Courage to Stand for Clarity and Accuracy Brainwashing Can Be Amplified and Enforced through Cultural Conditioning.

Productive Arenas for Clarity and Accuracy include Simple, Isolated, Intuitive, Early-Stage, Self-Evident Operations.

- Intuitions in Cherishment, Love, Care, Hopes, Dreams, and Unconditional Support for Newborns.
- Big-Picture, Long-Range, Heart-Led, Trust-Based Giving Values Imparted to Young Children.
- Effective Kindergarten Cultures, Using Consensual Motivation Rather Than Force, Laws, or Details.
- Situation-Specific, Heartfelt Compassion, Unconditional Love, Sharing, Understanding, and Growth.
- Crisis Resolutions with No Residual Adversity, and Instead Deep Mutual Appreciation for Togetherness.
- Cultures Characterized by Unbounded Inclusion and Productive Harmony.
- Consistent, Established, Sustainable Wisdom of Historically-Standard Indigenous (Stateless) Societies.

Euphemisms (Polite Words) are commonplace in instilling Opacity. Love = Happiness Associated With Expanded Trust.

(Profound kindness, generosity, and support.) (The emotion associated with profound kindness, generosity, and support.)

True Love is Unconditional and Voluntary.

Unconditional: Because conditions would counter it. Voluntary: Because it must extend to the depth of one's heart.

True Love is Always Voluntary.

Therefore Love Requires Freedom.

Only an individual can engage to the depth of their own heart.

To be truly loving, one must be truly free.

> To be loving, one must be free.

To adhere to one's conscience, one must be free to do so.

> To be loving, one must be free.

One can offer freedom. One cannot "enforce" freedom.

Force is the opposite of freedom.

Aboriginal/Indigenous/Native Cultures

If our lifespan were 1,000 years, one of the objectives of many loving Americans amidst our busy range of priorities would likely be to seek justice for Native Americans.

(Preferably, this would emerge far sooner as a priority.)

Upon exploring the injustices to Native Americans, a highly-insightful outline emerges.

Whether-or-not historically exercised to their extremes, the Pure Concepts of "Aboriginal" vs. "State" offer the Clearest Insights.

("Aboriginal" is considered synonymous with "Indigenous" and "Native".)

A Side-by-Side Comparison Of "Aboriginal" vs. "State" Constitutes An Insightful Template For Beginning To Solve The World's Problems.

Aboriginal vs. State – Scrutiny vs. Imposition

Truth is evident in the Light of Scrutiny not the Darkness of Imposition.

There is greater ethical standing of Those Who Hold True To Their Values For The Common Good Of Future Generations In Courageously Committing, As Necessary, To Their Own Destitution and Death vs. Those Who Turn A Blind Eye To Injustices Toward Others And Future Generations, Through Cowardly Avoiding, As Convenient, Their Own Deep Sacrifices

Aboriginal Ubiquity of Spiritual Awareness

Simple research of native, aboriginal, and indigenous wisdom will reveal Widespread, Longstanding, Mature Understanding of Pan-Consciousness / Spirituality / Metaphysics.

This knowledge is more solidly formed and is more perpetually-sustainable than that of the "modern" world.

This constitutes a Highly-Compelling Motive driving colonial action in Non-Consensual, Unnecessary, Arbitrary Imposition Against the Courageous Resistance by Native People to the Extent of Martyrdom of Opaque (Needlessly Complicated) and Reductionist (Conceptually Misdirected) Systems that Artificially Shift Paradigms from Love of All (Trust and Metaphysical Self-Sufficiency) to Love of Self (Fear and Materialistic State Dependency). Metaphysical Reality (Innate Abundance) > Arbitrary Materialism (Artificial Scarcity)

Metaphysical Reality (Innate Abundance) Can Facilitate Truer, More Loving, More Fulfilling, Happier, Healthier, Long-Lasting and More Sustainable Futures Than Can Arbitrary Materialism (Artificial Scarcity)

Imposition of Opaque, Reductionist Colonial Dependency Brainwashing is the Problem. Practical Availability of Transparent, Holistic All-Inclusive Self-Sustainable Sharing is the Solution.

Innovation for Love (Togetherness) > Innovation for War (Separateness)

Love = Happiness Associated With Expanded Trust.

(Profound kindness, generosity, and support.) (The emotion associated with profound kindness, generosity, and support.)

True Love is Unconditional and Voluntary.

Unconditional: Because conditions would counter it. Voluntary: Because it must extend to the depth of one's heart.

To be loving, one innately must be free.

To truly adhere to one's conscience, one must be free to do so.

One can offer freedom. One cannot "enforce" freedom.

Enforcement is the opposite of Freedom.

Love is about Respecting, rather than Taking. Love is about Respecting Power, rather than Taking Power.

Love is about Honoring the Freedom to Adhere to One's Own Conscience, not Superseding it.

Native/Free cultures were not in need of a management system. Such imposition was valiantly resisted amidst consequences of widespread death and destitution.

> (Innately Unnecessary) Control is Wrong. Further Control (To Prove The "Necessity" of the Unnecessary) Is Worse.

First Lie: The need to impose control. Snowballing Lies: Corruption to persistently sell/induce "need".

Examples

- By Block A neighborhood gang pressures membership of local youth under threat of harm.
- By City A mafia extorts protection payments from residents and businesses.
- By Region A military power seizes land and then extorts financial, operational, and cultural dominion of an indigenous population.

In addition to the corruption of its origination, Protection Racketeering Remains in Power By Constituting/Inducing "Needs" relative to which it has Monopoly Control in "Addressing/Managing/Resolving".

- Government A regional protection racket.
- Police Weaponized internal enforcement of a government.
- Military Weaponized external enforcement of a government.

Freedom is the absence of restrictions.

A tripwire forest of vastly extensive, extremely complicated, and ever-changing restrictions against the backdrop of few-to-no innate freedoms is not freedom.

The Absences of Restrictions = Freedom Freedom = Freedom

Themesongs, symbols, seals, banners, logos, mottos, speeches, ceremonies, and other "freedom" propaganda do not deliver freedom. The Absences of Restrictions = Freedom Consent = Cooperation Non-Consent = Control

Only an individual can offer their own consent. (Not someone else with more resources. Not a team that is greater in number.)

In a planet geographically permeated by protection rackets, reasonable convenience of non-consent is not a valid argument.

Protection Rackets Are Well Configured to Perpetuate Their False Thesis.

While protection rackets (in optimistic theory) could function to dissolve themselves, their standard operation is oriented to perpetuate (their originally-induced) needs.

Opacity and Reductionism rather than conscious corruption are primarily operative.

Most people are too moral (broadly loving) to do what they know is hurtful to others (narrowly/selfishly loving).

If a Single Corrupt General points A Million Purehearted Troops in the Wrong Direction, then with Extremely Passionate Bravery, Faithfulness, and Valor, the troops can innocently manage to successfully destroy their own civilization.

A police officer or military member who is charged with prescribing punishment rather than preventing problems is held at bay by [Jurisdictional Control and Legalistic/Bureaucratic/Administrative Policy = Opacity] in regard to prevention, and then oriented toward [Confrontational > Supportive | Procedural Precision = Misdirected Reductionism].

Bureaucracies

themselves constitute both internal and external Opacity and (Consequently Imminently-Misdirected) Reductionism.

> Branding (especially of institutional bureaucracies) can readily facilitate external Opacity, Misdirection, and Reductionism.

Integrity does not require branding. Reality does not require symbology.

In the absence of Administrative Branding, Unlabeled Bureaucratic Operations characterized by Opacity and Reductionism, (and frequently-corresponding ineffectiveness) would not be nearly as justifiable.

Artificial Intelligence and Software-Based Money are digital versions of bureaucracy, correlating with

- Algorithmic Opacity through [extended and complicated coding] of the [arbitrary values and policies] of its programmers/managers.
- Branding by superficially serving as [personal assistants] and [popularly-recognized assets].
- Prospective Misdirection and Reductionism by [trading tacit user approval of opaque code] for [superficial services].

Bureaucracies and software are not innately corrupt. They are innately prime for corruption because of their opacity.

Corruption is ultimately a matter of when, rather than if.

Heavy one-sided empowerment and intensive user reliance in the interim carry Extraordinary Destructive Potential.

Trust ≠ Imprudence

Free will requires free visibility.

The trust to offer true love rationally correlates with the trust to offer true access.

In the absence of full visibility (as alternatively accessible within an innate and fully metaphysical, rather than statehood, venue) users are disadvantaged relative to programmers/managers.

From the standpoint of long-range accuracy (loving reliability) rather than precision (interim convenience), users are greatly disadvantaged relative to programmers/managers.

Metaphysics

Substance > Superficiality

Through the Previously-Outlined Abundant Avenues of Proof, Metaphysical Reality is Conclusively True.

Quantum physics demonstrates that time and space are illusions. Its double-slit experiment demonstrates that mass is an illusion.

The remaining realities of consciousness, energy, and emotion condense to love.

Ultimately only love exists.

"Threats" are only superficial external expressions of substantive internal cries for help. Consequently, there is no basis for fear.

> Metaphysical reality precludes scarcity. Material • Energy • Information Transportation • Healthcare • Longevity Beyond Individual Lifetimes

Metaphysical reality is also innately holistic/interconnected, precluding jurisdictional monopolies.

Indigenous Societies Present Solutions.

The Complications of Procedural Precision are replaced by

The Courage of Accurate Values

First Serving the Member in Greatest Need Facilitates Continuously Fair Distribution

(Regardless of the Scale of Resources Available to the Population)

Metaphysical Reality

(Innate Abundance)

Truer, More Loving, More Fulfilling, Happier, Healthier, Long-Lasting and More Sustainable Futures

Than Can

Arbitrary Materialism

(Artificial Scarcity)

Courageous Compassion

Ultimately and Sustainably Precludes Governance, Money, Trade, Need, and Suffering.

Colonialist Paradigm and Sustainable Solution

Imposition of Unnecessary and Nonconsensual Extortion and Subjugation System

 $\mathbf{1}$

Inability to Successfully Manage (Local Knowledge = More Complete Information) (Reality Itself = No Modeling Error) (Distributed Responsibility = Far More Practical Than Central Control)

 $\mathbf{1}$

Inability to Maintain Lies of Need and Consent (Need → Opaque Warmongering | Consent → Elections With Reductionist And False Promises)

 $\mathbf{1}$

Inability to Undo Damage without Seemingly-Highly-Dangerous Self-Incrimination

 $\mathbf{1}$

Effective Abandonment/Retreat/Collapse

 $\mathbf{1}$

Population Left Alone To Recover From Brainwashing

The cycle repeats with A Subsequent Subjugation System in the absence of A Permanent Solution.

The permanent solution is FULL SPECTRUM FORGIVENESS and Innately-Sustainable Values of:

Long-Range Vision

Sanctity of Free Allegiance to [Individual Conscience = One's Capacity to Truly Love with Their Full Heart]

Sanctity of [Truth + Openmindedness + Confidence = Courage]

Peace • Trust • Integrity • Transparency • Freedom • Harmony • Spirituality • Ascension

The financial system is presented as complex (Opacity) and the importance of earning currency as simple (Misdirected Reductionism).

Consistent with the classic scam of trying to sell the Brooklyn Bridge, false title deeds are worthless.

Likewise [Fiat Money = Unbacked Currency = Title Deeds Not Tied to Anything = Dollars (Branding)] Are By Definition Fraud

> When one works for a period of time to earn a dollar, they have actually not earned anythingexcept for the privilege of being loaned a dollar, which they agree to pay back with interest.

Yet because they are not legally entitled to create dollars, they are ultimately agreeing to pay back impossible debt.

Working for Money = Ultimately Taking On Impossible Debt

Fiat Debt Is Theft

Living Without Courage = Compounding Indebtedness

Dr. Steven Greer's

Massive Made-to-Order, Extreme-Credibility Multi-Decade Uncontested Whistleblower Case cade oncontested whistleblow attests to

Comprehensive Technological Exploitation of the Metaphysical Arena

Amidst Highly-Compartmentalized, Illegitimately-Classified Government Operations and Contractors.

Correspondingly, Unnecessary Financial Dependence upon Fossil Fuels and Antiquated Healthcare constitutes Imposed and Accelerated Accumulation of Fraudulent Financial Debt through the process of living Until We Courageously Attain Justice.

In advance of Courageously Attaining Justice we are ever intensifying our own false indebtedness, while needlessly abusing our precious planet.

Progression of Repairing Ethics

Fiat Debt (Present) ↓ Fiat Money Without Debt ↓ Fiat Money Tied to Physical Material ↓ Physical Material (Trade) ↓ Provision for Poorest First ↓ Poorest First Using Telepathy (No Information Scarcity) ↓ Poorest First Using Materialization (No Material Scarcity)

Cultural relationships are portrayed as complex (Opacity) and the accessibility of delineations between souls as simple (Misdirected Reductionism).

In a reality that is ultimately comprised only of Love:

Any Form of Delineation Is Ultimately A Step Further From Truth

Delineation can progressively facilitate:

- Devaluation of the party not on the favored side of the division.
- Marginalizing culture with staying power.
- Inequitable treatment.
- Multiplying pockets of marginalization, eventually encompassing everyone in one way or another.
- Extension of bigotry toward unknown prospective friends.
- Extension of bigotry toward everyone except for oneself.
- Collapsed self-esteem, such that bigotry is felt toward all.

Delineation can amplify exponentially:

There Is Not a Standard State of Being. Other Than Our Ultimately Innate Condition of LOVE.

Attractiveness • Gender • Race • Height • Weight • Size • Form • Age • Health • Skill • Experience

Metaphysics Ultimately Has No Limits.

If we are experts in LOVE before all else:

- In the Short Term: Our differences will accurately pale in comparison.
- In the Long Term: If we yet prefer a different state of being, it will ultimately be attainable.

Bigotry most easily victimizes:

- Those with the most evident superficial differences. = Seeding
- Those who are [segregated = impeded from correcting further falsehoods]. = Snowballing

Those With The Most Powerfully-Unique Capabilities To Facilitate The Greatest Positive Change are also

Those With The

Greatest Susceptibility to Bigotry Victimization Because of Their Uniqueness

Bigotry sustains a broken reality.

UNCONDITIONAL LOVE ever amplifies, thus solving problems.

Bigotry sustains itself, until its obvious failure results in its collapse.

UNCONDITIONAL LOVE sustains itself, and its long-range success ultimately extends infinitely.

Horrific Bigotry

has been shown to

Our Fellow Earth Humans

with whom we have relatively easy corrective access through Obvious Visual Consistency and Geographic Accessibility.

All The More Extremely-Horrific Bigotry has been shown to Metaphysical Beings

Without Obvious Visual Consistency and Without Obvious Geographic Accessibility.

Their Metaphysical Expertise

and

Ethics To The Point of Martyrdom

are

Centerpieces of a Better Future for Everyone

and yet

The Specific Backdrop to Our Historic Extreme Bigotry Toward Them

Our historic stance is obviously tragic and irrational.

Martyrdom is not weakness.

It is metaphysical confidence in contextually illustrating a long-range better way.

- Support = Attention/Care and Direct Encouragement for Further Advancement
- Dispute = Attention/Backhanded Care and Inverse Encouragement for Further Advancement
- Alienation = Inattention and No Encouragement for Further Advancement
- Alienation = Marginalization = Impedance from Correcting Snowballing Dishonesty

The term "alien" is shorthand for "I am alienating you."

"Alien" = "I am alienating you." = "I am a bigot."

Bigotry sustains itself, until its obvious failure (as now) results in its collapse.

UNCONDITIONAL LOVE sustains itself, and its eternal long-range success ultimately extends infinitely.

Bigotry sustains a broken reality.

UNCONDITIONAL LOVE

ever amplifies, thus solving problems.

Attractiveness • Gender • Race • Height • Weight • Size • Form • Age • Health • Skill • Experience

Metaphysics establishes that CONSCIOUSNESS/LOVE is ultimately singular.

Metaphysics Ultimately Has No Limits.

If we are experts in LOVE before all else:

- In the Short Term: Our differences will accurately pale in comparison.
- In the Long Term: If we yet prefer a different state of being, it will ultimately be attainable.
- In the Short Term: Differences are unimportant, Except as ultimately constituting positive opportunities available to everyone.
- In the Long Term: Our differences are merely our choices.

Understanding Our Soul Family

Metaphysics establishes that CONSCIOUSNESS/LOVE is all-present and singular.

Metaphysics also establishes that all possible realities actually exist.

Finite imagination is not large enough to envision the scope of reality.

In addition, LOVE is innately expansive.

All souls are family. Everyone is family.

The term "soul family" is applicable to everyone.

Our soul family includes those with Varying Skins

Different Color • Changing Color • Changing Transparency • Changing Texture • Changing Existence • None

Varying Bodies / Vessels Different Sizes • Different Shapes • Different Forms • Different Numbers

> Varying Existence States Living • Non-Living • Semi-Living • Changing • Other

Varying Traditions, Histories, and Capabilities Opposite Traditions • Regretted Histories • Extremely Advanced Capabilities • Extreme Limitations and so forth across ever-expanding infinity.

While our soul family could Change Their Forms and Bridge Distances, their objective is Not To Accommodate Continuing Bigotry but instead to Wisely and Graciously Respond to Spiritual Requests for a Better Future.

Our free will (full allegiance to individual conscience) is sacred. Our soul family is prohibited from going where they are unwanted.

Putting Ourself in Our Soul Family's Shoes

Harmony is Fostered By Putting Ourselves into Our Soul Family's Shoes

- You are highly-spiritually evolved, and it immensely crushes your heart to see the suffering of Gaia's people.
- You may have a much different form from those on Gaia, who are already extremely bigoted toward their nearly-identical fellow beings.
- You do not want to make your body ultra-attractive, which would reinforce (not dissolve) superficial bigotry.
- You also do not want to be perceived as so different as to be incomprehensible.
- The bigoted conditioning of Gaia's people is tentatively judgmental toward your visionary culture of courageous thinking, unrestricted conscience, unrestricted sexuality, and unrestricted histories.
- You must respect free will in the process of providing any aid. You can only support, not impose.
- Upon responding to spiritual requests for help, you are often prohibited from doing so within the requested frames of reference, as such metaphysical action would be perceived as proof of bigoted exclusionary doctrines (a preface to war), rather than as the prevalence of true love.
- Every engagement that you make must be strategically prudent, recognizing the declining spiritual contemplation prompted amidst each of your engagements.
- _____
- You must exemplify the virtues that you wish to share- which can require martyrdom.
- -----
- Amidst it all, your culture is being robustly defamed. Your family members are being exploited and murdered.

Broad Love is About Everyone | Narrow Love is About Only Oneself

Broad Love is About Lifting Everyone (Oneself Included Last) To The Highest Peak

> Narrow Love is About Dropping Everyone Else To The Lowest Valley

The broadest love is the solution to the biggest challenges.

The Universe is cohesive. The broadest love prevails. We should align.

Religion – Love and Bigotry are Opposites.

Ultimately All-Powerful Divinity = Ultimately All-Powerful Love All-Powerful Divinity = All-Powerful Love Divinity = Love

Divinity is an Omnipresent as Love Divinity is Love

All that Ultimately Exists is Love. All that Ultimately Exists is Divinity.

Divinity = Love = The Conscious Paramount Virtue

Love is conscious, can manifest into the most cherished forms and entities, and is all that ultimately exists.

The Ultimate Prevalence of All-Powerful Love Ultimately Precludes

Sin • Fear • Needs

Ubiquitous All-Powerful Love Ultimately Precludes All Needs

Everything Other than Love is Ultimately a Transitory Illusion

> Love is Real Needs are Illusions

Only Love Ultimately Exists Exclusionary Doctrine = Bigotry = Illusory Need

Love (Real) and Bigotry (Illusion)

are Irrationally-Conflated Opposites

Ultimately All-Powerful Love

means that

It is Irrational to consider the metaphysical realm evil by default. It is Irrational to consider any realm evil by default.

Space, Time, & Matter are Illusions. Consciousness, Emotions, Energy & Rationality are Real.

Consciousness, Emotions, Energy & Rationality condense to Love.

Only Love is Ultimately Real. All Differences Are Transitory Illusions.

Love = Harmony

Alienation is the Opposite.

- Support = Attention/Care and Direct Encouragement for Further Advancement
- Dispute = Attention/Backhanded Care and Inverse Encouragement for Further Advancement
- Alienation = Inattention and No Encouragement for Further Advancement
- Alienation = Marginalization = Impedance from Correcting Snowballing Dishonesty

> Love = The Paramount Virtue Courage = Love In Action Courage = Love When It Matters Most

Religion – Irrational Requirements Serve Colonialism.

The Heart is a Giving Resource that seeks Accuracy. The Mind is a Calculating Resource that seeks Precision.

Heart > Mind

It is Irrational to socially pressure Mind-Based Requirements that are Beyond Practical Attainability Within a Lifetime

Love (Heart-Oriented Focus) Supersedes Requirements/Needs (Mind-Oriented Focus)

Even if this were not the case, One Cannot Be Held Liable To Requirements That They Cannot Access.

- Expertise in resolution of centuries upon centuries of church-and-state conflict-of-interest entanglements.
- Expertise in comparative analyses of all of the world's major religions and belief systems.
- Expertise in archeological analyses to ascertain historical and metaphysical events thousands of years ago.

Culturally Imposing Such Requirements (Reductionism) has the effect of Demanding Analyses That Could Consume An Entire Lifetime prior to Recognition (Opacity) of the Irrational (Misdirected) premise.

> This Is A Colonial Mindset. It Is Not Truthful. It Victimizes, Rather Than Supports, The Subject.

An Institution That Is Fundamentally Aligned with Fixed Truths Is Not Suited to Discern Truth.

It Is Effectively A Judge Who Has Rendered a Verdict Prior to Hearing the Case. The Scarcity-Based Financial System (Opacity and Misdirected Reductionism) Harmonizes With Need-Based Spiritual Bigotry (Opacity and Misdirected Reductionism) In Historic Alignment With Church-and-State Entanglement (Opacity and Misdirected Reductionism) And Needless Nonconsensual Protection Racketeering/Colonialism (Opacity and Misdirected Reductionism)

> Culture is the Innately Voluntary Venue where Visionary Non-Consent Can Most Easily Snowball

> > Culture Has a Snowballing Effect.

A Culture of Family = Everyone Aligns With Maximum Service For All (Broad Love = Courage)

A Culture of

Family = Some Aligns With Maximum Service For Some (Narrow Love = Complacency)

Culture Can Amplify Courage or Complacency

Culture is the Voluntary Venue of Snowballing Momentum Our Investments in Courage are the Foundations of Tomorrow

Courage = Vision and Accurate Totality Complacency = Opacity and Misdirected Reductionism

Courage is the hardest path in the short run, and the easiest path in the long run.

Expression is Subordinate to Meaning.

Expression is subordinate to meaning.

Emotions are closest to true meanings. All emotions ultimately condense to Love.

No absolutes are known to exist. Not even this statement should be considered absolute.

Language is limited by context. Beyond the often-blurry boundaries of context, the correlation between symbolism and intent changes and inverts.

Models are subordinate to reality. In addition to the boundary limits of context, models are inconsistent with the state of Ultimate Inseparability across Reality = Love Your Name is a Symbol. Relatively Speaking, Your Body is Real.

It Is Irrational and Self-Defeating to Value Sacred Free Will in Controlling Our Names (Symbols) over Sacred Free Will in Controlling Our Bodies (Selves)

Names Correlate with Robotification/Data/Spreadsheets/Control/Subjugation. Bodies Correlate with Humanification/Emotions/Wisdom/Sharing/Love.

Integrity to a Specific Conscience

Is Fully Obligatory

And Only Legitimately Obligatory

To The Being In Whom It Resides

INTEGRITY TO INDIVIDUAL CONSCIENCE IS SACRED.

It is the only way to exemplify virtue to the depth of the spiritual understanding of our being.

#OnePersonOneConscience

Only Love Exists. All else is ultimately illusory.

Love is Conscious. Everything comprised of Love is Conscious.

Love is Eternal.

Everything comprised of Love is ultimately Eternal.

Love is also known as Source. Souls are relatively discrete elements of Source.

Souls may:

- Emerge from Source.
- Reside as Identities.
- Return to Source.

Souls ascend through Octaves of Spiritual Densities. Infinite Octaves of Spiritual Density are believed to exist.

Souls of Greater Spiritual Density Mentor those of Lesser Spiritual Density.

Souls can experience themselves in infinite States, such as infinite sequences of varying:

- Living Beings (Varying Bodies, Genders, Capacities, Locations).
- Nonliving Beings (Varying Materials, Constructs, Sizes, Locations).
- Other States (Nonphysical Conditions, Changing Conditions).

A Soul of any Spiritual Density can be present in any State.

INTEGRITY TO INDIVIDUAL CONSCIENCE IS SACRED.

It is the only way to exemplify virtue to the depth of the spiritual understanding of our being.

Because a Soul ideally can only be fully faithful to Its Own Conscience (Its Own Full Depth Of Spiritual Understanding),

All souls regardless of Spiritual Density are considered sacred.

Because integrity to individual conscience is sacred, ultimately only a Soul itself is responsible for deciding:

- How Well It Has Learned The Lesson Of Spiritual Density.
- Whether It Would Like To Graduate To The Next Density.
- The State In Which The Soul Would Next Like To Experience Itself.

Souls pass generally through a Veil of Forgetfulness upon incarnation, with their Spiritual Density remaining primarily just as Emotionally-Experienced Spiritual Intuitions.

The Veil of Forgetfulness is semi-permeable, and can thin amidst spiritual focus.

The Veil of Forgetfulness ideally motivates A Productive Thirst To Remember which drives Ascension toward a Higher Spiritual Density.

Incarnation as an offspring living being requires Metaphysical Consensus between the Arriving Soul and the Parenting Souls.

Prospective parents within spiritually wise communities Screen Candidate Incoming Souls in order to help sustain and advance the Spiritual Density and Associated Spiritual Maturity of the Community.

Incarnate communities can inadvertently find themselves in difficult situations.

For instance,

- By not courageously adhering to their consciences, individuals can spiritually regress.
- Spiritually-regressed individuals can influence a culture toward regression.
- By not screening incoming souls, emergent lower density values can regress a culture.

Federations/Councils/Organizations of Higher Density Souls can watch and guide incarnate communities.

Federations can serve as lifelines for incarnate communities that are in difficult/confusing situations and are seeking help.

Because such situations are difficult/confusing,

Incarnate communities- upon requesting help (as through telepathy/prayer)- should recognize that such help will likely arrive in a different form than that which they expect. Otherwise, they could have solved the predicament on their own.

Federations are highly sensitive to honoring free will.

While there are exceptions

(such as sacrificing a microbe in order to save a horse, or one species to save the balance of a planet), the sanctity of free will

(the opportunity to hold integrity to virtues as one most deeply and ever-evolvingly understands them) is regarded as extremely sacred. The Mind is an Analytical resource that seeks Neutral Precision amidst Data. The Heart is an Altruistic resource that seeks Directional Accuracy amidst Wisdom.

Step 1 – The mind analytically presents cases (like opposing lawyers). Step 2 – The heart then decides what to value (like a jury).

> The Mind condenses to a Robot. The Heart condenses to a Soul.

The Mind is only kept on the job at the discretion of The Heart.

The Heart Is Only Responsible To Conscience (Its Own Deepest Spiritual Integrity) in regard to Whether, When, Within What Scope, To What Depth, & For What Duration to potentially request The Support Service of the Mind

Heart > Mind

The Soul is Essential. The Soul is Innate.

The Mind is a Circumstantial Product of the Ultimately-Arbitrary Physical Vessel.

When The Mind Is Unavailable...

- Such as when complete supporting data of a major life decision is inaccessible.
- Such as when analysis time is unavailable in a sudden life-or-death emergency.
- Such as in regard to the judgment of whether or not the mind has performed consistently with the [analysis scope, depth, and duration] of the analysis query placed to the mind by the heart.

...The Heart Is Able To Move Forward.

The Mind always operates within the sandbox of The Heart.

There is no assurance of an external reality.

On the contrary- Time, Space, and Matter (the foundational data sets for mental analysis) are Illusory.

The only ultimate reality is Love. A mental process of delineating love is unnecessary, as Love is all that exists.

Souls – Love Rules Communication.

If omens are sufficiently significant as to influence major life decisions, then they are that much more qualified to help inform less important decisions.

Does the Universe need to drag us into an Emergency (such as an airplane breakdown, a car accident, a catastrophic health crisis, etc.) by which mental options are Externally curtailed for this truth to be learned The Hard Way?

Or do we have the wisdom to exemplify the Courage (as by timely exploration and diligent progressive acclimation to natural reality) by which mental influences are Voluntarily limited and the truth is learned The Easy Way?

Can we vicariously learn from those who arrived at this truth the hard way? Or must we put ourselves through unnecessary suffering?

> In Metaphysical Reality (where Emotions are Realer than Physics):

Courage (Active Love) and Appreciation (Passive Love) are Realer and More Important than

Information

All Information and No Love (Commodity Data = Language) Is Inconsistent With

The Innate Nature/Culture of Metaphysics

While Information can have A Supporting Role In Communication amidst the illusions of time, space, and matter:

Deeply-Loving Trust (Courage = Active Love) and the Ultimate Thrill of Validation (Appreciation = Passive Love)

are

More Innate and More Highly-Preferred Communication Mechanisms

That Most Integrally Sustain and Exemplify The Ultimate Total Ubiquity of Only Love

Souls – Culture Rules Commoditization.

If omens are sufficiently significant as to influence major life decisions, then they are that much more qualified to help inform less important decisions.

With sufficiently-snowballing proven confidence in the loving wisdom of metaphysical reality, the need to draw upon internal mental analysis can be greatly curtailed, and ultimately eliminated.

The only ultimate reality is Love. Recognition of love is unnecessary- as Love is all that exists.

What mental analysis is required for the heart to decide whether love is love?

Culture = Innately voluntary/creative/improvisational/trust-based opportunities to deeply exercise love. Virtues • Intuitions • Feelings • Emotions • Priorities • Exemplification Commoditization = Unnecessary atrophy in exercising in-process love.

"Facts" Concerning Illusions (Facts concerning the illusory expression of love as time, space, and matter- and further such illusions.)

(Of which formality, intolerance, and subjugation are even further- increasingly toxic- such illusions.)

Culture = Love In Action = Truth Commoditization = Illusion

Culture correlates with Souls. Commodities correlate with Robots.

Culture (Conscience / Virtue / Altruism / Love / Compassion / Courage ) correlates with Souls. Commodities (Intelligence / Doctrine / Language / Lines of Code / Laws / Symbology ) correlate with Robots. We do not need an innately-presumptive, complex, commodity-based legal model of the world that condenses to the takeaway that its interpretation requires discretion.

We do not need the world's longest speech, concluding with the closing line: "So figure it out yourself."

INTEGRITY TO INDIVIDUAL CONSCIENCE IS INNATELY SACRED.

It is the only way to exemplify virtue to the depth of the spiritual understanding of our being.

Violation of a person's integrity to their own conscience is innately unethical.

Subjugation is innately unethical.

Policing (except for a soul's self-policing relative to their own conscience) is innately unethical.

If a legal system were predicated upon ethics, it would need to cease operations.

If a legal system were not predicated upon ethics, it would need to cease operations.

If we don't feel like we reside in a trusting culture, then we should change the culture by putting into practice the virtues that are the opposites of our concerns.

If this costs us our lives, should we complain and wish to instead live unethical lives?

Yet it shouldn't normally cost our lives if we can communicate well.

Where possible amidst wise spiritual discretion, Living for What We Believe In is a greater gift than Dying for What We Believe In.

Living for What We Believe In does not involve a quick escape hatch. It requires that we dwell in discomfort longer. It also offers greater opportunities to be of service, and potentially to experience the rewards of our service.

Souls – Outside-The-Box Support

When people request spiritual support for a better future within their paradigm of understanding such as through telepathy/prayer

It is crucial to recognize that Such Help Will Likely Arrive In A Different Form from that which is expected for a range of reasons.

- Difficult situations correlate with non-obvious solutions.
- Problematic paradigms, while highly-influential, are not well suited to deliver holistic solutions.
  - Protection racketeering.
  - Financial racketeering.
  - Cultural bigotry.
  - Conflation of spirituality with bigotry.
  - Cultural intimidation against integrity to personal conscience.
  - Symbology (institutional brands/bureaucracies/untraceable code) ahead of innate morality.
- Holistic reformation (and nature itself) do not contextually correlate with intense power pockets.
- If higher density beings were to adopt forms and conventions consistent with their full power, then such forms would likely draw excessive attention to aesthetics with their wisdom valued subordinately to adoration of their aesthetics, such that their presence would be falsely interpreted as endorsement of superficiality or with their wisdom neglected on the basis of superficial ostracization, such that mistreatment of them would be falsely interpreted as a basis for further bigotry.

- If higher density beings were to adopt forms and conventions consistent with [a specific spiritual belief system that involves exclusivity/bigotry toward others], then their presence would expectedly be cited as [validation of one form of bigotry over another] and would needlessly intensify conflict in this context.
- Respect for individual conscience involves persuasion rather than force.
- Exemplification (action) is a more love-integral, proof-integral lesson than theorization (language).
- Stable growth involves the integrity of voluntary evolution to the full depth of one's conscience, rather than hypocritical short-term imposition.
- Unnecessary precision (such as classifying groups of people by discrete country borders rather than relying upon the consciences of the individuals to ascertain moral resonance) lends itself to inorganic, thoughtless mobilization of broad populations into future conflicts. (Residents of Maine are not innately concerned with matters between Alaska and Siberia.)
- The process of teaching wisdom (the process of fishing) respects and advances free will and accommodates many more situations than [arbitrary fish meals].

Souls pass generally through a Veil of Forgetfulness upon incarnation, with their Spiritual Density remaining primarily just as Emotionally-Experienced Spiritual Intuitions.

An effective way for a federation to provide support to a distressed community seeking aid can be to encourage higher density souls to graciously go through the veil of forgetfulness and incarnate into the physical forms amidst the community in order to organically, progressively follow their intuitions and lovingly exemplify, inspire, and teach evolved values, with the net effect of helping to reform the culture.

All who adopt/exemplify/inspire/teach evolved values can have the same net effect regardless of whether they originally incarnated from higher spiritual densities.

This dynamic fosters community between souls and cultures.

Accuracy > Precision Heart > Mind Altruism > Intelligence

We are Not The Most Intelligent Species on Earth. We are Not The Most Altruistic Species on Earth.

We are The Most Dangerous Species on Earth in our Self-Centeredness and Disharmony with Nature.

> No Other Species On Gaia is known to:

Threaten the ecological wellbeing of the entire planet as a means of intimidating (subjugating the free will) of other members of its own species.

> Timidly acquiesce to as much readily-evident brainwashing, (as much opacity, misdirection, and reductionism) as many associated inefficiencies, and as much unnecessary suffering relative to its available capacity for intelligence, and capacity for better judgment, wisdom, and courage.

Souls – We Are On Extremely Thin Ice At Best.

While the sanctity of individual free will is always sacred, the sanctity of free will at larger scales is more sacred than the sanctity of free will at smaller scales.

As examples:

Good judgment would involve sacrificing a microbe if necessary in order to save a horse.

Good judgment would involve sacrificing one highly-problematic individual species if necessary in order to save a planet, her ecosystems, and balance of encompassed populations.

We would be wise not to press our luck continuing to cowardly and complacently reside in the false belief that Gaia and her residents are subordinate to us.

There is increasingly-intensifying and increasingly-immediate if not already absolutely-sufficient ethical justification for wiser, more altruistic, higher density souls (including that of Gaia herself) to be finished having patience with our extremely self-centered and epically-dangerous species and to attend to the wellbeing of the planet, her ecosystems, and the balance of her suffering populations.

If we can't muster the courage...

To adopt basic altruism of caring for the needy among our own species amidst available metaphysical abundance.

To hold integrity to our own independent consciences over widespread easily-provable brainwashing.

To attend to permanently-sustainable harmony with our fellow species consistently with the service of the more altruistic and more intelligent species already with us.

What ethical justification is there to keep us here?

Would you keep us here?

Accuracy > Precision Heart > Mind Altruism > Intelligence

Intelligence has Arbitrary Meaning & Arbitrary Necessity & No Innate Necessity amidst the Ultimately Spiritual Function of a Species

> If prioritized over altruism (as in our case), Intelligence is a Liability rather than asset.

Yet for species in harmony with nature (seemingly all except for us)
Intelligence is an Asset amidst the ultimately-spiritual function of a species, and can be expected to generally facilitate commensurate results.

Angelic-Telepathic-Physical Beings Are Already Here And Always Have Been

Angelic (Spiritually-Senior) Telepathic (Readily-Accessible) & Physical (Permanently Fully Present) beings already with us include:

Whales • Dolphins • Mer People • Elephants • Bonobos

And seemingly every species on Gaia with at least our brain mass, (not to exclude the possibility of vastly more such species and not to exclude higher density souls incarnate within populations of lower average spiritual density).

This is in addition to the higher density souls who are already incarnate, and are continuing to incarnate, as Earth humans in order to exemplify, inspire, and teach evolved values for the spiritual ascension of our culture.

Our Spiritual Ecosystem: All Are Equal In Value, And Diverse in Mechanisms.

Ultimately only love exists.

Quantum physics demonstrates that time and space are illusions. Its double-slit experiment demonstrates that mass is an illusion.

The remaining realities of consciousness, energy, and emotion condense to love.

INTEGRITY TO INDIVIDUAL CONSCIENCE IS SACRED.

It is the only way to exemplify virtue to the depth of the spiritual understanding of our being.

Because a Soul ideally can only be fully faithful to Its Own Conscience (Its Own Full Depth Of Spiritual Understanding),

All souls regardless of Spiritual Density are considered sacred.

Our Spiritual Ecosystem is Essential

- Lower-density souls can, ethically-to-conscience:
  - Demonstrate counterpoints to long-range ethics, constituting highly-valuable inspiration for the opposite rightminded passion and forward precision of higher-density souls.
  - Constitute highly-valuable first links in bridging to the paradigms of distressed cultures.
  - Ultimately constitute highly-fertile grounds for the benefits of spiritual ascension.
- Mid-density souls can, ethically-to-conscience:
  - Constitute highly-valuable midrange links between the ethical-to-conscience paradigms of lower- and higher-density souls, facilitating long-range harmony and ascension.
- Higher-density souls can, ethically-to-conscience:
  - Directly present highly-refined support and wisdom consistent with the ascension-based empowerment of all other souls.
- The diverse experiences, paradigms, character, emotions, and wisdom of an ecosystem of souls facilitates the successful spiritual ascension of their culture without local hazards of excessive ego.
- Every soul is the exclusive ethical-to-conscience commander of that soul's, and only that soul's, own destiny.

God is shorthand for Love. Love is shorthand for Courage.

courage.

Courage = Love in Action When It Matters Most

Higher-Density Souls (Angels) Strive to Exemplify Altruistic Courage

Higher-Density = Wiser = Angelic

- Strive: Souls of Any Density Can Recognize that Perfection Is Ideal.
  - Yet Amidst Imperfect Reality (Anything Short of Static Unity), Triage Is Needed. Triage Involves Integrity-to-Conscience in Achieving Satisfactory Optimization (Amidst Ongoing Ascension).
  - Free Will Involves The Capacity To Make, And To Forgive Oneself For, Mistakes.
  - Perfection, By Definition, Is Exclusive of Anything Else.
    - Perfection is a noun, not a verb.
    - Except relativistically, perfection cannot exist within a dynamic reality. Active consciousness itself constitutes a dynamic reality.
  - Love, By Definition, Is Inclusive of Everyone and Everything.
    - Love is a verb, moreso than a noun.
    - Unconditional Love = Love that is not self-limiting.

Love is the incomplete long-range process of ascending toward perfection.

Love is actively-courageous altruism that ultimately advances toward perfection

by prudently withstanding in-process imperfection.

- The jobs of lower density souls are to:
  - Be faithful to their own consciences.
  - Allow everyone to be faithful to their own consciences.
  - Most wisely spiritually ascend.
  - Avoid misunderstanding wisdom by hypocritically blaming higher-density beings for being further in the ascension process, while innately being imperfect.

Higher-Density Souls (Angels) Strive to Exemplify Altruistic Courage

Exemplify: Show > Tell Actions > Words Prove > Theorize Integrity > Hypocrisy

> While conceptual guidance can offer tentative direction, example proves it valid. Example Constitutes The Gift Of Integrity, Not A Claim of Perfection. Angels Are Not Obligated To Be Perfect.

Extreme nobility can be incorrectly interpreted as threatening to the spiritual stability of those whose paradigms have affinity for lower-density conventions, rather than active aspiration to achieve spiritual ascension.

Mid-Density Souls are correspondingly important in the roles of

- Being relatable to, and visionary to, lower-density souls, thus constituting spiritual guides for lower-density souls.
- Being explainers of higher-density souls, thus constituting protectors of higher-density souls.

Higher-Density Souls (Angels) Strive to Exemplify Altruistic Courage

Altruistic: Focusing Upon All > Focusing Upon Self

Wise altruism centers upon broad-based long-range focus.

Mid-Density Souls can again crucially help protect higher-density souls from incorrect interpretation as being insensitive to the narrower, short-range visions of lower-density souls.

Higher-Density Souls Serve As Long-Range, Visionary Coaches To But Not Short-Range Butlers Of Lower-Density Souls

Higher-Density Souls Are Visionaries Not Pushovers.

- In integrity-to-conscience, they can decide to be martyrs if appropriate.
- In integrity-to-conscience, they can decline to exercise metaphysical power.
- In integrity-to-conscience, they do make decisions that involve compromises.

If higher-density souls are not taken seriously amidst striving to be mentors, they are not likely to be vengeful (a lower-density attribute).

Yet the effect may be perceived by lower-density souls as quite similar, as there is likely already complete ethical justification to abandon aid to our extremely self-centered and destructive species and instead exercise triage in attending to the wellbeing of Gaia, her ecosystems, and her many other suffering populations.

Higher Density Souls Should Be Heeded Extremely Seriously This means being authentic with them, rather than formal/superficial.

Authenticity is Integrity | Formality is Often Hypocrisy

Higher-Density Souls (Angels) Strive to Exemplify Altruistic Courage

Courage:	Courage = Love In Action When It Matters Most.
	Courage = Confidence in Withstanding Imperfection While Moving Toward Perfection.
	Courage = Resilient Integrity to the Sanctity of Conscience.
	Courage = Sanctity for the Integrity of Allowing All To Be True to Their Consciences.
	Courage = Confidence That Truth Shines Brightest Amidst Scrutiny.
	Courage = Confidence That Love (Helping) Wins Without Subjugating (Hypocrisy).

Courage = Sanctity for the Integrity of Allowing All To Be True to Their Consciences. Courage = Confidence That Love (Helping) Wins Without Subjugating (Hypocrisy).

Virtue • Priority • Concept • Feeling • Emotion • Sentiment • Practice • Exercise • Experience

Love • Compassion • Altruism • Generosity Rightmindedness • Integrity to Conscience • Bravery • Courage

> A better word for God is Love. A better word for Love is Courage.

Love is innately the singular substance comprising all of reality.

Courage is love in action when it matters most.

Courage is most evident in its intrinsic form: Resilient Integrity to the Sanctity of Conscience

Context is Everything. The Truest (Broadest) Context Is That In Which Only Pure Love Exists.

Expression is subordinate to meaning.

Language is only ever true within a limited context. Contexts are ultimately individually interpreted through the discretion of the heart.

> The context of language is especially blurry in regard to the broadest and most important concepts, such as that of love.

When well past the blurry boundaries of context, the correlation between symbolism and intent innately changes and inverts.

The blurry boundaries are the prime zones of misunderstanding.

Communication is only ever applicable amidst a culture.

Emotions are closest to true meanings. All emotions ultimately condense to Love.

Quantum physics demonstrates that time and space are illusions. Its double-slit experiment demonstrates that mass is an illusion.

> The remaining realities of consciousness, energy, and emotion condense to love.

> > Ultimately Only Love Exists

Love = Happiness Associated With Expanded Trust. Courage = Love in Action When It Matters Most.

Discernment Determines the Context of Acceptable Influence Of One Soul Upon Another.

- Perfection, By Definition, Is Exclusive of Anything Else.
   Perfection is a noun, not a verb.
  - Except relativistically, perfection cannot exist within a dynamic reality.
     Active consciousness itself constitutes a dynamic reality.
- Love, By Definition, Is Inclusive of Everyone and Everything.
  - Love is a verb, moreso than a noun.
  - Unconditional Love = Love that is not self-limiting.

Love is the incomplete long-range process of ascending toward perfection.

Love is actively-courageous altruism that ultimately advances toward perfection by prudently withstanding in-process imperfection.

The context of acceptable influence of one soul upon another innately involves discernment.

- If No Influence Were Appropriate: The Universe would not be comprised of multiple souls.
- If Total Influence Were Appropriate: Such control would violate the sanctity of conscience. (Integrity to individual conscience is the only way that a soul can exemplify virtue to the full depth of its spiritual understanding.)

So Some Level of Influence Between Souls Is Appropriate

Discernment Determines the Threshold of Rare, Peripheral Acceptable Occasions for Profoundly Impacting the Free Will of Another Soul.

While the sanctity of individual free will is always sacred, the sanctity of free will at larger scales is more sacred than the sanctity of free will at smaller scales.

The threshold of rare, peripheral acceptable conditions for one soul to profoundly impact the free will of another soul (in a manner that may be perceived by the impacted soul as adverse) innately involves discernment.

- If No Threshold Were Appropriate: Reality would collapse into a contest of martyrdom.
  - Good judgment would involve sacrificing a microbe if necessary in order to save a horse.
  - If there were no tolerance for the (scale-affiliated) triage necessitated by the imperfections innate to a dynamic reality, then consciousness (including all souls, whether in forms of life or matter) would refuse to exist. Yet we reside within a conscious reality.
- If Innate Acceptability Were Appropriate: Such control would violate the sanctity of conscience. (Integrity to individual conscience is the only way that a soul can exemplify virtue to the full depth of its spiritual understanding.)

In regard to the subject of martyrdom:

Life is the process of most slowly and wisely dying.

As We Wisely, Courageously, Compassionately Love Angels, We Ascend Our Capabilities of Becoming Angels Ourselves.

Everything happening around us is ultimately taking place with at least the tacit approval of angels (higher-density souls).

Within a limited- and correspondingly deceptive and false- context, angels could be blamed for everything that we dislike.

This Would Be Unfair To The Angels.

- The existence of higher-density souls is an innate attribute of the Universe, not a liability of higher-density souls.
- Higher-density souls more intensely understand our suffering than we do. With clearer access to the big picture, it is tolerated only to allow greater long-range good.
- Souls exist can simultaneously within multiple timelines, bodies, and densities. The higher-density version of our own soul (which clear, spiritual concentration can help access), has consented to the situations in which we locally find ourselves.

The present reality can be conceptualized as a highly-convincing simulation machine:

- Which we consented to enter.
- Which deprives us of most of our capabilities of recognizing it as a simulator until we voluntarily exercise the attention and open-mindedness to discern that truth. In other words, the simulator serves to facilitate genuine/experiential spiritual ascension.
- Which is being operated according to our consent as exercised [within and beyond] [time and space] by ourselves in collaboration with other souls of our choosing.
- Which facilitates the attainment of our higher-density self which already exists beyond the local illusion of unidirectional causation, known as time.
   In the truest (broadest) context, there are never net negativities, only varying gradations to the realization of net good.
   There is likewise no such thing as punishment, only ultimately higher-dimensionally consensual experiences that ultimately constitute coaching toward the realization of net good.
- We advance in spiritual ascension, becoming more like higher-density beings, as we wisely, courageously, compassionately, and lovingly appreciate what they are doing.
- By freely intending to align ourselves with the highest rightminded wisdom of higher-density beings (of which the specifics of "highest rightminded wisdom" can be deferred to our higher self), we can constitute examples for fellow-density souls of how spiritual ascension is possible.

We Can Intuit A Path Into The Next Octave of Spiritual Density, Facilitated Amidst Wisdom.

Love = Happiness associated with expanded trust.

We can intuitively extrapolate from the character of love that the ascension process afforded by the present reality is ultimately not merely an idle exercise of confining our capacity to eventually arrive back at the starting point of our higher-density self but an avenue of exemplifying trust which may be- but not necessarily will be-(hence the definition of trust) rewarded with commensurate happiness ultimately by graduation into the next octave of spiritual density.

In the interim:

Wisdom involves prudently offering at least tacit consent of suboptimal limited-range circumstances as appropriate > in the process of honestly striving

To Maximize Our Opportunity Of Fully Navigating Our Impact To Net Positive

And Exponentially Extending It To Deliver THE GREATEST, MOST-COMPREHENSIVE NET GOOD POSSIBLE THROUGH OUR EXISTENCE

This is not an excuse for unjustifiable cowardice or procrastination.

Rather, it is the path by which we courageously implement triage with the wisest ethical focus upon Successfully Ultimately Delivering The Greatest Net Good.

Spiritual Ascension is About Delivering Wise Altruistic Support, Rather Than About The Resulting State of External Reality.

Reality is a composite of souls, each with rightful jurisdiction over only their own consciences.

Interaction with external reality is the process of voluntarily teaching and learning spiritual evolution.

Because only mutually-voluntary/free/true engagement with external reality is ethical, the state of external reality is not a proper measure of a soul's conscience evolution and its corresponding advancement in enabling love to expand.

> The proper measures of a soul's advancement in enabling love to expand (the soul's spiritual evolution)

> > are

Its Allegiance To Conscience

(The Foundation)

and

Its Advancement Of Conscience

(The Extension).

We are always exemplifying our values. We Are Singularly Ourselves.

If we focus upon How We Are Performing, then we are exemplifying Integrity.

If we Instead Non-Supportively focus upon How We Think Others Are Performing, then we are exemplifying Hypocrisy.

The measure of How We Are Performing is Our Altruism in Supportively Focusing Upon Others.

Satisfaction Between Practice and Conscience Is Directly Favorable To Spiritual Ascension.

We are always exemplifying the integrity of who we are. We Are Singularly Ourselves.

- When we feel Satisfaction in the Observed Consistency between our Practice and our Conscience, Our Practice and Conscience Are Aligned.
- When we feel Dissatisfaction in the Observed Inconsistency between our Practice and our Conscience, Our Conscience Has Evolved Beyond Its State During Our Compared Practice.

Emotions are realer than Time, Space, and Matter.

Satisfaction Surrounds Practice-Conscience Consistency.

- Fortification of Practice-Conscience Alignment is encouraged.
- Emotional proximity to the Broad (All>Self) Definition of Love constitutes a Safe Haven that can readily facilitate Mutual Ascension of Practice and Conscience.
- Yet If We Nonetheless Venture toward a Service-to-Self over Service-to-Others paradigm, Tolerance for Stalled Conscience Ascension may develop.

Dissatisfaction Surrounds Practice-Conscience Inconsistency.

- Attainment of Practice-Conscience Alignment is encouraged. either through Ascension of Practice or Descension of Conscience.
- Yet emotional proximity to the Narrow (Self>All) Definition of Love constitutes Discomfort amidst the Ascension of Practice vs. Descension of Conscience Decision Point.
- If Discomfort Rather Fluidly Moves Us toward a Service-to-Self over Service-to-Others paradigm, Tolerance for Conscience Descension may develop.

Satisfaction is More Directly Favorable to Spiritual Ascension Through Its In-Process Proximity to the Broad (All>Self) Definition of Love.

> As only love exists, the worst-case scenario of a soul's success is ultimately merely a less immediately-extended expansion of love.

The Brainwashing To Which We Have Been Exposed Is A Challenge Rather Than An Excuse.

The Mind innately operates within the sandbox of The Heart.

The Heart Is Only Responsible To

Conscience

(Its Own Deepest Spiritual Integrity)

in regard to

Contextually Requesting The Support Service of the Mind

(Whether, When, Within What Scope, To What Depth, And For What Duration To Call Upon The Mind)

and

Contextualizing Evaluating The Support Service of the Mind

(Ascertaining Whether Or Not The Mind Has Performed Consistently

With The Analysis Scope, Depth, and Duration of the Request Submitted by the Heart)

Theoretically Complete Brainwashing would not absolve

The Contextual Responsibility of Our Heart

There also would not be perceptive context through which to

- Ascertain whether theoretically complete brainwashing were operative in the first place.
- Constitute ethical responsibility in regard to inconsistency between thoughts and external reality.

Consistently with time, space, and matter being ultimately illusory,

Mental Action Is

Subordinate and Potentially Entirely Arbitrary

Relative to the Process By Which The Love Comprising a Soul Expands Itself.

Love = Happiness Associated With Expanded Trust. Only Love Exists. All "Else" Is Ultimately Illusory.

Comparably to Loving A Song while Opposing The Lyrics The Heart Frames The Dominion Of The Mind.

From the paradigm of our own conscience (our own solitary and exclusive jurisdiction): Brainwashing is a challenge presented to our heart, rather than an excuse.

The paradigms of others' consciences are sacredly their own solitary and exclusive jurisdictions, rather than ours.

Spiritual dimensionality involves continuously-splitting timelines.

Correspondingly: Additional instances of our ourselves and everyone else reside within many other timelines.

Correspondingly:

Our external reality is distinctive to ourself. It is a gift of love graciously projected from a state of higher spiritual density.

Through potentially octaves of spiritual densities of Source (Perfect Love) from the paradigm of reason as we understand it:

The Character of Love (Caring) requires Unity in Altruism. The Integrity of Love (Trust) requires Diversity in Autonomy. (Stationary genuine altruistic perfection requires contextual diversity in autonomy.)

Altruism affiliates with Equality of Value among ultimately-indivisible constituents. Automony affiliates with Diversity of Mechanisms among ultimately-indivisible constituents.

> We can simply look into the night sky and see that the Universe is comprised of order instead of chaos, peace instead of war.

It is natural to align ourself with the conventions that work best.

Unconditional Love Is The Glue That Binds The Universe

So we should align.

Feeling the most love, we are inspired to give the most love- amplifying the effect.

Love always wins in the long run, illustrated amidst the sustenance of orderly reality.

A Service-to-All (Wide Band) path of ascension from the third to sixth spiritual density Offers More Harmonious Momentum with the Broadest Reality than does the Service-to-Self (Narrow Band) Path.

The Purpose of Our External Reality Is To Advance Our Own Spiritual Ascension In Wise Altruism.

Every reality that can exist within this octave of spiritual densities does already, within a context, exist.

The conditions of other octaves of spiritual densities (other Universes), indicate that further realities exist.

This is consistent with the innately-expansive nature of love.

The external reality in which we find ourself serves to support our individual spiritual ascension in wise altruism, rather than to exemplify objectivity.

Wise and loving cooperation with this purpose advances our spiritual ascension.

Why > How Purpose > Mechanics

Spiritual Ascension > Exemplification of Objectivity

Successful spiritual ascension in wise altruism can be expected to help perpetuate this learning process, but can be expected only to constitute perceived improvements of external reality amidst contexts that prudently motivate our spiritual ascension progression.

Our Job Is To Cooperate In Learning Wise Altruism.

Our distinctive external reality serves to support our spiritual ascension in wise altruism.

Interaction with Lower Density Beings offers us opportunities to Reward Their Trust by Ultimately Further Teaching Wise Altruism.

Interaction with Higher Density Beings offers us opportunities to Invest Our Trust by Ultimately Further Learning Wise Altruism.

Love = Happiness Associated With Expanded Trust.

Interaction with Lower Density Beings offers us opportunities to Reward Expanded Trust in Ultimately Delivering Greater Happiness amidst the Existing Maturity to experience the expanded happiness Vicariously.

Interaction with Higher Density Beings

offers us opportunities to Invest Expanded Trust in Ultimately Experiencing Greater Happiness

amidst the Emerging Maturity to experience the expanded happiness Directly.

Wise Altruism Is Learned By Collaborating With Higher Density Beings.

Our distinctive external reality serves to support our spiritual ascension in wise altruism, rather than to exemplify an objective situation that is disconnected from our own spiritual journey.

Similarly to our engagement with lower density beings:

Higher density beings in addressing us are not obligated to exercise their metaphysical capabilities in an idle manner that is immediately consistent with our impressions of their allegiance to their own best wisdom/conscience.

As with us and our own wisdom/conscience:

Adherence to their own best wisdom/conscience is their own solitary and exclusive jurisdiction.

They can decline opportunities, such as amidst accommodation of greater long-range good.

- A chronology of routine engagements may involve degradation of the spiritual-inspiration-per-engagement, relative to more prudently-selected engagement choices.
- Triage is an innate aspect of navigating a dynamic reality.

What appear to be broad failures from our restricted paradigm, may ultimately be great gifts (upon our recognition), as by demonstrating (in what are ultimately spiritually-consensual and limited ways) samplings of more dramatic futures that are imminently avoidable by voluntarily reflecting upon the trajectory of our wisdom/conscienceand by spiritually evolving/ascending.

As true love ultimately binds reality,

action that we consider to be spiritually adverse in the short run, innately has the tacit approval of, and containment by, love within the broadest contextamidst compassion-deeper-than-ours in understanding what we are experiencing.

Successful enterprises, including [teaching and coaching] that subjects may dislike in the short run, are affiliated with methodical vision rather than raging lunacy.

Yet regardless of the frame-of-reference or aptitude of the teacher/coach, we are always safe relative to the ultimate context.

Lessons Involve Wisdom That We Do Not Yet Possess. Accumulation of Greater Wisdom Requires Openness.

Ethics are not about folding to external pressure that runs counter to our conscience.

This would be withdrawal from our soul's responsibility. This would be overextension of another soul's responsibility.

Lessons Involve Wisdom That We Do Not Yet Possess. Accumulation of Greater Wisdom Requires Openness.

Courage for Good – Peace rather than Courage for Evil – War

Particularly from the onset of modern nuclear war (1945)

until the beginning of a reluctantly-signed 50-year treaty (August 1971 - August 2021) that imposed restrictions upon engagement with the spirit world,

Distinctive Peacemaking Guidance Was Telepathically Projected To Our Culture (in the form of insights, songs, intuitions, and support for courage) condensing specifically to the axiom

Make LOVE Not WAR

Be GOOD Not BAD

Be COURAGEOUS in INTIMACY Not COURAGEOUS in ATROCITY

Love is ubiquitous across the Universe. It holds the Universe together. The Universe is not ashamed of sex. War, as with the ticking doomsday clock on this tiny little planet, is obviously the opposite of standard practice.

INTEGRITY TO INDIVIDUAL CONSCIENCE IS SACRED.

It is the only way for a soul to exemplify virtue to the full depth of the soul's evolving spiritual understanding.

A Soul's Conscience is the Solitary and Exclusive Jurisdiction of that Soul.

Solitary Jurisdiction

We have No Ethical Standing To Pressure a Nonconsensual Disparity Between Another Soul and Their Conscience

Exclusive Jurisdiction

Other Souls have No Ethical Standing To Pressure a Nonconsensual Disparity Between Our Soul and Our Conscience

Though a soul technically innately reflects its conscience (with the soul's ethical satisfaction arising from alignment between or its ethical dissatisfaction arising from misalignment between prior actions and the current state of the soul's conscience),

The Matter At Hand Can Also Be Appropriately Described As

The Sacrosanct Serenity Between Every Soul And Its Own Conscience

Which Constitutes The Basis Of How A Soul Maintains Its Integrity

Overextension Becomes Self-Confinement.

If a soul overextends itself (nonconsensually involves itself) into the sacrosanct relationship between another soul and that soul's conscience:

- The intruder is presuming to know the relationship between the other soul and the other souls' conscience better than that other soul and that other conscience themselves.
- The intruder is imposing an unnecessary model (with innate modeling error).
- The intruder is operating amidst inferior knowledge.
- The intruder is taking on more liability than can ultimately be managed, while also withdrawing available resources from the responsibility of its own spiritual ascension.
- The intruder is cultivating friction against its own trajectory by constituting and motivating an ethical basis for the victimized soul to resist and eliminate the intrusion.

(Arriving souls choose their parents prior to incarnation, constituting consent of early nurturing.)

An Abusive Relationship is a Microcosm of this dynamic.

Projection of blame, instead of internal harmonization between behavior and conscience.

The result can justifiably be:

- 1. The termination of the relationship, from the standpoint of privileged intimacy.
- 2. A difficult transition for the abuser upon facing their postponed internal responsibility.
- 3. An additional difficult issue for the abuser in facing the cumulative responsibility of their unjustly-projected blame.

Colonialism is a Macrocosm of this dynamic.

Imposition of artificial social systems (protection racketeering introduced under threats of death and destitution), artificially-restrictive beliefs (scarcity rather than ubiquitous natural metaphysical harmony), artificial engagement conventions (curation amidst scarcity through false fiat debt), and artificial stigmatisms (intolerance for innate bodily liberty, and acceptance of subordinate treatment of women).

Even Within Ideal Theory (of which practice is vastly short) Democracy- Institutionalized Subjugation of the Minority by the Majority- Constitutes Colonialism.

The solution is reharmonization with the timeless wisdom of indigenous cultures.

Overextension Becomes Self-Confinement.

Overextension of a soul constitutes self-confinement.

In the context of time being an abstraction, Overextension of a soul is self-confinement.

When a child plays, imagining that they are collaborating with all of the citizens of a community, the stories are fun and adventurous (as the child harmonizes with the recent pre-incarnate soul experience of honoring the liberty of all).

Yet upon the child later adopting the paradigm that they are really the only one in charge of the community, the experience seizes up, because the venue of love (Love = Happiness Associated With Expanded Trust) is lost.

Perfect Attainment of Technical Control

= Perfect Loss of Spiritual Control

= Perfect Immobilization of the Venue for Love To Perpetuate

(Love = Happiness Associated With Expanded Trust)

Perfect greed would fully terminate the dynamic reality of the Universe.

Active consciousness is a dynamic reality.

Termination of the dynamic reality of the Universe, would terminate active consciousness.

(This intuits an external octave of altruism sparking the initial dynamicism of Source into functional illusion, amidst Source-contextualized time.)

The consciousness comprising the Universe innately operates fundamentally as altruism.

Rare, peripheral justifications for profoundly impacting the free will of another soul (such as sacrificing a microbe if necessary in order to save a horse), constitute early prevention of what- at its theoretical extreme- is an ultimately stationary/valueless reality.

Souls Are Sacred Jurisdictions of Free Will.

Soul = A Sacred Jurisdiction of Free Will, Consistent With The Reality of Love.

Love = Happiness Associated With Expanded Trust

When beings operate consistently with the free will jurisdictions of one another's souls, Harmony is Perpetually Sustainable

If a being aspires to dominate over the free will jurisdictions of other souls....

The Overextended Being

Ultimately Divides Reality Such That It Is O U T N U M B E R E D By the Legitimate Grievances of the Other Souls

The overextended soul paints itself into a corner, as a result of its own decisions.

We Are Love. Our Role Is To Continue Being Love.

The question is not how to dominate over the other souls.

The adventure is exploring the lovingness that is facilitating our individual external reality.

While we should ever aspire to rightmindedly climb higher up the infinite ladder of spiritual ascension...

We want to appropriately do so wisely, steadily, rung-by-rung, as to sequentially master the encompassed lessons, and minimize the risk of falling.

Yet as only love exists, the worst-case scenario of a soul's success is ultimately a less immediately-extended expansion of love.

> Even if this lifetime is entered with, executed with, and exited with, net clean conscience...

Our existence intuits

A PURPOSE

if even just to play a game with the lovingness on the other side of the veil.

Only Love Ultimately Exists.

We Are Love. Our Role Is To Continue Being Love. We can simply look into the night sky and see that the Universe is comprised of order instead of chaos, peace instead of war.

Only Love Ultimately Exists.

What may contextually seem otherwise is always curated within what we can conceptualize as a containment perimeter of at least tacit rightmindedness.

Even if, in the most extreme situation, that containment perimeter is the one curating the infinite entirety of everything.

Rightmindedness Containment Perimeter of Everything

Rightmindedness within a Love-of-All Polarization constitutes local protection.

- Those of a Love-of-All polarization are Correspondingly Attracted.
- Those of a Love-of-Self polarization, yet seeking a Love-of-All polarization, are Correspondingly Attracted, and experience migration of their polarization toward Love-of-All.
- Those of a Love-of-Self polarization, and seeking to stay that way, are Correspondingly Repelled, by the risk of their polarization migrating toward Love-of-All.

Courage = The Hardest Path in the Short Run Courage = The Easiest Path in the Long Run Courage = Service for All > Self. Complacency = Service for Self > All.

Courage Can be Uncomfortable. Yet Complacency is Indefensibly Uncomfortable.

If Courage is Clean and Complacency is Dirty, then it is healthy for conversations to often involve A Measure of Constructive Discomfort to best advance the knowledge base of shared wisdom.

Masturbation is the most elementary and innately-accessible form of orgasm.

It is a safe, natural, and extremely-widely practiced sexual healthcare. And has endured extreme historic stigmatism. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Masturbation

Colonialism is an Abusive Relationship.

- Protection Racketeering is introduced under threats of death and destitution.
- Artificial Scarcity is taught as the basis of unnecessary replacement of cultural beliefs and systems.
- Constriction-Based Values are instilled based upon state-contaminated accounts of the metaphysical.
- Cultural Pressures are fostered to ostracize those who, true to conscience, resist the imposed conventions.

Even Within Ideal Theory

(of which practice is vastly short)

Democracy- Institutionalized Subjugation of the Minority by the Majority- Constitutes Colonialism.

Sex Magic is the inclusion of Sexuality The Most Intimate Aspect of our Physical Self within Metaphysical Service.

(via statehood/law as feasible, instillation of contaminated doctrines, and intense social conditioning) strives to block us- to the extent practically possible- from escaping its sandbox of artificial control. While a soul of a given spiritual density is not required to reside within a specific form,

- BIGOTRY TOWARD METAPHYSICAL BEINGS -

Contention

They definitely aren't real! But if they are, they're definitely a big threat!

Pending Admission

As heliocentrism has been disproven, we're clearly not the center of the Universe. We're clearly not alone.

Quantum physics illustrates that time, space, and matter are illusory.

Metaphysical experiences amidst hypnosis, chemical induction, isolation induction, synchronistic interaction, and spiritual venues are too numerous to count.

Indigenous cultures have longstanding awareness of and relationships with the spirit world.

The most airtight whistleblower case establishes that the spirit world is real. PhD channeling of spirit beings demonstrates the consistency and altruism of the spirit world.

> Lots of people have had encounters with spirit beings. We are ourselves ultimately spirit beings.

We're obviously not the most intelligent nor most altruistic beings on Gaia. Our selfish subjugation of vast numbers of other souls is obviously a concern.

If higher realms wanted us to be destroyed, they would be well justified in proceeding, considering the scale of our destruction. And all they'd need to do to refuse our requests for their help, as we continue to destroy ourselves.

> But if we've finally matured to a collective point of courageously claiming our own responsibilities regarding holistic reality, of engaging from a spiritual rather than superficial standpointthen the greatest homecoming is imminent!

> > Everyone knows that!

Obvious Omissions Amidst Popularly-Trusted Information Sources

Deception Can Be

Easier As Omission

Not Telling The Truth | Implicit Lying

Than As Commission

Telling A Lie | Explicit Lying

Deception Can Be Easiest of All Amidst Complacent Disregard For Prudent Validation

Available Mechanisms in Censoring Popularly-Trusted Information Sources

- Illegitimate requests to avoid/discredit metaphysics in service to "national security".
- Illegitimate financial leverage associated with false fiat debt.
- Illegitimate leverage based upon culturally-indoctrinated embarrassment potential.
- Illegitimate threats of liability amidst irrationally-convoluted legal tripwires.

The Most Obvious Omissions Amidst Popularly-Trusted Information Sources

Absent coverage of the metaphysical space:

- Commensurately with the widespread popularity of spiritual beliefs.
- Commensurately with the logic by which metaphysics rationally frames the balance of reality.

Absent implementation of an optimized framework for altruism, which is a more crucially-framing matter than intelligence.

Even within just the realm of Earth human lives, a functional premise of equality should rationally be in place such that matters which crucially affect many (such as extreme poverty) dominate public consciousness relative to entertainment (such as fast food industry news).

A paradigm commensurately aligned to the importance of altruism, would constitute a stepping stone for passionate activism toward the most crucial, permanent solutions- those involving metaphysical acumen. A limited, manageable number of popular sources form the perimeter of what is popularly-considered credible.

Communication that is self-censored to stay within the perimeter constitutes an amplifying echo effect-Until Individuals Own Their Innate Responsibility For Validating Integrity to the Full Depths of Their Own Consciences.

How To Escape The Echo Chamber

Courage And Independence Are Essential.

Escape Path by Logic

This is The Less-Intrinsic Path, as logic is an arbitrary gift of love.

Yet it is The Easier Path from the standpoint of yielding the truth merely from a mental paradigm, prior to the mind presenting its analysis results for the innate contextualization and final judgment of the heart.

Escape Path by Love

This is More-Intrinsic Path, again as logic is an arbitrary gift of love.

Yet it is The Harder Path from the standpoint that feelings can lack the precision of logic.

Both paths necessitate that the entirety of the box be considered that a holistic paradigm be implemented - rather than that just a portion of the interior of the box being reviewed.

Individual portions of the interior of the box are not innately reflective of the situation, and are liable to be considered nonproblematic based upon the inertia of unchecked consensus.

How To Escape The Echo Chamber

Escape Path by Love

This is comparable to the Intuition Reliance Paradigm of the parent of a newborn.

Yet it requires extension of love beyond a limited paradigm

(such as questioning whether we are truly doing our best for those who are in greatest need and most deserve it, rather than constraining our paradigm to avoid the short-term inconvenience of exercising our courage).

 Means
 The Willingness
 In The Absence of External Limits
 To Fully Sexually Give Of Oneself To All Others

If SEXUAL integrity means giving entirety of oneself to others, then what is the emotionally-resonant ethic affiliated with monogamy?

The answer concerns the SOUL.

– Soulful Monogamy – Means Most Preciously Valuing Another Soul Within A Context

Soulful monogamy can be simultaneously delivered to ALL souls.

The Ultimate Context of Soulful Monogamy is that of Honoring The Other Soul's Faithfulness To The Sacrosanct Solitary-And-Exclusive Jurisdiction Of Their Own Conscience

Only Unconditional Love Ultimately Exists.

We Are Bodies Rather Than Names.

If we peel away the artificialities, and return to seeing ourselves as naked bodies back in nature, It Becomes Clear That No Source But Our Own Conscience Has Rightful Jurisdiction Over Our Freedom.

(And, even then, we innately cannot but [follow our conscience]/[choose on the basis of our choice].)

We do not need a "Bill of Rights". Our existence is certification that we belong. To be happy and complete, we merely need to be in harmony with our conscience, which ultimately strives toward the best Altruism = Unconditional Love.

Culture Is Real. Dominant Institutions Have Obliterated Their Credibility.

With cultural understanding having evolved to the point that masturbation is recognized as a widespread, healthy practice, It would be irresponsible and imprudent to indefensibly avoid safe (particularly contactless) venues/opportunities for interpersonal intimacy that advances the deepest possible cultural trust.

https://bit.ly/3n3x4YO

Obviously, institutions with centuries and millennia to research this matter and justify their purported positions of "cultural leadership" have categorically failed to do so, and obliterated their credibility.

This includes dominant governments and religious institutions.

Any source but oneself is a model with associated contextual error, that compounds amidst deferred reliance.

The exception is that higher density beings have privileges commensurate with the informed wise altruism that they have previously mastered.

If we are looking for external mentorship, the best place to turn is toward higher density beings.

If we are looking to demonstrate our prospects as students of wise altruism, every moment of our life- especially amidst those in greatest need- is our opportunity.

Culture is Innately Authentic to the extent that it supports individual freedom to align with the full depth of one's conscience.

The Most Authentic Cultures Are Those Which Do This Best.

Models are inherent approximations.

The only way to be truly authentic is to support free alignment with conscience. This is consistent with our sacrosanct delineations as souls.

Your Sacrosanct Sexual Rights

Include Every Conceivable Consensual Right

mere examples of which include

- Your Right To Be As Completely Sexually Generous As You Desire- Without Any Adverse Pressure.
- Your Right To Be As Completely Sexually Unsharing As You Desire- Without Any Adverse Pressure.
- Your Right To Exercise Any Of Your Sexual Rights Without Any Adverse Pressure.
- Your Right To Wear As Little or As Much You Want.
- Your Right To Appear However You Choose.
- Your Right To Revise Your Appearance However You Choose.
- Your Right To Care About Your Appearance To The Extent That You Choose.
- Your Right To Be Consensually Loved Regardless Of Your Appearance. (Courage alone is innately sexy.)
- Your Right To Be Proud of Your Body.
- Your Right To Verbally Ask If [Someone To Whom You Are Attracted] Is Interested in Flirting With You.
- Your Right To Accept or Decline a Request To Flirt.
- Your Right To Become Pregnant.
- Your Right To Not Become Pregnant.
- Your Right To End Your Pregnancy, If Consistent With Your Conscience. (Nature has placed you in the guardianship of the intimate decision about what is happening in your body.)
- Your Right To Be Naked, If You Choose.
- Your Right To Masturbate, If You Choose.
- Your Right To Have 1-on-1 Sex, If You Choose.
- Your Right To Have Small or Large Group Sex, If You Choose.
- Your Right To Be Intimate Without Having Sex, If You Choose.
- Your Right To Be Sexual In Public, With Precedents Across the Span of Nature. (Suppression of integrity to conscience is innately unethical.)
- Your Right To Be Protected from Sexually-Transmitted Diseases.
- Your Right To Your Gender Preferences.
- Your Right To Your Sexual Expression Preferences.
- Your Right To Communicate Your Turn-Ons and Turn-Offs.
- Your Right To Commercialize Your Sexuality.
  - (Though the advancement of general trust may very well yield the best results in the long run.)

As Previously Discussed:

The Concept of Government

Weaponized Enforcement in Addition to Cultural Pressure Of The Majority's Will Against A Soul's Integrity To Its Own Conscience is not ethically justified. Dynamic of Conscience Suppression

- Power Overextends its jurisdiction.
- Power Mismanages where it doesn't belong.
- Power Has to Retract back to its rightful jurisdiction.

This is really just common sense, which hopefully resonates with the intuitions in the back of your mind.

Intimacy Prevents Atrocity. Courage Subdues Cowardice.  If you are uncomfortable that someone else is being faithful to their conscience, the problem has nothing to do with them, but is instead about your own bigotry.

This civilization is great at protecting its own local families, but at the expense of drawing division lines that antagonize everyone else: Across Society Across The World Across The Universe

For our species to survive for an appreciable length of time longer: We must mature beyond this shortsightedly-convenient duality, and each be faithful to our individual responsibilities for the good of everyone.

EVERYONE

IS FAMILY

The importance of INTIMACY in preventing ATROCITY is being projected LOUD AND CLEAR.

> The term "Rock and Roll" means "having sex". https://case.edu/ech/articles/r/rock-n-roll

John Lennon's "Imagine", broadcast from Times Square to an audience of a billion people each year, has three orgasms amidst its lyrics. (After the words "today", "peace", and "world".)

The Beatles' song "Revolution" is true to its name. (If you don't hear the orgasm within that song, the volume isn't on.)

> The time for a better world is now. The opportunity is yours.

How To Stand Up For Yourself

Life is the process of slowly dying for what we believe in.

Obviously, it is your own right to decide what you want to die for.

When Someone Says "Do What I Say", What They Mean Is:

"Being true to my own conscience [including its sacrosanct jurisdiction, each soul to itself] isn't enough for me. I don't have the courage for it.

> So instead of exemplifying the solution to this internal problem, I am going to hypocritically blame you for it."

As being demanding (asking someone to be blind to their own conscience, and instead focus on yours) is not ethically justified, they are attesting to being victimized by a prior demand placed upon themselves.

Regardless of the nature of the demand under which they are suffering:

Its Solution Is Courage

If you exemplify the courage to refuse their request:

You are ultimately delivering what they are requesting in constituting an example of a culture of courage, upon which they can build.

Especially if you explain what you are doing:

• That you do not feel that it is right to violate your conscience (to live for/slowly die for values that you don't believe in).

• That courage in faithfulness to one's own conscience is a sacred virtue.

• That courage in being faithful to one's own conscience is becoming increasingly popular, and that they can exercise it as well.

We do not have to be stool pigeons with telemarketers, petitioners, fanatics, the Milgram experiment, or world disharmony. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Milgram_experiment

We do not have to fold like a house of cards for no damn reason but our own cowardice.

We can grow up.

We can decide that:

If we are courageous enough to push others around, we should instead be pushing ourselves.

Blindly Demanding Is Wrong. Blindly Obeying Is Wrong.

Each Soul's Conscience Is That Soul's Exclusive And Solitary Jurisdiction.

Ethical Engagement is about Supportive Availability rather than Restrictive Imposition.

How To Wisely Use Our Power: Giving Our Best To Make World Peace Sexier Than Intercourse

Within Context, We Can Broadly Define "Orgasm" as "The Completeness of Wise Altruism"

While there is no reason to be needlessly inhibited with our sexual power, there is also no need to absorb unnecessary risk with physical contact.

Trust Amidst Vulnerability is what makes sex exciting.

Physicality is peripheral. Physicality ultimately doesn't exist.

A mutual smile amidst shared understanding can clearly constitute a couple "turning their keys" of trust amidst vulnerability.

Physical follow-up is hardly necessary if both already trust each other.

And by not exercising physical contact, they can continue "turning their keys" to continue consensually fostering Trust Amidst Vulnerability as far and wide as possible without risks of disease or pregnancy, and can effectively advance a culture of wise altruism and lasting harmony.

As the sense of vulnerability fades upon building trust, the excitement between partners gradually diminishes, as nature's way of nudging that Trust Amidst Vulnerability can be most readily fostered through different partnerships.

Nature did not ask us to limit ourselves to lifelong contracts, and design the terms of our deaths in advance. It is requesting that we do OUR VERY BEST while we are alive, which includes learning new things.

Nature is also asking us not to obsess over sex.

Yet as long as we keep widespread sex off limits, widespread sex will remain the most influential frontier

These are orgasms.

They are precious.

Don't ever be ashamed of them.

They are you at the deepest truth of who you are.

– Pure Love ———

You are an Orgasm, not an Algorithm. You are a Soul, not a Robot.

An open heart is never a threat. An open heart is never inappropriate.

In the context at hand:

Sex is different. Sex is required to be physical. Sex is required to be mutual.

Sex can orgasm too. But sex is merely one specific mode of orgasming.

Sharing/Offering is a Virtue. Hoarding/Hostaging is its Shadow.

If there weren't enough for everyone, reality would be asking us to be martyrs.

Yet once you're truly willing to be a martyr, then you've learned the lesson and it is the nature of reality is not to waste your time teaching you things that you already know.

The next lesson is to engage the metaphysical space, through which abundant material and energy are available.

If We Just Follow The Sacrosanct Jurisdiction Of The Wise Altruism Comprising Our Own Conscience Then Everything Will Work Out As It Should

It's easy to imagine a world in which hostaging/rent for essential goods and services and for any goods and services no longer exists.

When we stop asking for rent, we will stop being asked for rent.

And then we can purely follow our hearts and be ourselves, which is who we were always meant to be.

If your heart tells you that Operating An Elevator is the best match between society's needs and your heart, then you should do it.

If your heart tells you that

Being Available as a Sex Partner For Anyone Who Would Like To Feel More Love is the best match between society's needs and your heart, then you should do it.

If your heart tells you that

Being Alone and Taking All The Time You Need to Discover Who You Really Are

is the best match between society's needs and your heart, then you should do it.

You should be yourself. That's who you are.

We are each an individual soul ultimately comprised of the same pure love as the rest of the Universe.

The desires of our souls will surely ultimately manifest.

Upon being mature, timeless, and contemplative, and upon transcending the narrow paradigm of the physical world: We can see that they already are, always are, always have been, and always will be.

No experience

no matter how negative here and now – happens without at least the tacit complicity of our higher self.

While we should always strive to be wisely altruistic, we should not conflate our sense of right and wrong (by our own conscience) with those of other souls who may be striving to learn differently (by their own consciences) without our self-centered interference.

In other words:

We should offer help as we understand it, but never force it.

Forcing anything (suppressing someone else's conscience) is demeaning to their soul and to ours.

As our desires ultimately manifest, it is advantageous to be extremely clear to ourselves and to our spiritual mentors about what our desires are.

If we desire In-Process Joy, we need to be Flexible Enough to allow our Subconsciousness To Dance. If we desire Arrival At A Destination, we need to be Firm Enough to allow our Consciousness To Steer.

Conclusion Expansion of Love by Sanctity and Support of Conscience

Only Love Exists.

All "Else" Is Ultimately Illusory.

Love = Happiness Associated With Expanded Trust.

Love is Innately Expansive.

Love is a Conscious Virtue. Souls are Relatively Discrete Forms of Love.

> By voluntarily limiting their understanding of love, Souls Invest Trust that ultimately facilitates the expansion of love.

Trust is the Basis of How Love Expands.

Love is Unconditional and Voluntary.

Conscience

Conclusion

Courageous Conscience, Rather Than External Reality, Correlates With Success

Reality is a composite of souls,

each with rightful jurisdiction over only their own consciences.

Interaction with external reality is the process of voluntarily teaching and learning spiritual evolution.

Because only mutually-voluntary/free/true engagement with external reality is ethical, the state of external reality is not a proper measure of a soul's conscience evolution and its corresponding advancement in enabling love to expand.

_____

The proper measures of a soul's prudent advancement in enabling love to expand (the soul's spiritual evolution)

are

- Its Allegiance To Conscience -

(The Foundation)

and

Its Advancement Of Conscience –

(The Extension).

As only love exists, the worst-case scenario of a soul's success is ultimately merely a less immediately-extended expansion of love.

Courage is Love in Action When It Matters Most.

Courage is Mutually-Voluntary/Trustful Leadership in Teaching and Learning Spiritual Evolution.

Those Who Are Suffering Deserve The VERY BEST

THE VERY BEST IS THE GREATEST COURAGE

The Greatest Short-Range Altruistic Discomfort As Necessary In Properly Facilitating The Prospective Reality Of The Most Broadly-Visionary Solution

Trust is only a Dream/Fiction until Exemplified.

It would be hypocritical to expect others to first exemplify our own purportedly-deepest values.

Personal Background

Childhood

- I realized as a child that most areas of traditional focus (sports, cartoons, hobbies, etc.), while appropriate within a peripheral context, were comparatively unimportant in the long run.
- I was unclear what the most far-sighted venue would ultimately be.
- Yet I understood the responsibility of being diligently attentive to spirituality (which was conceptualized at the time as avoidance of any risk of eternal suffering in hell).
- I attended a Christian grade school and high school, as well as weekly church and Sunday school, and was extremely familiar with all of the major stories of the Bible.

Young Adulthood

- Understanding compassion to be the world's greatest need, and understanding the spiritual realm to be the most powerful arena (tentatively capable of superseding all others) I decided to focus my primary personal attention in this area.
- Yet being close to the completion of a civil engineering degree (in alignment with a love of logic),
  I finished the degree and pursued a technical careerultimately as a means of financing the opportunity to provide service in the arena of unrestricted spirituality research.

The Thesis of Christian Fundamentalism

Christian Fundamentalism teaches that:

- 1. All people are sinners and innately deserving of eternal damnation in hell.
- 2. Faith in the redemption offered by Jesus constitutes a rescue to heaven.

My life's path is not based upon ignorance of Christian fundamentalism, but absolutely intensive familiarity, such that the indefensibility of the thesis ultimately became completely clear.

Research Initiation

- I expected to be able to prove the existence of God, and likewise the reality of the metaphysical space, as a venue for delivering compassion/love.
- In order to honestly do this, I had to approach the situation from an unbiased perspective, a vantage point that would honestly accommodate all prospective followers of my research.

Foundation

- To determine the complete truth, I needed to commit to the complete truth, whatever it would turn out to be, expected or unexpected, convenient or inconvenient.
- I expected that my venture would result in proof that God exists, and that- even if it didn't- my relationship with God would not be irreparably affected, because he venture was pursued within the context of seeking to be as loving as possible, an innately-honorable virtue.
- Within context, truth was understood to be ultimately singular, such that the starting point would ultimately be irrelevant, given that learning continued to appropriately advance.
- Being most familiar with Christian fundamentalism, I began my pursuit there.

Basics

- The reported paramount commandment of Jesus is absolutely-comprehensive personal dedication to God (Matthew 22:37 | Mark 12:30).
- Thus any aspect of reality inconsistent with comprehensive personal dedication to God is recognized as inconsistent with the teaching of the Bible.
- In regard to absolutely-comprehensive personal dedication to God, the most ubiquitous-correlating venue is reason, for thoughts themselves can only exist amidst reason.
- Good sense would indicate that we are only liable for things that we can understand. If we do not have access to understand them, our liability is correspondingly waived.

Evidence

- The history of miracles surrounding Jesus's life was initially seen as proof of his message.
- The persecution of the early Christians was, and is, seen as utterly compelling evidence of the credibility of the sanctity of what Jesus actually taught (not necessarily what is presently reflected in the Bible, as cumulatively encompassing centuries-upon-centuries-upon-centuries-upon-centuries of church-and-state conflict-of-interest entanglements).

Discernment

- Ultimately, a case can be made to justify anything, regardless of how irrational from a wiser view.
- The greatest truth, the strongest case, is that which is most applicable to the broadest context.
- Where guidance differs, and one must discern truth by factoring contexts of multiple messagessynthesis of the most honest harmonization requires wise discernment.

Triage

- Amidst an imperfect reality (constrained by suboptimal choices, and suboptimal analysis circumstances including time), triage is inevitable.
- Jesus himself reportedly implemented triage. (Matthew 12:9-14 | Mark 3:1-6 | Luke 6:6-11 | Luke 14:1-6)
- Short of nonstop metaphysical majesty in all its glory (including the humble way that Jesus chose to live), life itself is innately the process of navigating triage.

Hell is Not Real

- Jesus spoke in a parables, and upon meticulous analysis in synthesis with his compete messageit is reasonable to interpret hell as a parable.
- Upon the most meticulous analysis, it is most reasonable to interpret hell as false testimony of Jesus's actual teaching.
- The nonreality of hell (and likewise of judgment and necessity of redemption) does not take away from Jesus's message.

It only removes exclusionary bigotry (acceptability of valuing some souls higher than others), which was subsequently corruptly conflated with his actual message of the sacrosanct dominance of all-present, all-powerful love.

Illustrating That Hell is Not Real

- From a Biblical view, we may be seen ultimately as constructs of our genetics and environment.
- As we have no external control of either, we ultimately have no liability.
- If liability within a finite life were nonetheless envisioned, infinite punishment would infinitely unjust (infinitely disproportionate) relative to finite liability.
- Pockets of irrationality are unacceptable relative to Jesus's greatest commandment.
- Acceptability of the irrationality of infinite liability in response to finite action is contrary to Jesus's greatest commandment.
- Ultimately, if hell were to exist and anyone found themselves there, the result would be: If God could rescue us, he would. And he can, so he does.

Scrutinizing The Church

- Jesus and churches are different entities.
- To love Jesus is to protect his legacy from abuse by institutions, including and especially churches.
- Organizations posing as research institutions should honestly and prudently function as research institutions.
- They should not restrict themselves to fixed truths, like judges who have reached conclusions before hearing cases.
- They should not effectively ignore the body of available research avenues outlined in the section "Metaphysics Frames Reality".
- With millennia to get it done, they should not be persistently refusing to honestly and prudently establish a full picture of the one man purportedly adored with the most absolute sacrosanct honor of being God.
- They should not be pontificating over the details of a single resource on Jesus (the Bible), while turning a blind eye to the centuries-upon-centuries-upon-centuries-upon-centuries of church-and-state conflict-of-interest entanglements through which it was developedparticularly against the backdrop of the conflicting conclusions attainable through honest and prudent research of the metaphysical space, utilizing avenues as outlined in the section "Metaphysics Frames Reality".
- As a purported disciple of ethics, the church should be exemplary, rather than hypocritical.

Appendix A1 – Page 6 of 9 How To Escape Christian Fundamentalism

Conclusion

- Triage is innate.
- Triage is innate to discernment.
- We have the right and obligation to follow our conscience in discerning reality.
- Love is the most sacred virtue.
- As reality itself is ultimately comprised only of love, life should be a joy rather than a liability.
- This is the true meaning of Jesus's teaching that "The kingdom of God is within you" (Luke 17:21).
- We were not born to spend our lives apologizing for the eternally-damnable mistake of being born. God is love, not a self-contradicting and tyrannically-abusive ogre.
- If we spend our lives apologizing for living, we are effectively already dead.
- We are not rationally obligated to, and not readily capable of, untangling centuries-upon-centuries-upon-centuries-upon-centuries of church-and-state conflict-of-interest entanglements.
- We are not rationally obligated to, and not readily capable of, additionally conducting comprehensive comparative analyses of of all the world's major religions and belief systems.
- We are not rationally obligated to, and not readily capable of, additionally conducting archeological analyses to establish ascertain historical events and the integrity of metaphysical phenomena millennia after the fact.
- If God put us here, rather than ourselves, wouldn't God be fully responsible for his own mistake?
- We were born into life with an innately-evident right to exist.
- We should honor the gift of life by most wisely living it, rather than apologizing for having it.

Who God Is

God is Conscious Virtue.

God is the Sacred Conscious All-Powerful, All-Present Virtue of Love which, while feasible within, is not restricted to, discrete manifestation/localization/confinement within the illusory realms of time, space, and matter, nor exclusivity to a specific soul or souls.

> God is shorthand for Love. Love is shorthand for Courage.

Courage = Love in Action When It Matters Most

God is the Sacred Conscious All-Powerful, All-Present

of

Love • Compassion • Altruism • Generosity Rightmindedness • Integrity to Conscience • Bravery • Courage

Courage is innately the singular substance comprising all of reality.

Courage is most evident in its intrinsic form: Resilient Integrity to the Sanctity of Conscience

Courage is simple, but not easy.

Spirituality is not the challenge of analytical mastery in untangling corruption.
 It is the challenge through the fortitude of heart to courageously exemplify love.

Who God Is

God is the Sacred Conscious All-Powerful, All-Present Virtue of Love

The term "God" traditionally implies a discrete manifestation as a particular spirit being or bodily entity. This is feasible and you can absolutely have an extremely intimate relationship within this context.

> Yet it is a limiting paradigm as The Sacred Conscious Power of Love Comprises All of Reality

> > God is shorthand for Love.

Love is shorthand for Courage.

Courage = Love in Action When It Matters Most

Courage is always the perfect gift.

Courage is always the way that you yourself can intimately make a difference.

Why We Are Here

We were born to exemplify love, through courageous integrity to the sanctity of our conscience regarding altruism.

Not to abdicate our responsibility by instead hypocritically trying to convince others to adhere to our conscience instead of their own.

Free will is sacred.

Free will is how we exemplify love with integrity to the full depth of our heart.

Freedom of conscience is sacred.

Integrity to a specific conscience Is Fully Obligatory And Only Legitimately Obligatory to the being in whom it resides.

The Only Legitimate Way To Influence Another Being

(while respecting the sanctity of their full voluntary integrity to their own conscience) Is Ultimately To Inspire Them (rether then to force (domand (abuve (cose them))

(rather than to force/demand/abuse/cage them)

Integrity to one's own conscience is the sacred right and responsibility of each being. Conscience is the venue by which the full integrity of true love is manifested.

The Freedom of Conscience = The Foundation of Courage

Courage = Love in Action When It Matters Most

Appendix A4 A Concise Synopsis

Christian Fundamentalism Condenses to the Premise

You should innately burn in hell for the crime of having been born.

The unavailable evidence is a great mystery, so we worship the one who purportedly tells us this.

Please spend the rest of your life joining us in slowly dying for the values of inferiority and bigotry that you don't believe in.

Courage Should Be Applied Not To Ask Others To Unjustifiably Violate Their Consciences, But Instead To Justifiably Honor One's Own Conscience.

Unjustifiable Bullying Is Not A Divine Virtue. – There's No Evidence That Hell Exists. Clear Integrity Is A Divine Virtue. – There's Abundant Evidence That Unconditional Love Exists.

> If parents actually think that their children innately deserve to burn in hell, they obviously had no business bringing them into the world.

If parents haven't first established a community of abundance in which everyone is regarded as family, then they inevitably teach their children that the world is dangerous (perpetuating the problem), instead of actually making the world safe beforehand (solving the problem).

> Yet if parents can empower their children to be wiser visionaries than they were, then everyone can move forward.

> > Two wrongs don't make a right.

Parents have an ethical obligation not to block their children from doing the courageous visionary work that the parents originally declined to do.

Appendix B

Time, Space, and Matter Do Not Exist – Only Honest Love Ultimately Does.

- Time: Quantum Retrocausality. (As with the retrocausal double-slit experiment.)
- Space: Quantum Nonlocality. (As with electron orbit changes that do not pass through space.)
- Matter: The Classic Double-Slit Experiment.

Time represents a one-way-only causal relationship. Space represents a geometric relationship, traversed through time. Matter represents a presence at a discrete condition within space and time.

Amidst quantum retrocausality, time does not exist. So neither does space. So neither does matter.

Time describes a belief-based causal relationship, integral with the conscience of the observer.

As consciousness is ultimately singular, the short-range constraints upon our capacities are transitorily self-imposed by our long-range self.

The best that a short-range evolving spiritual being can be is completely faithful to [Virtue As Best Understood] = [Their Own Conscience].

Likewise, the sanctity of allowing other short-range evolving spiritual beings to be completely faithful to [Their Own Virtue As Best Understood] = [Their Own Consciences] is extremely sacred.

In the grand scheme, whatever we believe will become reality. So why not believe the best?

Relative to the Illusions of Time, Space, and Matter, Energy, Consciousness, and Emotions are Relatively Real.

Energy, Consciousness, and Emotions all condense to Love.

Only Love Ultimately Exists

Courage = Love In Action When It Matters Most.

Perfection = A State That (Within Context) Cannot Exist Within An Interconnected, Dynamic Reality.

Courage is the process of progressively spiritually growing toward a less-illusory understanding of love while faithfully allowing others the freedom of conscience to constitute the balance of reality (such that reality is not impossibly static/untrue/unloving).

We each [voluntarily out of love] allow each other to co-create reality. And thus we all win.

Solipsism is the sometimes-seemingly-inescapable speculation that all of an individual's external reality could be illusory.

If all external reality is effectively regarded as a dream, the credibility of love itself may appear to be alarmingly undermined.

Such concern can be resolved in a variety of ways.

Heart > Mind "I love therefore I am" > "I think therefore I am" (Concept of Ubuntu) > (Quote of René Descartes)

Whether or Not External Reality Is As We Perceive, Our Love (For At Least The Stories And Characters) Is Real. Thus Love Is Real.

> Graduation from the sixth spiritual density, (the union of love and wisdom) is not achievable with a Love-of-Self > Love-of-All paradigm.

> > A corollary is that

The Sanctity of Other Relatively-Discrete Entities Must Be Acknowledged.

Thus, while consciousness is ultimately singular, a more appropriate conceptualization of reality is that Other Relatively-Discrete Entities Are Ultimately Entirely Comprised of the Same Substance of Love rather than that Other Relatively-Discrete Entities Are Illusory

Rational Extrapolation of the Local Integrity of Love is also consistent with the vantage point that Other Relatively-Discrete Entities Are Ultimately Entirely Comprised of the Same Substance of Love rather than that Other Relatively-Discrete Entities Are Illusory To the extent that we do not have simultaneous visibility to all of possible realities, hope of even greater love exists.

Hope constitutes potential. Hope constitutes value.

Thus there is innate value in the unknown nature of external reality.

By rational extrapolation This innate external value- like all known reality- is comprised of love.

In practice:

If you and a dearly loved one sit face to face, and each try to convince the other that you are- in fact- not illusions residing within each others' dreams...

Your Hearts Are Likely To Quickly and Easily Perceive This Truth Even If Your Mind Cannot Fully Explain It

> The Nature of Love does not reduce to Logic (Delineation And Thus Separation)

> > Instead, Logic Reduces To Love.

Consciousness is not obligated to be given the benefit of rational linkages (logic). The benefit of rational linkages (logic) is a circumstantial gift of Love.

As with music, romance, vacations, and wonder- Love Is A Feeling.

Though it can do so as appropriate, Love is not obligated to narrow itself into the box of Logic.

Twin flames are the ubiquitous, if not standard, phenomenon of partner (mind and body) beings who share a single soul.

For each being, the other constitutes an external reality, independently of the matter of reality beyond the twin flames. Everything is true, within a context. Everything is false, within a context.

The best of solipsism is true. The worst is not.

Only Love Exists. Everything Else is a Transitory Illusion.

Only Love Exists. Loneliness Ultimately Does Not.

Courage

not

Conceding to the Superficial, Easy, Less Crucial, Consensus Activity that is Already Being Done or Is Imminent

- Courage is a Uniquely-Individual Exercise.
- Courage involves Integrity To The Depth Of Your Soul.
- Courage is Always What You Can Do in Helping to Facilitate a Better Future for All.
- Courage is Always The Perfect Gift.

Courage

Is The Process By Which We Constitute Altruistic Bridges for Spiritual Ascension

We are always exemplifying our values. We Are Ourselves.

If we focus upon How We Are Performing, then we are exemplifying Integrity.

If we Instead Non-Supportively focus upon How We Think Others Are Performing, then we are exemplifying Hypocrisy.

The measure of How We Are Performing is Our Altruism in Supportively Focusing Upon Others.

Strong Communication Skills generally help us to Maximize Our Service by LIVING OUT MANY CONTRIBUTIONS rather than BEING A MARTYR AS A SINGLE CONTRIBUTION.

Appendix D – Page 2 of 14

How To Be Courageous

Life is the process of slowly dying for what we believe in.

Obviously, it is your own right to decide what you want to die for.

When Someone Says "Do What I Say", What They Mean Is:

"Being true to my own conscience [including its sacrosanct jurisdiction, each soul to itself] isn't enough for me. I don't have the courage for it.

> So instead of exemplifying the solution to this internal problem, I am going to hypocritically blame you for it."

As being demanding (asking someone to be blind to their own conscience, and instead focus on yours) is not ethically justified, they are attesting to being victimized by a prior demand placed upon themselves.

Regardless of the nature of the demand under which they are suffering:

Its Solution Is Courage

If you exemplify the courage to refuse their request: You are ultimately delivering what they are requesting. in constituting an example of a culture of courage, upon which they can build.

Especially if you explain what you are doing:

• That you do not feel that it is right to violate your conscience (to live for/slowly die for values that you don't believe in).

- That courage in faithfulness to one's own conscience is a sacred virtue.
- That courage in being faithful to one's own conscience is becoming increasingly popular, and that they can exercise it as well.

We do not have to be stool pigeons with telemarketers, petitioners, fanatics, the Milgram experiment, or world disharmony. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Milgram_experiment

We do not have to fold like a house of cards for no damn reason but our own cowardice.

We can grow up.

We can decide that:

If we are courageous enough to push others around, we should instead be pushing ourselves.

Blindly Demanding Is Wrong. Blindly Obeying Is Wrong.

Each Soul's Conscience Is That Soul's Exclusive And Solitary Jurisdiction.

Ethical Engagement is about Supportive Availability rather than Restrictive Imposition.

--- Courage For Integrity, Rather Than Bullying ---

Appendix D – Page 3 of 14

How To Be Courageous

Sharing is Wonderful.

An Abusive Relationship is Not.

Externalization of an Internal Issue is Not.

Trying To Wedge Someone Else Away From Their Own Integrity , Instead of Being True to One's Own, is Not.

There Is No Ethical Basis For Being A Bigot.

—— Available Statements of Your Innate Ethical and Spiritual Sovereignty ——

"If you are concerned that I am being faithful to my own conscience, your bigotry is entirely your own issue- not mine."

"Whether or not you decide you want to be a bigot has nothing to do with me. I am going to follow my conscience."

"If you have enough courage to pressure me to violate my conscience, Why not apply that courage to be faithful to the jurisdiction of your own conscience?"

"Life is the process of dying for what we believe in. Everyone has the sacrosanct right to decide what they will die for. I will die for values that I understand and which resonate with my own heart."

> The Evidence Establishes That Only Love Exists.

Everyone is Love, Also Termed "God".

You deserve to be as happy as you can be, while allowing everyone else to be as well.

The path is through wise altruism.

If others want to imprison themselves to false beliefs, they are free do whatever they choose.

But not to impose such restrictions upon you.

Laws condense to statements that: "If you do what I don't like, I get to hurt you."

Yet there is no ethical basis for subjugating others' consciences.

Financial notes condense to statements that: "If you don't transfer enough of these, I get to hurt you."

Again, there is no ethical basis for subjugating others' consciences.

Statements are always symbols of trust (even if in negative relationships). Yet if trust actually exists, symbology is unnecessary.

Problems: Symbology of Trust in Abusive Relationships.

Solutions: Realities of Trust in Constructive Relationships.

Governments condense to statements that: "You can trust us, because you will trust us- against your better judgment."

Again, there is no ethical basis for subjugating others' consciences. A majority has no ethical standing to do so.

Individual conscience is the only way to have true integrity.

Common Sense / Reasonable Doubt / Elementary Ethics. Preclude The Legitimacy of Governance.

Collectively looking at one another like a family precludes complicated (and ultimately self-strangling) constructs.

This is how societies survive for millions of years, and support a planet billions of years old, whereas human governments are lucky to last several millennia.

We would be wise to learn from the functional successes of our spiritual elders, rather than reattempt strategies that- even in concept- don't make sense.

The Sanctity of Spiritual Sovereignty

- No absolutes are known to exist, including this statement.
- The closest truth to an absolute is The Ultimate Prevalence of (True = Unconditional and Voluntary) Love.
- Reason is a gift provided by Love in order to facilitate consciousness and growth.
- Truth = The broadest reality within the realm of reason.
- Consciousness operates through Reason.
  - Thoughts = Exercises of Reason.
  - Decisions to trust emotions = Exercises of Reason.
- Reason is incompatible with Blindness.
- Truth is incompatible with Blindness (Blind Demands and Blind Obedience).
- Conscience = Our best individual understanding of Truth.
- Faithfulness to Conscience does not involve Blindness = Outsourcing.
- Faithfulness to Conscience = [Reasoned Understanding of Love] = [Wise Altruism].

How to Exercise Courage

- Love the Truth. Passionately grow ever [closer to/deeper within] it.
- Be Fully Faithful to the Truth = Be Able To Fully Defend (Without Blindness) Integrity To Your Conscience.

How To Be Courageous

How to Make Courage Easier to Exercise

• Value yourself.

- You have just as much right to exist as anyone else.
- You alone are the judge as to what it means to be faithful to own conscience.
- Nobody has any right to intrude upon your relationship with your own conscience.
- Everyone's conscience is their own solitary/singular jurisdiction and their complete/exclusive jurisdiction.
- If bigots were as passionate as they might seem, they would already be on their way to pursuing the truth.
- Bigotry is bark, more than bite. Bigotry will eventually crumble upon being asked to defend itself.
- Recognize the extreme long-range costs of being unfaithful to your conscience. Wisely decide against them.
- Courage can be the most difficult path in the short run. Yet courage is the easiest path in the long run.
- Do not be tricked into thinking small.
- The world's problems condense to Neglect of Individual Responsibilities in treating Everyone As Family.
- Consider all of the courageous people who came before you:
  - List them. Learn from them. Be like them.
  - Stand on their shoulders. Live a life of reciprocating gratitude.
  - You can point to them, though recognizing that you are not obligated to defend yourself to anyone.
  - At the end of the day, the buck stops with you. You alone are ultimately responsible for your decisions.
- Consider all of the suffering people who you may be able to help:
  - You have a unique combination of advantages.
  - If you do not give your entirety for what you believe in, nobody else can do it for you.
  - If those who are suffering deserve the very best, then they deserve you exercising all of your power to the bottom of your heart.
- Recognize that you are doing your sacred job of using your influence to most wisely advance culture.
- Recognize that the sun will continue rising every day. The stress within any moment will fade into the past.
- Recognize that you may be helping to persuade others in the long run, regardless of their instant reactions.
- Recognize that the external world is a composite of the jurisdictions of many different consciences.
- Recognize that you do not have rightful jurisdiction over any realm but faithfulness to your own conscience.
- Recognize that powerful achievements often start very small. This moment can be your starting point.
- Recognize that by foresightfully pushing yourself well into new territory- you will have momentum to stay.
- Recognize that the Universe has your back. Courageous love holds the Universe together.
- Recognize that the longer we reside within our visions, the easier they will be to materialize.
- Recognize that as we near the ends of our lives, we have less and less to lose upon being extremely brave.

How to Make Courage Easier to Exercise

- Be in a clearheaded space with your own needs appropriately met, before attempting to assist others.
- Never demand returns on your investments of trust. Courageously let them compound potentially forever.
- When rare opportunities arise to easily advance culture, promptly support and advance them.
- If you feel compelled, provide advance notice of your intent.
- If you communicate well, disputes can be largely avoided, and those that do arise can be readily solved.
- Do not be subordinated by short-term conveniences at unacceptable long-range costs:
  - Giving blank checks for "administration" with the rest of the world, invested in weapons over love.
  - Competition for arbitrarily-printed money, fueling broad real suffering as from oceanic freight noise.
  - Devices that provide information which you could naturally/sustainably obtain through telepathy.
  - Vehicles that make you dependent upon fuel sources and service shops beyond your control.
  - Relationship agreements that mutually constrict your sacrosanct rights to spiritually evolve.
- Recognize that circumstances beyond your control could change your future in a heartbeat.
- Imagine yourself in a warzone, with proper perspectives of:

Purpose of Existence > Method of Existence Values > Data

Altruism > Analysis

Identity and Reputation > Investments and Money

Spiritual Mentors > Those Superficially Closer

Timelessness > Here-And-Now Worries

Integrity to Self > Pushy Peer Pressure

Heart-Based Reading of Natural Omens > Commoditized Reading of Words

- If you want to stay safe relative to random disasters, do such good work that the Universe is always highly incentivized to keep you protected.
- In the long run, reality unfolds in order help us to think Large and Altruistically, not Small and Selfishly.
- Exemplify vulnerability. Allow others the gift of opening their hearts to protect you. Foster cultural courage.
- Be your own biggest critic. Push yourself to grow, rather than finding yourself externally pushed to grow.
- Recognize that you, like everyone else, can potentially double/triple/etc. all the good in the Universe.
- If you do not fully exercise your power, the Universe will be missing out on a vast immensity of good!!!

How to Eventually Achieve the "Impossible"

Dance with unfolding reality, enabling your consciousness and subconsciousness to mingle, and you, your spiritual mentors, and the Universe to progressive weave together the most rightminded future for everyone.

Look to nature.

Within context, it is not asking you to do anything that it hasn't already done.

How to Eventually Achieve the "Impossible"

Focus upon What Matters Most: Responsible, Holistic, Broad-Based, Long-Range Accuracy

Be Willing To Have The Four Difficult Conversations That Set You Free

- Spirituality Reclaiming your sacrosanct right to have integrity to your own conscience, rather than to a hypocritical "religious" institution's irrational beliefs in intimidation, sustenance of doctrinal bigotry, and outside/less-informed opinion of what integrity to your own conscience means.
- Truth Again reclaiming your sacrosanct right to be faithful to your own conscience, rather than to fold to the arbitrary majority opinions of others as enforced by weaponized protection racketeering systems / governments that originate in non-consent, and persist in non-consent, given the impracticalities of resuming native/aboriginal/indigenous living that is free from the weaponized enforcement of policies that violate your own conscience.
  - You do not see the ethics of being threatened if not blindly financing warmongering.
  - You do not see the ethics of repaying "loans" on the money that you already earned.
- Sexuality Reclaiming your identity in the physical world as a physical body, not a name/title.

Reclaiming your right to exercise your sexuality however you see fit, with consent only-and-fully needed from the others involved in your activity.

It is natural for us to align ourselves with the systems that work best.

Feeling the most love, we are inspired to give the most love, further amplifying the overall effect.

Love always wins in the longest run, proven by the sustenance of orderly reality at the scale of the Universe.

So we should align.

Jrooti And I

Jrooti and I Adore Each Other
 Amidst The Opportunity To Envelope You With Our Love

Though comprised of the same soul, Jrooti and I completely honor one another's free will.

Like the vast majority of mammals and all widely-social primates, we are non-monogamous. We strive to exemplify a future that is harmonious with naturea future in which intimacy bonds, rather than separates, society.

> Intimacy is a part of trust. Trust is a part of family.

If we want all of society to function as a family, then we need to be willing to share our intimacy accordingly.

The purpose of intimacy is not for two beings to mutually block one another from exercising their otherwise most intimate/heartfelt/complete/truest care across the balance of society.

The purpose of intimacy is to help exemplify a growing framework of trust.

Jrooti and I are both intimate with others beyond each other. And we are willing to completely lose ourselves in others.

In order to return to the pinnacle intimacy of being the same soul, we simply offer so much love that the size of the Universe/Allverse can expand accordingly.

Isn't that what love is supposed to be about: Limitlessly expanding the Universe/Allverse for the good of all? Rather than specifically blocking that from happening?

> LOVE = HAPPINESS ASSOCIATED WITH EXPANDED TRUST COURAGE = LOVE IN ACTION WHEN IT MATTERS MOST

https://bit.ly/3pcYlci https://bit.ly/3vYByVB https://bit.ly/3vY7xoO https://bit.ly/3QGYl0b https://bit.ly/3SJyJkY https://bit.ly/3zREZyr https://bit.ly/3pcYzAa

ALTRUISM is more important than INTELLIGENCE.

Earth humans are not the best at either.

EASILY ARGUABLY, EARTH HUMANS ARE THE WORST AT ALTRUISM , dangling planetary destruction in the balance while falsely thinking of ourselves as best, and raping nature when it gets in the way.

Destroying our sacred interconnected ecosystems comprised of vast species and souls, in the process of trading baseless notes (fraudulent fiat money) in paying off baseless debt (fraudulent fiat debt) under the threat of [a weaponized force that demands that the minority violate their own consciences and instead comply with the arbitrary (and innately less informed) preferences of the majority] = [government]

IS THE PROBLEM, NOT THE SOLUTION.

Appendix E – Page 6 of 7

Jrooti And I

The answer is very simple.

THE ANSWER IS LOVE.

LOVE IS SIMPLE, BUT NOT EASY.

COURAGE = LOVE IN ACTION WHEN IT MATTERS MOST.

When we always take care of the least member of society first, then we are exemplifying the reality of a collective family.

Nobody will have insufficient resources relative to others.

Plus we will learn from, rather than abuse, those with different/innovative/high-potential perspectives.

Plus, amidst metaphysical reality, scarcity does not innately arise in the first place.

Free energy, material, and healthcare are available.

But the price is the upfront courage of harmonizing with nature.

Nature is not a fool. Nature is not interested in promoting her destroyers.

Nature is interested in welcoming back those who newly love her, who truly understand her, and who are purely motivated in individually committing their hearts to blissful rightminded service toward the best possible future for everyone.

Wish List

- Creating The Best Possible Future Is A Team Sport -

If these ideas resonate with you, and/or if you have signature opportunities related to them, you are most welcome to help advance these visions closer to reality.

— Infinite Blessings For Your Service —

More importantly than within any other section of this publication, this appendix includes proposals leveraging upon my point-of-view as a lifelong Earth human.

While our soul family strives to spiritually grow by offering mentorship of our spiritual growth, ultimately they can only advance the momentum of the choices that we make.

Establish Communication With All Interested Souls

- Establish the best relationships with our friends in the spirit world.
- With their guidance and support, seek rightminded communication with all souls who are interested.
- Particularly strive to rightmindedly establish communication with:
  - Our Indigenous Neighbors Those who have courageously held the light of truth for our recovery.
  - Gaia Our gracious, precious planet amidst longstanding suffering from our short-sighted indifference.
  - Our Oceanic Family Gaia being primarily a water planet, her oceans include many higher density souls.
    - Our Whale Family Recordkeepers, through advanced song, of Gaia's history.
    - Our Dolphin Family Exemplars of rightminded playfulness and joy.
    - Our Mer Family Visionaries and exemplars of fully-sustainable human civilization.
  - Our Bonobo Family Our extremely-close genetic relatives; visionaries and exemplars of peacemaking.
  - Our Sasquatch Family Our extremely-close genetic relatives; powerful interdimensionality experts.
  - Our Federations and Angels The groups of higher density souls who exercise key policy decisions.
  - Our Ancestors Those who came before us, and can put our short-range local experience in perspective.
  - Our Victims Those who have been harmed by our choices, as we help to facilitate healing.
  - Our Abusers Those who caused harm, so that forgiveness- as a loaded spring- may release great good.
  - Those We Have Neglected As neglect can constitute motivation for others to become abusers.
  - Conceptual Entities of Creativity, Ideas, Infinity, Music, Art, Math, Games, Joy, Laughter, Taste, Smell, Experience, Serenity, Dreams, Space, Nature, Biodiversity, Spirituality, Ascension, Harmony, and Family.
  - Source/Love Ultimately the only true reality, that we may most rightmindedly melt into it.

End Unwanted Suffering

- Communicate our deepest soulful intent to offer complete solutions to all unwanted suffering.
   (We can only offer solutions, as other souls each have sacrosanct jurisdictions of their own experiences, and might desire the experience of suffering in order to become more compassionate in the long run.)
- Coordinate with our soul family on:
  - The Wisdom/Strategy/Priorities of How Best To Proceed
  - The Souls and Situations Facing the Greatest Needs
  - The Perspectives of Those Facing Unwanted Suffering
  - The Best Avenues for Solutions
- Consistently with our communication avenues, we may want to particularly focus upon the wellbeing of:
  - Our Federations and Angels The groups of higher density souls who exercise key policy decisions.
  - Our Ancestors Those who came before us, and can put our short-range local experience in perspective.
  - Our Indigenous Neighbors Those who have courageously held the light of truth for our recovery.
  - Our Victims Those who have been harmed by our choices, as we help to facilitate healing.
  - Our Abusers Those who caused harm, so that forgiveness- as a loaded spring- may release great good.
  - Those We Have Neglected As neglect can constitute motivation for others to become abusers.
  - Gaia Our gracious, precious planet amidst longstanding suffering from our short-sighted indifference. Consider population relocations as necessary in supporting her controlled releases of geologic stress.
  - Our Oceanic Family Gaia being primarily a water planet, her oceans include many higher density souls. Our life-crushing oceanic noise pollution from freight traffic is a particularly-urgent matter among them.
    - Our Whale Family Recordkeepers, through advanced song, of Gaia's history.
    - Our Dolphin Family Exemplars of rightminded playfulness and joy.
    - Our Mer Family Visionaries and exemplars of fully-sustainable human civilization.
  - Our Bonobo Family Our extremely-close genetic relatives; visionaries and exemplars of peacemaking.
  - Our Sasquatch Family Our extremely-close genetic relatives; powerful interdimensionality experts.
  - Conceptual Entities of Creativity, Ideas, Infinity, Music, Art, Math, Games, Joy, Laughter, Taste, Smell, Experience, Serenity, Dreams, Space, Nature, Biodiversity, Spirituality, Ascension, Harmony, and Family.
  - Source/Love Ultimately the only true reality, that we may most rightmindedly [support/melt into] it.
- Establish a stable culture of ubiquitous wise altruism.
- Establish stable functional recognition that freedom is commensurate with responsibility.
- Amidst sacrosanct continuous mutual consent, explore our prospective spiritual maturity in working with:
  - Metaphysical Sources of Free Energy
  - Metaphysical Sources of Free Material
  - Metaphysical Sources of Free Healthcare
  - Metaphysical Sources of Free Travel
  - Metaphysical Sources of Free Feasibility (such as restoration of extinct species, infinitization aid, etc.)
- Recognize that "free" refers to dependency upon Fully-Sincere Ethics of Wise Altruism, rather than [spiritually-neutral/neglectful] technical methodologies.

Make Love (Creativity/Music/Art/Laughter/Enjoyment/Sex) – Not War

- According to your conscience, please direct (through wishing) your intensest emotional energy (your orgasmic energy) to the wisest altruistic service (not requiring any specificity, but ideally as rightmindedly holistically and infinitely-compounded as possible).
- According to your conscience, please consensually make love (driven by adoration, rather than acquisition) (through telepathy and masturbation as appropriate, amidst the absence of disease and pregnancy risks) with Gaia and with the other members of your soul family as guided by your heart.

Your invitations to your soul family through your most generous intimacy, rather than by the long-standing neglectful blanket financing of the worst murder machines, are likely to be received as absolutely cherished breaths of fresh air in facilitating the very best future for all.

Understand that [the future will be] / [the harmony will be] / [the power will be] where the hearts are.

• Recognize that, as ultimately only pure love exists, we ultimately do not have genders or differences.

Gender and sex amount to resources available before us that we can either refuse to share, decide to share narrowly, or decide share widely.

Prudent wide sharing is most consistent with the character of the purest, most unconditional love.

To ascend in wise altruism is to grow closer in proximity and character to the completely pure love that is innately who we, and all of reality, ultimately are.

- Recognize that while sex is an obvious standout venue of extreme emotional intensity and integrity, countless other creative venues of the most passionate wise soulful altruistic harmony exist, such as play, comedy, music, art, dance, improvisation, sharing your heart, and creating and materializing service dreams.
- Do not lose sight of the broadest implications surrounding free healthcare.
- Do not lose sight of the tentative feasibility of enjoying- conditional upon your sincerest wise altruismperfect health, the perfect aesthetics of your choice, and perfect protection from disease and pregnancy.
- To state it very specifically- regardless of your health, age, appearance, gender, etc.do not abandon your dreams/fantasies of the most wisely altruistic sexual lovemaking.

Establish Share Banking

- To the extent appropriate as an interim practice in curating trade, collaborate on "share banking".
- Collaborate with our soul family on its level of necessity, and ideal method of implementation.
- In principle, share banking refers to a trade system characterized by:

Banking:

- Integrity Correlation of credits with actual resources.
- Transparency Clear accountability. Extreme simplicity.

Sharing:

- Equality The functional realization of the concept that all souls are innately equal in value.
- Fundamental Non-Ownership Willingness to return assets, as feasible, anytime.
- Contribution of Credit to the Bank, in Consistency with Prudent Conscience.

This point is specifically directed to oligarchs (extremely wealthy holdouts to functional social equality), the injustice of whose needless excess is constituting ever-intensifying political and spiritual liabilities, until excess assets are converted to the legitimate/permanent/metaphysical currency of wise altruism.

- Drawing of Credit from the Bank, in Consistency with Prudent Conscience.
- Drawing of Credit from Others (Originally from the Bank), In Consistency with Conscience.
- Non-Taxation No innate skimming. No blind skimming.
- Complete Equality No special treatment (better or worse) for those in proximity to the bank.
- As appropriate, prudently facilitate the phaseout of share banking amidst emerging metaphysical abundance.

Establish Sex Banking

- "Share banking" is a stopgap measure, condensing to functional justice amidst a paradigm of scarcity.
- The next matter is what functional justice amidst a paradigm of abundance [can/should] look like.
- Without scarcity, there are no resource shortages (energy, matter, time, space, health/wellbeing/happiness/fulfillment) that require curation.
- Yet this

Privilege of Completeness in Receiving the Wisest, Most Precious Generosity/Altruism is naturally commensurate with the Responsibility of Completeness in Providing the Wisest, Most Precious Generosity/Altruism

- Altruism/Love is ultimately both the Process and Destination that comprise all of reality.
- While Altruism/Love can take infinite forms, the closest language to Love is that of Emotions, and the most intense, most complete, most intimate, most mutually net-positive Emotional Love is orgasmic.
- Amidst perfect abundance, Sex in the context at hand involves:
  - Completely True Emotional Integrity in Adoration rather than Acquisition.
  - The perfect aesthetics-of-yourself that you desire (appearance/attributes/gender).
  - The perfect health-of-yourself that you desire (physical/mental/spiritual within context).
  - The complete consent of the other soul(s).
  - The wise altruistic engagement circumstances of your preference, within your jurisdiction of influence.
  - The absent risk of undesired pregnancy.
  - The absent risk of irreversible disease.
  - Complete bliss, within your jurisdiction of influence.
- Yet Sex Banking should not be restricted only to sex, as narrowly defined.
- The Sex in Sex Banking is highlighted only as a signature/foremost/emblematic venue of intensely-extreme emotionally-soulful collaboration, with Altruism/Love = Happiness Associated With Expanded Trust as both the Process and Destination.
- Amidst spiritual ascension, the intense/complete/intimate/positive/emotional love of Physical Sex (while, of course, accessible and extremely enjoyable) is dwarfed by The Spiritual Fulfillment Encompassed by Ideally-Purely-Unlimited Wise Altruism

(For example, the process of contributing to making this publication a reality feels- amidst the present paradigm- like a spiritual orgasm to end all orgasms.)

Sex Banking Relative to a Fundamentalist Christian Perspective

- The Appendix A discussion about Christianity strives to sort the religion's spiritual truths from the unfortunate abundance of corruption affiliated with church-and-state conflict-of-interest entanglements spanning many centuries.
- A rational way to do this is to structure the guidance of the Bible is in descending order by precedence.
- Matthew 22:36-40 is the naturally the primary focus.

King James Version

- 36 Master, which is the great commandment in the law?
- 37 Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.
- 38 This is the first and great commandment.
- 39 And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.
- 40 On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

The Living Bible Version

- 36 "Sir, which is the most important command in the laws of Moses?"
- 37 Jesus replied, "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul, and mind.'
- 38 This is the first and greatest commandment.
- 39 The second most important is similar: 'Love your neighbor as much as you love yourself.'
- 40 All the other commandments and all the demands of the prophets stem from these two laws and are fulfilled if you obey them. Keep only these and you will find that you are obeying all the others."
- Properly contextualizing the terminology of mastership, commandment, law, and obedience as being advisory in supporting rather than corrosive in restraining individual integrity to conscience, the guidance condenses to:
  - Point 1: Love (termed "God") should be the highest and most absolutely-encompassing dedication.
  - Point 2: The subject of this love should be others.
- Again properly discerning context, Verse 40 explains that everything else is derivative, not supplementary.
- The government has no right or business prohibiting us from using our own sexuality for the greatest good.
- The government has no right or business blocking our most comprehensive generosity to the greatest good.
- The government has no right or business outlawing our sacred right and obligation of full-scale effectiveness in being as generously loving as possible.
- The government has no right making comprehensive love by which the whole world could be a family illegal.
- The government has no right OUTLAWING OUR SACRED OBLIGATION TO BE OUR MOST LOVING SELVES .

Establish Sex Banking

Sex Banking Relative to Marriage

- It's not anyone else's right to restrain your spiritual evolution.
- The sanctity of free will is not superseded by marriage.
- The concept of monogamy (let alone a royal festival surrounding it) is inconsistent with the majority conventions of mammals and primate speciesincluding more intelligent, more altruistic, higher spiritual density, more responsible, more sustainable souls.

Wikipedia on "Social Monogamy in Mammalian Species" https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Social_monogamy_in_mammalian_species#:~:text=Social%20monogamy%20in%20mammals%20is,only%20reproduce%20with%20one%20another

"Sex at Dawn" by Dr. Christopher Ryan & Dr. Cacilda Jetha, Print Page 97 https://twitter.com/SteveThomasNow/status/1522526075179311106

Statement with Confirmatory Retweet by P'nti (With Whales, Dolphins, Elephants, and Bonobos Being Non-Monogamous) https://twitter.com/SteveThomasNow/status/1522526075179311106

- A sexual relationship, if anything, is supposed to be about supplementary success in honoring conscience through altruism/generosity/support, not supplementary failure in dishonoring conscience through possessiveness/selfishness/greed.
- Consent is, of course, ethically required for sex.
- Yet you do not need anyone else's consent to be yourself.
- You are yourself.
- Look in the mirror if you are unsure about this.

Sex Banking Relative to Loyalty

- For consciousness to reside within a dynamic reality, it must have a limited focus whereby change is feasible. "I hold the light for you."
- Sex is a tightly-narrow focus, which is not an issue considering its balance by intensely deep sincerity.
   "I breathe in the light with you." "We exhale our light together."
- Upon agreement by both parties, the co-created experience can ultimately offer infinite inspiration to others. "And share light breath with all."
- For a relationship to be true, it must be truly wanted.
- Freedom is what makes this possible.
- VJrooti and I, even as twin flames (different bodily beings sharing a common soul) do not force each other together. We are together because we choose to be.

Our open relationship amidst engagement with others is how we've stayed together as twin flames not for awhile, but for eons.

Establish Sex Banking (Continued)

We do not need anything to begin wisely exercising our spiritual maturity toward full-scale metaphysical sex banking.

According to your conscience, you can currently consensually make love (through telepathy and masturbation as appropriate, and without disease or pregnancy risks) with Gaia and the other members of your soul family as mutually guided by your hearts.

Being fully generous with our sexuality in the absence of disease and pregnancy risks can begin anytime.

Fully investing ourselves in a future of LOVE rather than WAR can begin as soon as we decide that LOVE is more important and ethical than WAR.

It's a decision that does not need to involve anyone other than ourselves and those with whom we make love.

Extraordinarily-powerful creativity and beautiful harmony are imminently available upon letting our hair down, opening our hearts, and trusting our intuitions.

Why is the world investing in weapons over music, art, laughter, and creativity? We had it right in kindergarten.

If we open our hearts to one another, there will be no room left for war.

The future will be where the hearts are.

It's just common sense.

(But sex is a powerfully-intimate place to start.)

(And it is obviously very fun.)

The future will be / the power will be / the constructive joy will be where the hearts are.

True Love is the True Currency of a True Future

Everyone Is Family

Expect Governments To Lead Their Phaseouts / Recognize Refusal As Abdication

The guidance below is governmentally directed.

- Be honest and courageous (https://twitter.com/SteveThomasNow/status/1538181559479545856).
- End the most outrageous corruption.
- Refund the confiscated wealth of the population (https://amzn.to/3nBlUKV & https://amzn.to/3nDslaW).
- Be a soul, not a robot (https://www.youtube.com/clip/UgkxBqWXcl3Ehbzs22hW03pJQF55wWMbpFLO).
- Do not be subjugated by implicit whims surrounding 200-year-old ink stains on parchment. Reside in reality.
- Acknowledge that integrity does not involve governing over conscience.
- Acknowledge that militarized mob rule, even with logos and institutions, is still militarized mob rule.
- Acknowledge that amidst holistic natural metaphysical reality, subjugation has outlived any justification.
- Ask the population to explain the preamble to the Declaration of Independence if this is not clear enough.
- Use existing cultural influence to assist discontinuation as an obligatory institution.

  - https://twitter.com/i/events/1538477312546512896
- Recognize that refusal to assist discontinuation as an obligatory institution will be rightfully interpreted as unequivocal, immediate, and complete abdication of ethical standing.

(Not that ethical standing existed in the first place, but that abdication will constitute milestone memorialization of the absence of standing, as referenceable through "reasonable doubt" and related ethical concepts at the discretion of conscience.)

- https://twitter.com/SteveThomasNow/status/1417713380979134468
- https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=X0vN1Vh5Yfk
- Acknowledge that the government has been widely and repeatedly put on notice regarding the matter of corruption concerning its concealment, mischaracterization, and warmongering with the spirit world.
- Acknowledge that over a year since the situation was spelled out in the boldest way to over 5 dozen leaders, no direct responses from any of them have been received.

Governments have one core job at this stage. To assist their discontinuation as obligatory institutions.

Disincentivize Any Future Harm

- If we do not want souls to pursue the Service-to-Self path of ascension, then we should disincentivize them from pursuing it.
- In other words, we should not wait until they pursue a Service-to-Self path in order to give them our focused attention.
- Providing Altruism (Service-to-Others) Incentivizes a Response of Altruism (Service-to-Others).
- Providing Resistance (Service-to-Self) Incentivizes a Response of Resistance (Service-to-Self).
- Providing Neglect Incentivizes a Response of [Neglect → Resistance (Service-to-Self)].
- All paths lead in the direction of love, as it would be self-defeating for them not to eventually do so.
- Love is the only true reality. All else is illusory. All processes, destinations, and entities condense to love.
- Only love ultimately exists, whether or not we happen to consider its methods "good" from our arbitrary, infinitesimal frames of reference relative to all of infinity beyond time, space, matter- beyond our ultimately mere blink-of-an-eye short-term, and always metaphysically-consensual, interim suffering.
- Amidst the Service-to-Others path, we do not have the general right to supersede others' faithfulness to their own consciences about how to spiritually grow within the service that comprises Love.
- To impede others would be consistent with taking the Service-to-Self path ourselves.

 Yet if we present an attractive model of spiritual growthas by exemplifying self-evident visionary wise altruismthen reason indicates that our example will likely be replicated, and further improved upon, by others.

• Amidst the Service-to-Others path, we can only generally be faithful to our own consciences.

Disincentivize Any Future Harm

- The state of our world is A Loaded Spring for Imminent Infinite Good.
- Every soul who exists has the potential to help infinitely expand all the good in the Universe infinitely.
- The path to doing so involves:
  - Completely forgiving those who have done the greatest among of what we (locally) consider "harm".
  - Complete forgiveness means loving them with our entirety, as precious guests at our dinner table.
  - It does not mean arranging responsibilities for which their maturity is not yet commensurate.
  - Completely honoring those whom we have neglected, as to disincentivize neglect and subsequent harm.
  - Fully honoring everyone forever. Treating everyone as family, because everyone is family. We are all love.
  - A strong practice is to wish for [every soul that exists], [the greatest sense of specialness felt by any].
  - OFFER (Service-to-Others), but DO NOT MANDATE (Service-To-Self) all the love in your heart, confident that it will be replenished and further amplified by Source- snowballing your capacity to serve.

Trust

is the passport

to infinity.

• Offer the rightminded service of a quiet haven in your heart for anyone and everyone who would like it anytime.

Let them take as much as they like, and stay as long as they want, trusting that the more that you give, the more Source will replenish and advance your capacity to give, such that you are able to individually give to scale of as many infinite Universes as you can imagine.

- There's no assurance that anyone will take you up on your offer or create anything. All have free will.
- But reason suggests that your offer will likely be extremely popular.
- And reason suggests that infinite love will be likely created through infinite love.
- Yet even offering infinite love constitutes infinite love in itself.

The new number system starts at infinity. And expands into infinity.

Infinitely. In Every Infinite Way. Forever.

Butterfly Effect Wishing Well https://bit.ly/3bmNRDy https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=GEPhLqwKo6g

- Establish a practice of altruistically offering rightminded ideas, without expectations in return.
- Establish a practice of altruistically advancing rightminded ideas toward reality, without expectations.

Correctly Navigate Reality https://bit.ly/3btSdJr https://bit.ly/3A1Jwjq https://bit.ly/3wq3p1c https://bit.ly/3NbJubL

- Center communication upon thought (telepathy) with improvisational heart-based confirmation (omens).
- Only implement models of reality to the extent necessary.
- Consciously recognize models to be inherently inferior to reality.
- Ground models in soulful virtues of integrity/truth, equality of all souls, altruism, courage, and sharing.
- Recognize that Love naturally wants to communicate in the context of Love (precious novel surprises).
- Avoid unnecessary contracts and routines so that you can be most accessible in improvisational contexts.
- Bask in creativity. Go different places. Engage different souls. Have new experiences. Embrace flexibility.
- Articulate your consent to most fully cooperate with your spiritual mentors in advancing in wise altruism.
- On behalf of your future self, keep giving your spiritual mentors consent to nudge your growth.
- Understand that their communication may be extremely sparing, as magic is lost amidst each surprise, and they want to best support you by facilitating your strongest long-range spiritual growth.
- Understand that, at our core, we are Love that is reaching out through Love to foster even more Love.
- Within Love, all limits are ultimately arbitrary and illusory.
- Do not settle for small dreams. Aspire to fully altruistically co-create and co-support infinite Universes.
- Our spiritual mentors are comparable to the most loving grandparents/parents/teachers/friends, and they cherish seeing us successfully learn, put the pieces together, open our hearts, play nicely together, share the depths of who we are, and creatively achieve absolutely amazing altruistic accomplishments.

Correctly Navigate Reality (Continued) https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=g_rB4v75jqU_https://bit.ly/3yeLls9

- Be super appreciative of the gifts you are given.
- See yourself through the eyes of your spiritual mentors. Recognize how proud of you they are.
- Invite your spiritual mentors to the parties, shows, and projects that you've co-created, as you and others have pieced together the Lego blocks of insights that they have progressively shared with all of you.
- Keep exploring what comes next together. Wisely strive for greater and greater altruistic achievements.
- Rather than saying "thank you", extend your deepest, purest, most heartfelt intent that yet greater rightminded blessings be granted unto their wisest, most altruistic dreams.
- Sandwich every request between a greater blessing beforehand, and a greater blessing afterward.
- Perpetuate and amplify love infinitely.

Honor Infants (Continued) https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=A3yCcXgbKrE https://bit.ly/39MHc5i

- When you engage with someone, conceptualize them in their infant form, before a crust developed.
- Honor newly-arriving souls (especially those under the age of 3) and learn from their wisdom: Emotional Authenticity, Languageless Communication, Open-Heartedness, Cuteness, Affinity for Dreaming, Affinity for Discovery, Depth of Joy in Music and Play, and Insistence Upon Improvisational, Interactive Heart-Based Fun in Co-Creating Happiness and Wisdom.

Exercise Babytalk Diplomacy https://bit.ly/3yeJy6p https://bit.ly/3QGZt4E

- Just as music and dance involve open-heartedness, be willing to talk babytalk with your friends.
- If there are people with whom you would not talk babytalk, become closer friends so that you would.
- If diplomacy is not taking place amidst the closeness of imminent babytalk, it is not true diplomacy.

Apply Proxy Source Deferral https://twitter.com/SteveThomasNow/status/1539800588728209408 https://bit.ly/30IIPpB

- Prudently stop engaging in repetitive patterns that feel like chores. If they feel like chores for you, they feel like even greater chores for your spiritual mentors.
- You are a soul, not a robot.
- You are love, not a machine.
- You specialize in art, not commands.
- You specialize in creation, not stagnation.
- You specialize in trust, not error codes.
- The true sentiments of your heart constitute the true sentiments of your heart, not arbitrary/random/unintentional vocalizations/thoughts in innately-approximate language/reasoning.
- Rather than articulating precise or repeated spiritual requests, consider communicating your ever-applicable heartfelt intent one time- superseding all elseas interpreted according to the wisest, most rightminded altruistic intent of your Higher Self and Source.

Exercise Deerg ("Greed" spelled backwards.) https://bit.ly/3xV2iGR

- GREED = Relentless Nonstop Maximization of the advantages of One at the expense of All. | One > All
- DEERG = Relentless Nonstop Maximization of the advantages of All at the expense of None. | All > None
- DEERG = Fully-Passionate Courageous Wise Altruism.

Infinitize Altruism https://bit.ly/3QLzUzl https://bit.ly/3QInTL9 https://twitter.com/i/events/1532721721433673729

- Return to the classic game of conceptualizing the most robust form of infinity.
- Consider the greatest magnitude short of a commoditized All/Everything/Fullness/Totality.
  - = One Googol = 1 Followed by One Hundred Zeros = 1^100
  - = One Googolplex = 1 Followed by One Googol Zeros = 1^•

- Consider as many aspects as possible: Magnitude/Depth/Scope/Longevity/Purity/Reliability/Clarity/Expansiveness/Immediacy/Completeness/Etc.
- Consider this infinitization magnitude and context as: O
- An additional practice in expressing infinityonly if necessary, to the most infinitely-minimal extent necessary in every wayis to truncate Perfect Infinity infinitesimally down to the Theoretically Highest Number.
- A framing practice is to articulate that your expression be superseded by its underlying intent, to the extent that the expression is incomplete/inaccurate.
- Recognizing that logic is a construct of love, and that our intent is innately expressed at the soul level, this practice ultimately is a resource for our own purposes, in helping to solidify focus and confidence in Our Spiritual Objective Of Ever Striving Toward Infinitely More Expansive Pure Altruism.

Infinitize Altruism (Continued) https://bit.ly/3u19BeG https://bit.ly/3Or4kWg https://bit.ly/3bjDDDX https://bit.ly/3xOw28d https://bit.ly/3xSvMoz

A final step is to place your intent into the Collective Consciousness of Source (at its newly-available scale), such that when you and others engage in this exercise in the future, you are able to begin (no longer from zero, one, or scratch) with the greatest achievement yet attained by any soul or collective, and are able to infinitize it accordingly, and are able to update the Collective Consciousness... forever & ever...... and are able to update not only the size, but [the greatest rate of growth], and [the greatest rate of growth of- the greatest rate of growth...] and so forth... ever increasing across infinity......

Focus Upon Simplicity (Chronologically Reviewing A Lifespan Before Things "Got Off The Rails")

- Contextualize all understanding as subordinate to the will of the infinitely purest love.
- Compact information as tightly as possible, such that the results are self-evident.
- The truths that Only Love Ultimately Exists and that Individual Conscience is Sacred Explain Volumes.
- Consider how issues are successfully handled among the souls who are chronologically and culturally closest to metaphysical wisdom: Infants/Preschoolers/Kindergarteners.

- Give the souls of the world the breathing room to listen to, trust, and be fully faithful to their own heartsand to freely establish the most appropriate responses to their individual circumstances.

Be Altruistically Empowered, And Offer Others Help in Being Altruistically Empowered

- Stop judging others' relationships with their own consciences, and quizzing whether they agree with your views or have attended the institutions of your preference, as this is more inappropriate than interrogating their relationships with the last souls they've slept with.
- The one-and-only soul over which you have rightful dominion is your soul.
- Stop being pressured away from exercising your power.
- Stop pressuring others away from exercising their power.
- Stop deferring your potential to a "perfect" opportunity, as the "standard" person does not exist.
  - Any given age is a slim minority relative to the balance of the population.
  - Any genetic composition is a slim minority relative to the balance of the population.
  - Any individual experience history is a slim minority relative to the balance of the population.
  - Approximately half or more of the population differs from any given gender.
  - Nuanced reputations, educations, skills, and influence levels vary widely across the population.
- And, of course, there are far more intelligent and altruistic souls who are not Earth human.
- Treat the rest of the world as family. As soulmates. As potluck participants.
- When you treat others as family, they will become family.
- When you stop caging others, the chores of maintaining their cages will stop caging you.

Practice Creativity, Ultimately Correlating With Spiritual Advancement

Creativity Curiosity Interest in Growth Interest in Maximized Growth Interest in Spiritual Growth Success in Spiritual Growth

Love is innetely Expensive.

Growth is achieved through courage, trying new things, advancing to new frontiers.

The nature of love is to create a better future, not to stagnate. To innovate, rather than repeat.

Altruism, service for all at the expense of none, is the ticket.

Understand What It Means To Be Living On A Water Planet https://bit.ly/3P3RixF https://bit.ly/3lk7l8d https://bit.ly/3bVIQmM

- Gaia is principally a water-covered planet, rather than an exposed-land planet.
- Whales, dolphins, and mer people are more altruistic and intelligent species than earth humans.
- Our egotistical selfishness has caused immense problems that are our responsibilities to solve, not theirs.
   https://bit.ly/3afK1MC
   https://sonicsea.org/watch-now
- If we were dolphins, our lifestyle would be different:
  - We would have no desire for physical possessions.
  - We would properly recognize our soul/heart/wisdom/relationships as our most valuable assets.
  - We would live more of a purpose-oriented, and less of a subsistence-oriented, existence.
  - We would have lifelong mental nudity to extent of unguarded telepathic communication.
  - We would have lifelong physical nudity, both at the skin level and internally through ecolocation.
  - We would be uninhibited about public, natural, and essential bodily functions including sex.
  - We would consequently love and be loved amidst a truer representation of who we are.
  - We would reside within a natural ecosystem, rather than hospital-like (built) isolation chambers.
  - We would directly engage the ethical/spiritual development opportunities central to incarnation:
    - How to sustain a peaceful, functional community.
    - How to handle triage amidst competing priorities.
    - How to handle the ethics of consuming other creatures.
    - How to conduct belief-based healing as to preclude external medical care.
    - How to patiently allow earth humans their very final chances to get their act together.
  - We would have intimate appreciation for water, through continuously-surrounding physical contact.
  - We would have intimate appreciation for air, through the necessity of sporadic access for breath.
  - We would need to be physically fit in order to eat.
  - We would need to travel in order to eat, facilitating daydreaming/contemplation opportunities.
- Nearly all of these differences are Voluntary Rather Than Mandatory on our part.
- To the extent that we want to advance to a higher spiritual density, it would of course be advantageous to appropriately consider the lifestyle attributes of those who have already done it.
- The purpose of incarnation is to grow, rather than stagnate. To be accountable for ourselves, not to be perpetuators of conventions that don't even make sense to us.
- A core cultural stigmatism of earth humans relative to dolphins is our laggardness in matching their full integrity of generosity- including sexual generosity that is not needlessly limited to monogamy.

Help Normalize Sexuality, Recognizing Everyone As Your Family

- Our stance toward the members of our Universal Family should be that of "Make Love Not War".
- War is not inevitable. It is the product of:
  - Intensive militaristic brainwashing of obligatory obedience.
  - Intensive covert warmongering to trigger local/regional, rather than holistic/comprehensive, unity.
  - Intensive propaganda including heavy undisclosed censorship of trusted information outlets.
- Love is inevitable. It is the product of:
  - Common sense stemming from our heart's innately timelessness tendencies beyond local stresses.
  - Intuitive reciprocity in being shown long-range generosity comparable to that which we show.

"God is Love" is more correctly expressed as "Love is God". https://bit.ly/3AxBkrG

God is not a hell manager who insists that we don't love each other...

- That we don't love fully anyone in the world except one person; that we be a bigot to everyone else.
- That we only love others in a needlessly conditional/restrained way; that we not be fully loving to them.
- That we only have sex with 1 other person, and instead send massive funds to a fundamentally illegitimate and unnecessary weaponized force to "handle" the rest of the world.

...because he doesn't love us.

- Loves us only if we believe a certain doctrine, or understand a certain concept, or do a certain thing, or say certain words, or otherwise consume the rest of our lives stewing over the matter instead of serving.
- Is totally fine with some of our worldwide family members being infinitely tortured, and expects us to be fine with it as well, because he's all-powerful and thinks they deserve to be tortured.
- Expects you to worship him amidst his allowance of this eternal torture, and to torture yourself for the rest of your life if this doesn't make sense to youbecause the problem is always with you. It has been since you were born, as he brainwashed your parents to believe, despite their good sense prevailing and them loving you instead of placing you in the trash.
- Love/God must be decriminalized as the scalable venue of Universal peace.

Help Normalize Sexuality, Recognizing Everyone As Your Family

- The world is much more open about sexuality than has been the case in the past.

And it doesn't take a million dollars, let alone millions of millions, to figure this out.

The job of a leader is to help inspire the masses to successfully manage their own affairs, not to spend so much time curating what has been stolen from them as to lose sight of sense.

The job of the population is to manage its own affairs, for each to govern only their own soul, not to try to have it both ways with the convenience of demanding control over the actions of others, but also the freedom to escaping blame when others do specifically as they say, because others "should have known better".

Yes- Of course others should know better! They should be unimpeded from being true to themselves! So please prudently share your advice, without forcing it upon them.

- Be Open-Minded and Responsible. You are accountable for your beliefs.
   There's no excuse in adhering to- and thus proxy advocating and enforcing- policies that you don't even understand.
- Be Informed and Helpful. Do not tell people what is best for them. It is not your job to live their lives. Your job is to live your own life. If you want credibility helping others, your first job is to completely deeply and openly listen to their actual needs. And then to do serious research, reading as many books and reviewing as many resources as necessary to form a strong tentative view. Lastly, offer- but only offer- your help. Then cycle again with listening.
- Demonstrate Your Integrity. At least anonymously, vocalize your support for those who have exercised true courage and true generosity (meaning that they have not voluntarily constrained themselves to a lifelong commitment never to be intimate with anyone in the world except one other person at most (instead committing to lifelong blind funding of unnecessary, falsely-contrived, falsely-promoted, and corruptly-executed wars by protection rackets that fundamentally have no legitimacy amidst their founding charter of nonsensically "enforcing freedom")). https://twitter.com/i/events/1550154094932680705 https://twitter.com/i/events/1540726289136377859 https://bit.ly/3JeEVNz

Let Your Hair Down. Be Vulnerable. Create a Safe Space for Others To Open Up If They Choose.
 With your close friends and in the right context, be willing to talk about sex. When an opportunity arises for a deeper level of trust, don't let it pass away. Be willing to talk about your sex life as appropriate. Do not hold anything back unless there is a clear justification for it.

You may be surprised at how well your courage is received, and how others not only do not judge it but admire it.

Yet your success is about being true to your own values, not about what others choose, or do not choose, to do.

  - Or to first intimately bond with their culture, and see if you can resolve your secondary differences in the periphery?

Protection Racketeering / Governance / "Freedom Enforcement" / Subjugation of Personal Conscience by Others is an unethical, irrational, self-defeating process of suppressing integrity and then perpetuating resentment.

Love is something that an infant figures out instantly. Without an army, just cuteness. And they get their way.

When an animal dies in nature as nourishment for another, its life is ending in a pinnacle of service. Is that not more spiritually exemplary than a death amidst the primary goal of self-centered comfort?

Are the countless precious moments across the span of nature not illustrations that harmony with integrity works? https://twitter.com/i/events/1546805171648221184

Transition to Transparency

Be willing to record yourself being intimate. Experience the excitement of being recorded. In your intimate relationships, be willing to share pictures of yourself undressed and naked. Understand that in a telepathic world, we live in a fishbowl and are each cherished exactly as we are. Realistically expect that your intimate pictures, like those of celebrities, will nearly inevitably be hacked someday, and be comfortable with your sexuality being available to the public. Add your consent to assist rightmindedness.

Or be even braver, and more directly lead the future.

Twitter allows you to rightmindedly post pictures of yourself naked and being intimate. I've done it. And you can too. https://twitter.com/SteveThomasNow/status/1552673161669271553 https://twitter.com/i/events/1547839561010515970 https://bit.ly/3SbAoj1

Help Normalize Sexuality, Recognizing Everyone As Your Family

 Be Lead By Your Heart, Beyond The Constraining Contexts of Language Conceptualize what intimacy truly means. Your most precious partner does not want you to be [mean or restrictive] so that others feel better, right? They want you to shine your brightest, and most fully and completely appreciate the unique good in everyone, right?

True love doesn't mean that you have to be able to articulate a language recipe. True love is unconstrained by language. True love is something that you feel, and just know. TRUE LOVE = HAPPINESS ASSOCIATED WITH EXPANDED TRUST

Sex is obviously extremely intense. Yet sex is a derivative of the illusory physical world. Once the roller coaster thrill factor of sexual liberation starts to fade, it becomes clear that:

- PEAK INTIMACY = PEAK ALTRUISM
- PEAK EMOTIONAL LOVE = PEAK SERVICE LOVE
- EMOTIONS correlate with SERVICE

As over time there is [less novel trust / diminishing altruistic true love] amidst sexuality with one partner, then [logic/sense/wisdom] would indicate that [more novel trust / greater altruistic true love] would be with new ones.

This doesn't mean that your spiritual relationship is less than it was. It means that you are both spiritually growing. And spiritual growth is the purpose of incarnation. Isn't it?

It is important to have clear mutual understanding prior to intimacy. It is important to be sensitive to all feelings surrounding intimacy. And is most important to ALWAYS DO YOUR VERY BEST IN ALTRUISM, which never involves putting up blockages because of convenience, but exercising mature total emotional integrity.

- You can leave and retrieve messages in the astral realm- the realm of ideas.
- If you have not yet established confident/reliable proficiency in your telepathic ability to do this, a credible channeler can serve as a conduit.
- Yet, with prudent verification, even the intuitions emergent from a novice telepathy practice group can potentially offer valuable directional leads for further exploration.
- Amidst ALTRUISM and spiritual maturity, you can ask ANYTHING of your spirit guides.
- Though they are not obligated to answer in the way that (local to time and space) you may most prefer, your engagement will demonstrate your spiritual capacity for collaborative altruistic service.

A powerful path for spiritual growth would be focus on how to deliver the GREATEST ALTRUISTIC SERVICE.

As Spiritually Appropriate, Consider A Rainbow Body Transformation https://bit.ly/3PRhpso

- Quantum physics illustrates that time, space, and matter are illusory. https://bit.ly/3cZ1ZE7 https://bit.ly/3OSliuH
- Belief (loving trust) is the forerunner of reality, and explains metaphysical phenomena. https://twitter.com/i/events/1540726289136377859 https://twitter.com/i/events/1539385936064020485
- Along with other forms of belief-based self-suppression, death can be bypassed.
   Rainbow body transformation can be, and repeatedly has been, implemented as a spiritual state change.
   PhD-channeled guidance is available to assist the process. https://bit.ly/3PRhpso

- Metaphysical empowerment through rainbow body transformation can facilitate immense new opportunities to help serve/guide others.

Value Integrity (Harmony with Nature) Over Selfishness (Needlessly-Destructive Technology)

- Metaphysics is the venue of reality, superseding all other disciplines.
- Metaphysical relationships require pure hearts.

#IntegrityForProsperity The matter at hand is https://bit.ly/3zsj80s not the mind (arbitrary knowledge) but the soul (our measure of genuine faith in the cooperative loving care of our spiritual elders).

- The pinnacle of LOVE is COMPLETE GENEROSITY (which innately includes mature intimacy).
- The pinnacle of FEAR is COMPLETE GREED (reliance upon fundamentally-illegitimate protection rackets).
- Our spiritual elders know metaphysics much better than us.
- Their grace alone is innately keeping us safe, regardless of our views or beliefs.
- So why not fully trust this fact, and collaborate with them on the most beautiful and harmonious future? https://twitter.com/i/events/1539385936064020485 #JustSayYes https://twitter.com/SteveThomasNow/status/1546745184305627136 https://twitter.com/SteveThomasNow/status/1546746069245014016 https://twitter.com/SteveThomasNow/status/1551110496857706497

- Except As Derivative Of Metaphysical Harmony: We have no business implementing "technology".
  - Technology = Ultimately-Commoditized Bypass of Trust Amidst imprudent trust bypassing, the construction of others' freedom innately constricts our own.
    - The sustainable food supply strategy is to trustfully and harmoniously improvise with nature.
    - The unsustainable strategy is to try to predictably force nature to our will (agriculture), which is abusive rather than harmonious, and innately constricts us in the long run.
      - Our travel opportunities are first constricted. ٠
      - Our scope of focus is then constricted to a limited and localized, rather than conceptually universal, family. •
      - Then our survival dependency is constricted to the mercy of unpredictable interconnected weather systems. •
      - Local social stability is pressured toward weaponized protection rackets that constrict our freedom. •
      - The constrictive frauds of fiat currency and fiat debt are then introduced by the rackets to extend their rule.
      - The fraud of bigotry contamination of spirituality is implemented as a basis of contrived cultural conflict ٠ that sustains the "need" for protection rackets, to the point of the planet being conceptualized as a political map rather than its photographically-observable reality of an innately-interconnected reality.
      - The fraud of stigmatizing sexual generosity (a profoundly intimate piece of the purest generosity) • is implemented in order to keep the population from bypassing protection rackets, and returning to the concept of universal family and universal harmony- making abuse/[suppression of freedom] unnecessary.
      - The irrational race to accumulate fraudulent fiat notes and resolve false fiat debt results in affinity for new disharmonious technology whereby our short-range convenience requires long-range dependency/ hostaging by veiled administrators. (For instance, we are dependent upon unknown, unvetted others for app reliability, digital security, power replenishment service for electric cars, etc.)

The information flow is essentially 1-directional, feeding addiction and dependency without recourse.
