Learning

Developing [Trust = Prudent Rightminded Knowledge-Based Self-Confidence]

Prudent: • Openminded with default trust, as applicable amidst wise discernment.

Rightminded: • Being positively-oriented toward yourself and others.

- Seeing through others' eyes.
- Recognizing that everything is an act of love (of something, even if primarily oneself).
- Reinforcing the best. Reinforcing acts of unity/appreciation. Even if as simple as eating.
- Helping to bridge away division.
- Graciously altruistic. Helping everyone to feel comfortable around you.
- Naturally contributing to everyone as family, because they are your family.

Knowledge-Based: • Trustworthy on the basis of circumstances such as:

- Independent Verification.
- Absence Of Objections Amidst Active Requests For Corrections From Reliable Oversight.
- [Broad Contexts / Broad Tolerances / Limited Precision] That Flexibly Facilitates Practical Organization.
- Intensive Prior Research.
- Subject Matter Familiarity.
- Relationship Establishment.
- Past Experience.
- Metaphysical Communication Acumen.
- Collaborative Paradigm That Prevents Ego-Ballooning And Subsequent Shutdown.
- Emotional Resonance.
- Synchronistic Verification.
- Dowsing Verification.
- Metaphysical Verification.
- Self-Evident Logic.
- Appropriate Interpolation And/Or Extrapolation.
- Other Appropriate Foundations Of Confidence.

Self-Confidence: • Ability to prioritize accuracy over precision.

- Ability to recognize that everything, within a context, is true.
- Discernment to structure contexts in the most honest way for the greatest value.
- Ability to dance with the balance of reality in eventually teasing out precision.
- Ability to self-conceptualize as Source / All-Inclusive We.

Learning is not about Remembering Facts (which are ultimately arbitrary dots of point-in-time-utility knowledge).

Learning is about Developing Trust so that everything appropriate is accessible for the good of everyone.

We are here to learn.
We are here to remember.

Our greatest joy is when we lose ourselves in what we love.
...suggesting...

We are most ourselves
when we lose ourselves in joyful service.

Sustaining A Safe Space

Conductive To Abundance, Support, Inspiration, and Success

Like Legos, puzzle pieces, train cars, and attractions sprawled across an amusement park, a great number of prospective resources/ideas can facilitate an exponential number of individual sequences, arrangements, and stories, potentially enabling many others to be helped while self-empowering them to learn to fish (trust), instead of becoming externally-dependent/operationally-castrated in sourcing fish (begging).

Eating The Apple

We can conceptualize the process of graduating through a spiritual density as that of eating an apple.

Spiritual Densities = Profound States of Soulful Awareness

Density	Lesson for Graduation to Next Density
1	Existence in Local Form (Start of Octave)
2	Activity
3	Thought
4	Love
5	Wisdom
6	Unity of Love and Wisdom
7	Existence in Complete Form (Completion of Octave)

We, of course, do not need to eat the whole apple to learn the lesson.

A tiny crucial bite may be sufficient to impactfully and lastingly intuit everything we ultimately desire. Or striving to eat as much as possible of the apple may give us a robust body of multi-angle experience.

We want to eat enough of the apple to learn what is appropriate.
We want to finish eating soon enough to efficiently proceed to what is next.

Building The Birdfeeder

Though a mixed metaphor in regard to teaching others to fish, we may want to conceptualize of our service for others as a birdfeeder.

The more that we invest in making the birdfeeder as practical, efficient, high-capacity, innovative, exemplary, and bird-empowering as possible, the more we will later be able to fulfillingly observe the ripples of its rightminded influence across potentially many future generations.

Connecting back with the concept of eating an apple, there can be an advantage in lingering to [eat more of the apple = further refine the birdfeeder] before moving onto the next spiritual venue within which the birdfeeder cannot be accessed as directly but its indirect connectivity can be vastly increased.

Thoughts For Consideration

The subsequently-presented stream-of-consciousness
lexicon of prospective concepts are presented...

- To help Spark Your Creativity.
The constructive, expedient process of quickly identifying tangent ideas to every idea-like an exponentially branching/expanding tree of ideas, of which the very best fruit can be selected for harvest.
- To Present Ideas that, while not necessarily right or wrong, are regarded as Valuable to Conceptualize.
- To Support Your completely-unrestricted Use/implementation/extension/ ∞ etc. as you see fit.
- To Assist Thought Experiments about:
 - Their Culture.
 - Our Culture.
 - The Foundational Values, Wisdom, Destiny, and Sanctity of Their Culture and the Natural World.
 - The Foundational Values, Wisdom, Destiny, and Sanctity of Our Culture and the Natural World.
 - The Limitations of Our Perceptions.
 - The Infinite Potential of Harmony Across All Souls and Cultures.
 - Infinitely-Infinitized Infinite Love.
- To help you Contemplate Questions such as:
 - If we were Sasquatch, what would we want, desire, think, hope, wish, and seek?
 - Would it be liberating to musically/emotionally harmonize with us?
 - Are we wrongmindedly encouraging them to be like us?
 - Or are we rightmindedly exercising love toward them and toward all?
 - Are we honoring their culture and free will?
 - Are we honoring our free will and the rightminded advancement of our culture?
 - How would we feel if remaining innately-sacred natural spaces were turned into urban alleyways?
 - Would we want their habitat to go in that direction? <https://bit.ly/3Lz2zHP>
 - Would we want our habitat to go in that direction? Who is responsible for our destiny but us?
 - Would we feel good about giving them an asphalt paving machine?
 - Would we feel good about- directly or indirectly- operating one ourselves?
 - Would we take a vacation in Hawaii or in a parking lot? <https://bit.ly/3YXIIVT>
 - Why should we have to vacate to go to a place like Hawaii when it existed all along, and all we had to do was harmoniously let it be?
 - Isn't it more fulfilling/rewarding/engaging/empowering to create/rehabilitate rather than to vacate?
 - Is it natural to want to go on [vacation from/vacate] your own home, rather than let it be paradise itself?
 - Instead of going to Hawaii, why not bring Hawaii to where we are?
 - Is it rational to take a sledgehammer to our planet, and then pay ourselves in shares of its damaged self?
 - As our governments secretly hold metaphysical technologies nearly beyond imagination, wouldn't the prospective altruistic benefits for those in need be among the reasons to responsibly offer olive branches of complete forgiveness?
