VOICES TO VISION:

Listening to Our Daughters

A dynamic, innovative, and timely opportunity to meet our daughters where they are as 2020 continues to bring unparalleled challenges and moments of true connection with the young women of Opening Act.

This four-part virtual series is a candid and intimate opportunity to listen to our daughters and validate their feelings about race and culture during the 2020 pandemic.

Part I: Tuesday, July 28, 2020, 5:00 pm via Zoom

Hear My Voice: Speaking from the Heart

Young women speak to their mothers and the women of Opening Act

Part II and III: Date TBA

Meet Me Where I Am: Watering the Soil

Break-out sessions to form ideas in artistic channels for sharing reflections

Part IV: Date TBA

Voices In Bloom: Embracing It All

Young women share and showcase their reflections to our virtual audience
