KANNOA

Kannoa was founded in 2006 by two childhood friends, Luis Blasini and Philip Boulton. They set out to build an outdoor furniture company based on four pillars: Design, Functionality, Durability, and Harmony. From the beginning, they had an innate sense that these concepts should guide not only the furniture they manufactured but also the company itself.

At Kannoa, people come first. We strive to create a relaxed, informal work environment. We consider you, our client, a part of our work family and are committed to supporting you throughout the purchasing process. With countless options available in outdoor furniture, we are happy to share our expertise to help you make the best choice.

We take pride in offering well-designed, functional pieces crafted from only the finest raw materials to ensure long-term durability against the elements. All our furniture is available in any of our 20 vibrant colors. If our current offerings don't meet your needs, we can customize them to suit your preferences.

We also thrive on collaboration with young designers and continuously work to harmoniously integrate our furniture with the environment.
