NATURAL = REAL

A Better Future For Everyone

---

Indigenous = Naturality = Reality

Reality is the only way in the long run.

---

- A nation/tribe is a common culture (sustained by harmonization with conscience). N = Nation = Nice
  - A country/state is a protection racket (sustained by harmonization with weapons). C = Country = Corrupt

FRAUD AND GENOCIDE DO NOT CONSTITUTE LEGAL TITLE.

- The country known as the United States was stolen from indigenous people through fraud and genocide.
- Today's "legal" "justice" forcibly administers that to which the administrators do not have legitimate title.

INTEGRITY MEANS ALIGNMENT WITH INDIVIDUAL CONSCIENCE.

- True (full-hearted) justice condenses to conscience, requiring consent that cannot be outsourced.
- Again- Consent cannot be outsourced.
- Protection rackets are based upon the lie that consent can be outsourced.
- The perpetuation of this lie takes place through peer pressure, rather than conceptual or moral legitimacy.
- We each have a different story amidst the spiritual ecosystem, and a different information base of conscience.
- The Universe, with the wisdom that holds the galaxies in place for eons, authorizes each of our existences.
- We have the opportunity to learn by trusting each other- valuing each other's roles in the spiritual ecosystem.
- Trust is built by (taking turns) being the first to trust.
- We cannot blame others for not trusting us- if we do not trust them first.

WINNER-TAKE-ALL MEANS THAT ESSENTIALLY EVERYONE LOSES.

- Unbacked paper money historically becomes worthless.
(It is perpetuated through force and peer pressure, rather than sustainable legitimacy.)
- In the interim, money constitutes a winner-take-all dynamic, in which the population becomes destitute.
- The purpose of culture is to facilitate the broadest success, rather than the broadest failure.

WHOLE-HEARTED, OPEN-HEARTED, RIGHTMINDEDNESS IS THE PATH FORWARD.

- Rightmindedness means thinking positively about oneself and others, and contributing to family and community.
- If we focus upon and amplify that which is right, then what is wrong will fall from our attention and continuity.
- Creative (curious and confident), rightminded (altruistic), authentic (true-to-conscience) paradigms attract attention.

RETURNING TO REALITY

RETURNING TO NATURALITY

REIMAGINING TRIBAL CASINO RESORTS

- Functionality in teaching settlers to become indigenous, rather than in teaching indigenous to become settlers.
- Nexus points (bridges) between cultures to help enable evolution of hearts, and collaborative dissolution of failures.
  - Gaming – The Truest Game
    - Starting where we are- How can we facilitate the best possible future for everyone, especially Gaia?
    - What do the little children (untainted newly-arriving souls) think?
    - What do the elders (bridges to deep local traditions) think?
    - What do our unseen family (all souls and collectives) think?
  - Dining – The Truest Dining
    - What does local subsistence mean?
    - How can we reinstitute it?
  - Music, Dance, Cinema, Recreation, Culture, and Living – The Truest/Most Indigenous Way of Being
    - What are the traditions of this land?
    - How can we share our stories and grow together in the most rightminded way possible?
    - How can we advance our communal trust to harmonize with all of this land's inhabitants and family?

REIMAGINING THE POLICE

- Of theory and practice, only practice is real.
- Protection racketeering is only as real as the thin line of the police/military.
- You don't need a lawyer to recognize right from wrong, which is the basis of justice.
- Consent with conscience cannot be outsourced.
- Indigenous people have rightful title to the land, and are well poised as wise social mentors.
- Police are presently well poised as recent experts on their localities.
- If the police can be guided to recognize indigenous leaders as the rightful mentors of this land, and if indigenous leaders can guide the police in moderating peace through consent rather than through force, then the police will become indigenous themselves.

REIMAGINING THE POPULATION

- The broad population is not nearly as malicious at heart, as largely exhausted and apathetic/lackadaisical/lazy.
- If indigenous values can be successfully demonstrated and persuaded, and already adopted by socially-recognized influencers (especially the police)- then short-term social conformity may bridge to long-term internal awakening about the importance of conscience and courage.

REIMAGINING CHURCHES

- If churches can summon the resolve to be necessary voices of conscience against weaponized enforcement of a genocidal framework, they can constitute powerful community centers for the sharing of indigenous guidance.

REIMAGINING OUR BROADER FAMILY

- Everything is spirit, and the unseen world has been my lifelong guide.
- They are waiting for us to stop colonizing one another, and to reach the ethical maturity to explore beyond Gaia.

REIMAGINING THE FUTURE

- Reason reduces to reliance upon (arbitrary, and thus ultimately unreliable) patterns.
- Recognizing that all is spirit, and that belief creates reality (as with the placebo effect), we need not be limited by misrepresentation of reality as heartless, billiard-ball, closed-form science. Rather we can thrive amidst metaphysics.
