New Consultancy focused on Corporate Governance opens in the Abu Dhabi Global Market (ADGM)

CCHL, a new business consultancy, is opening in the ADGM to advise operating companies, fund managers, family offices, and foundations on “best in class” implementation of business strategy and corporate governance for all envisioned activities in the UAE.

Co-founded by Jason Clark, Mark Cutis, Guy Hurley and Ryan Lemand, four UAE based senior executives with experience in financial services and investment management, both in the MENA region and internationally, the firm will offer advice on overall establishment strategy, business representation and corporate and fund governance.

Cutis, the Non-Executive Chair of CCHL, notes: “Strong corporate and fund governance for operating companies and investment funds is key to attracting capital and maintaining investor confidence as well as implementing the sound regulatory guidelines prescribed by the local regulatory authorities. “

The firm is based in the ADGM with the Managing Partners available as Advisors, Independent Non-Executive Directors and Representatives for their client’s activities.

Clark, Senior Executive Officer, adds: “Bringing together these four colleagues ensures we have a senior team with the collective knowledge, expertise and network to help clients’ enterprises to grow and scale in the UAE in a controlled and focused manner.”

CCHL and Clark Cutis Hurley Lemand are the Trade Names of CCHL LTD, a private company limited by shares incorporated in the Abu Dhabi Global Market.
