Indigenouness = Integrity To Conscience = Integrity

All People Are Equal.

Justice Is About Being Just.

Genocide And Ongoing Fraud
Do Not Constitute A Legitimate Basis Of Land Rights.

An Ounce Of Prevention Is Worth A Pound Of Cure.
And Prevention Requires Accessibility To Peoples' Hearts:

Sincere Cooperation Because People Truly Choose To Cooperate.

Rather Than

Insincere Cooperation Because People Are Forced To "Cooperate".

We Cannot Expect Others To Trust Us, If We Do Not Trust Them First.

To Fully Open Their Hearts,
People Need To Be Free To Follow
Their Hearts,
Their Conscience,
Their Sense of Right And Wrong:

The [Natural=True] Basis of [Justice=Being Just].

One's Right To Be True To Their Own Heart Is Sacrosanct.

Because each of us has a different story and background, our consciences are different.

The same wisdom that holds the galaxies in place for eons, has unanimously from birth authorized each of us to be here.

We would be wise to align with, rather than to contest, the Universe.

Honoring the diverse consciences that comprise our spiritual ecosystem is essential for its local and collective success and sustainability.

Rather than valuing the arbitrary consciences of those who have the most weaponry, and trying to socially standardize everyone else in alignment with them-
by using weaponry to enforce the supremacy of taking orders over being faithful to individual conscience.

There Is Strength And Opportunity In A Wide Range Of Lenses.

Service Condenses To Care, Not Ammo.

A Government Is Only As Real As Its Police (Threats/Weaponry/Military).

The Police Are Essentially Unrealistically Given All Of Society's Problems,
 With Only Threats As Sources Of Power
 And With Only Rights To Remediate Rather Than To Prevent.

In Aligning With Their Own Consciences

As To What Is Just

Don't hurt individuals and society,

by enforcing secondhand opinions of what is just,

but serve society by

connecting firsthand with individual hearts,

exchanging wisdom,

and ultimately trusting others' heartfelt understanding of what is just,

the same way that you would want to be trusted in managing your own life.

Earth operates as a holistic entity,
rather than as a checkerboard of surface-level jurisdictions.

Society must be empowered to align with Earth, over unjust conventions of the past.

Indigenous cultures have longstanding big picture knowledge of truly sustainable ecological care.
Police have advantageous recent knowledge of localities.
